

unfoldingWord® Translation Questions © 2022 unfoldingWord. Released under CC BY-SA 4.0 license.

unfoldingWord® Translation Questions has been adapted in the following languages: Tok Pisin, Arabic (عربي), French (Français), Hindi (हिंदी), Indonesian (Bahasa Indonesia), Portuguese (Português), Russian (Русский), Spanish (Español), Swahili (Kiswahili), and Simplified Chinese (简体中文) from unfoldingWord® Translation Questions © 2022 unfoldingWord. Released under CC BY-SA 4.0 license by Mission Mutual

Song of Songs

Song of Solomon 1:1

Who is the writer of Song of Songs?

Solomon is the writer of Song of Songs.

Song of Solomon 1:2

What does the young woman ask her lover to do?

The young woman asks her lover to kiss her with the kisses of his mouth.

Song of Solomon 1:2 (#2)

What does the young woman say is better than wine?

The young woman says her lover's love is better than wine.

Song of Solomon 1:3

What does the young woman say her lover's name is like?

The young woman says his name is like flowing perfume.

Song of Solomon 1:4

Where has the king brought the young woman?

The king has brought the young woman into his rooms.

Song of Solomon 1:5

How does the young woman describe her skin?

The young woman describes her skin as dark but lovely like tents of Kedar, like curtains of Solomon.

Song of Solomon 1:6

Why does she not want the other women to stare at her?

She does not want the other women to stare at her because her skin is scorched.

Song of Solomon 1:6 (#2)

What did the young woman's brothers do when they were angry with her?

The young woman's brothers made her a keeper of the vineyards.

Song of Solomon 1:7

What does the woman ask her lover?

She asks him where he feeds his flock and where he rests his flock at noontime.

Song of Solomon 1:8

How does her lover say the young woman can find him?

He tells her to follow the tracks of his flock to the shepherds' tents.

Song of Solomon 1:9

To what does the young woman's lover compare her?

He compares her to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.

Song of Solomon 1:10

What does her lover say is on her cheeks and neck?

He says ornaments are on her cheeks and strings of jewels are on her neck.

Song of Solomon 1:11

What does her lover say he will make for her?

He says he will make for her gold ornaments with silver studs.

Song of Solomon 1:12

Where was the king lying while the woman's perfume spread in the room?

The king was lying on his couch while the fragrance of the woman's perfume spread.

Song of Solomon 1:13

Where does her beloved spend the night?

Her beloved spends the night lying between her breasts.

Song of Solomon 1:14

To what does the young woman liken her beloved?

Her beloved is like a cluster of henna flowers in the vineyards of En Gedi.

Song of Solomon 1:15

How does her lover describe her eyes?

He says her eyes are like doves.

Song of Solomon 1:16

What does the woman say serves as their bed?

Lush plants serve as their bed.

Song of Solomon 1:17

Of what does the woman say the beams and rafters are made?

The beams and rafters are made of cedar and pine trees.

Song of Solomon 2:1

How did the woman describe herself?

She described herself as a flower of the plain, a lily of the valleys.

Song of Solomon 2:2

What does the man say she was like among the daughters of his countrymen?

He said she was like a lily among thorns.

Song of Solomon 2:3

How did the woman describe her beloved among the young men?

The woman described her young man as the apple tree among the trees of the forest.

Song of Solomon 2:3 (#2)

Where did the woman sit?

She sat down under his shadow with great delight.

Song of Solomon 2:3 (#3)

What was sweet to her taste?

His fruit was sweet to her taste.

Song of Solomon 2:4

Where did her young man bring her?

Her young man brought her to the house of wine.

Song of Solomon 2:4 (#2)

What was his banner over her?

His banner over her was love.

Song of Solomon 2:5

What did the young woman want to sustain and refresh herself?

The young woman wanted raisin cakes to sustain her and apples to refresh her.

Song of Solomon 2:6

Where were the young man's left and right hands?

His left hand was under her head and his right hand embraces her.

Song of Solomon 2:7

What did the young woman want the daughters of Jerusalem to avoid?

The young woman wanted the young women avoid awakening love before the right time comes.

Song of Solomon 2:8

What sound did the young woman hear?

The young woman heard the voice of her beloved.

Song of Solomon 2:8 (#2)

What did she say her beloved was doing?

He was leaping over the mountains and jumping over the hills.

Song of Solomon 2:9

What did she say her beloved was like?

She said her beloved was like a gazelle or a young stag.

Song of Solomon 2:10

What did her beloved want her to do with him?

He wanted her to get up and walk with him.

Song of Solomon 2:11

What did he say was past, and what was over and gone?

He said he winter was past and the rain was over and gone.

Song of Solomon 2:12

What had appeared in the land?

Flowers had appeared in the land.

Song of Solomon 2:12 (#2)

For what was it time?

It was time for pruning and hearing the birds sing.

Song of Solomon 2:13

What ripens and was in blossom?

The green figs ripens and the vines were in blossom.

Song of Solomon 2:13 (#2)

What did her beloved want his beautiful one to do?

He wanted her to arise and come away.

Song of Solomon 2:14

What does her beloved call her?

Her beloved calls her his dove.

Song of Solomon 2:14 (#2)

What does her beloved want to see and hear?

Her beloved wanted to see her lovely face and hear her sweet voice.

Song of Solomon 2:15

What did the woman want him to catch?

The woman wanted him to catch the foxes that ruin vineyards.

Song of Solomon 2:16

To whom did the woman's beloved belong?

Her beloved belonged to her.

Song of Solomon 2:16 (#2)

To whom did the woman belong?

She belonged to her beloved.

Song of Solomon 2:16 (#3)

What did her beloved do among the lilies?

He grazed among the lilies with pleasure.

Song of Solomon 2:17

What did she want her beloved to do?

She wanted her beloved to go away.

Song of Solomon 2:17 (#2)

When did she want her beloved to go away?

She wanted her beloved to go away before the soft winds of dawn blew and the shadows fled away.

Song of Solomon 2:17 (#3)

What did she want him to be like?

She wanted him to like a gazelle or a young stag on the rugged mountains.

Song of Solomon 3:1

For whom was the woman longing but could not find?

The woman was longing for the one whom she loved, but she could not find him.

Song of Solomon 3:2

For whom did the woman search through the streets and squares but not find?

The woman searched through the streets and squares, but she could not find her beloved.

Song of Solomon 3:3

What did the woman ask the watchmen when they found her?

She asked them, "Have you seen my beloved?"

Song of Solomon 3:4

When did she find the one whom her soul loved?

She found the one whom her soul loved just after she passed the watchmen in the city.

Song of Solomon 3:4 (#2)

What did she do with her beloved?

She held him and would not let him go until she had brought him into her mother's house.

Song of Solomon 3:5

What did the woman want the daughters of Jerusalem's men to promise?

The woman wanted the daughters of Jerusalem promise they would not awaken or stir love before the right time.

Song of Solomon 3:6–7

What did the young woman see coming from the wilderness that was perfumed with myrrh and frankincense and powders?

She saw the portable litter of Solomon coming with 60 warriors around it.

Song of Solomon 3:8

At what were the warriors good?

The warriors were good with the sword and in warfare.

Song of Solomon 3:9

What did King Solomon make for himself?

King Solomon made a sedan chair from wood from Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 3:10

What did King Solomon's sedan chair look like?

The chair had posts of silver, a back of gold, a seat of purple cloth, and was decorated and made comfortable with love.

Song of Solomon 3:11

At what did the young woman want the women of Jerusalem to look?

She wanted them to look at King Solomon.

Song of Solomon 3:11 (#2)

What was King Solomon wearing on his marriage day?

He wore a crown with which his mother crowned him on his marriage day.

Song of Solomon 4:1

How did the woman's lover describe her eyes?

Her eyes were as doves behind her veil.

Song of Solomon 4:1 (#2)

How did the woman's lover describe her hair?

Her hair was like a flock of goats going down Mount Gilead.

Song of Solomon 4:2

How did her lover describe her teeth.

Her teeth were like a flock of newly shorn and washed female sheep, two of each and none missing.

Song of Solomon 4:3

What did the woman's beloved say about her lips and mouth.

He said her lips were like a thread of scarlet and that her mouth was lovely.

Song of Solomon 4:3 (#2)

How did the woman's beloved describe her cheeks.

He described her cheeks as being like pomegranate halves behind her veil.

Song of Solomon 4:4

How did the woman's beloved describe her neck?

He described her neck as the tower of David built in rows of stone with a thousand soldiers' shields hanging on it.

Song of Solomon 4:5

How did the woman's beloved describe her two breasts?

He described her two breasts as two fawns, twins of a gazelle, grazing among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 4:6

Where would her lover go until dawn comes and the shadows flee?

He said he would go to the mountain of myrrh and the hill of frankincense.

Song of Solomon 4:7

In what way was his love beautiful?

His love was beautiful in every way.

Song of Solomon 4:7 (#2)

What did his beautiful love not have?

His beautiful love did not have any blemish.

Song of Solomon 4:9

What did Solomon call his bride?

Solomon called her his sister.

Song of Solomon 4:9 (#2)

What did Solomon say the love of his wife was better than?

Solomon said her love was better than wine.

Song of Solomon 4:10

What was the smell of her perfume better than?

The smell of her perfume was better than any spice.

Song of Solomon 4:11

With what did he say his bride's lips dripped and what was under her tongue?

He said his bride's lips dripped with nectar and she had honey and milk under her tongue.

Song of Solomon 4:11 (#2)

What did the woman's clothes smell like?

Her clothes smelled like the fragrance of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:12

What kind of garden and what kind of spring did Solomon say his sister, his bride, was like?

Solomon said she was like a garden locked up and a spring that was sealed.

Song of Solomon 4:13–14

To what did he liken the woman's branches?

He likened her branches to a grove of pomegranate trees with choice fruit and plants and all the finest spices.

Song of Solomon 4:15

With what kinds of water does Solomon describe his lover?

He described her as a garden spring, a well of fresh water, and streams flowing down from Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:16

On what does the young woman want the north and south winds to blow and why?

She wanted the north and south winds to blow on her garden so that its spices would give off their fragrance.

Song of Solomon 4:16 (#2)

What did she want her beloved to do and to eat?

She wanted her beloved to come into his garden and to eat some of its choice fruit.

Song of Solomon 5:1

Where had Solomon come?

Solomon had come into his garden.

Song of Solomon 5:2

Of what was Solomon's bride dreaming?

She was dreaming of her beloved's knocking and talking.

Song of Solomon 5:3

What had Solomon's beloved already done?

She had already taken off her robe and washed her feet.

Song of Solomon 5:4

Where had Solomon put his hand?

Solomon had put his hand through the opening of the door latch.

Song of Solomon 5:5

With what were the bride's hands dipping when she opened the door?

Her hands were dripping with moist myrrh.

Song of Solomon 5:6

What did the bride find when she opened the door and how did she feel?

She found that her beloved had turned and gone, so her heart sank and she became sad.

Song of Solomon 5:7

What did the watchmen do when they found Solomon's bride?

They struck and wounded her and took away her veil.

Song of Solomon 5:8

What did the bride ask the women of Jerusalem to promise?

She asked the women of Jerusalem to promise that if they found her beloved they would tell him she was lovesick for him.

Song of Solomon 5:8 (#2)

How did the young woman's beloved make her feel?

The young woman's beloved made her feel sick with love.

Song of Solomon 5:9

What did the young women ask of the bride?

They asked her how and why her beloved is better than another beloved.

Song of Solomon 5:10

How did the young woman describe her beloved?

She described him as radiant, ruddy, and outstanding.

Song of Solomon 5:11

How did the woman describe her beloved's head and hair?

She described his head as pure gold and his hair as curly and black.

Song of Solomon 5:12

How did the woman describe her beloved's eyes?

She described his eyes like doves washed in milk.

Song of Solomon 5:13

How did Solomon's bride describe his cheeks and lips?

She described his cheeks like spice gardens and his lips as myrrh soaked lilies.

Song of Solomon 5:14

How did the woman describe her beloved's arms and abdomen?

She described his arms as gold with jewels and his abdomen as ivory covered with sapphires.

Song of Solomon 5:15How did the woman describe her beloved's legs and his appearance?

She described his legs as marble pillars with gold bases and his appearance like Lebanon, as special as the cedars.

Song of Solomon 5:16How did Solomon's bride describe her beloved's mouth and Solomon to Jerusalem's daughters?

She described his mouth as most sweet and that Solomon was most desirable.

Song of Solomon 6:1What questions do the women of Jerusalem ask of the young woman?

They ask her where her beloved has gone and in what direction has he gone?

Song of Solomon 6:1 (#2)For what did the young women want to seek?

The young women wanted to seek for the young woman's beloved.

Song of Solomon 6:2What does the young woman say her beloved was doing?

The young woman said he was in his spice gardens to graze in the garden and gather lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:3To whom did the young woman and her lover belong?

The young woman and her lover belonged to each other.

Song of Solomon 6:3 (#2)Where did the young woman's lover graze?

The young woman's lover grazed among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:4What two cities did the woman's lover use to describe her?

He described her as two cities, Tirzah and Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon 6:4 (#2)How did her beloved feel about her?

He felt that she was completely beautiful and lovely, but also terrifying.

Song of Solomon 6:5Why did the woman's lover want her to turn her eyes away from him?

The woman's lover wanted her to turn her eyes away from him because her eyes excited him.

Song of Solomon 6:5 (#2)How did the woman's lover describe her hair?

He described her hair as a flock of goats descending the slopes of Mount Gilead.

Song of Solomon 6:6How did her lover describe her teeth?

He described her teeth as a flock of ewes, each with twins and none missing, coming up from the washing place.

Song of Solomon 6:7How did her lover describe her cheeks?

Her lover described her cheeks as pomegranate halves behind her veil.

Song of Solomon 6:8How many other women did the woman's lover say there were?

He said there were 60 queens, 80 concubines, and young women without number.

Song of Solomon 6:9How did the woman's lover describe his dove?

The woman's lover described her as undefiled, the only one, and the special and favorite daughter of her mother.

Song of Solomon 6:9 (#2)What did the queens and the concubines say about her when they saw her?

The queens and concubines called her blessed and praised her.

Song of Solomon 6:10How did the woman's lover describe her?

The woman's lover described her like the dawn, the moon, the sun, and completely awesome.

Song of Solomon 6:11Why did the woman's lover go into the grove of nut trees?

The woman's lover went into the grove of nut trees to see if the vines had budded and the pomegranates were in bloom.

Song of Solomon 6:12

How did the woman's lover feel.

The woman's lover felt as though he were riding in the chariot of a prince.

Song of Solomon 6:13

What did the woman's lover want her to do?

The woman's lover wanted her to turn back to him.

Song of Solomon 6:13 (#2)

Why did the woman's lover want her to turn to him?

The woman's lover wanted her to turn to him so that he may gaze on her.

Song of Solomon 6:13 (#3)

What did the young woman ask her beloved?

The young woman why he looked at her as though mesmerized (like the dance between two armies).

Song of Solomon 7:1

How did Solomon describe his lover's feet in her sandals and the curves of her thighs?

He described her feet in her sandals as beautiful and the curves of her thighs like jewels.

Song of Solomon 7:2

How did Solomon describe his love's navel and belly?

Solomon described his love's navel as a round bowl which never lacks mixed wine and her belly as mound of wheat surrounded with lilies.

Song of Solomon 7:3

How did Solomon describe his lover's two breasts?

Solomon described her two breasts like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Song of Solomon 7:4

How did Solomon describe his lover's neck, eyes, and nose?

Solomon described her neck as an ivory tower, her eyes like a pool, and her nose like the tower in Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 7:5

How did Solomon describe his lover's head and hair?

Solomon described her head like Mount Carmel and her hair as dark.

Song of Solomon 7:7

How did Solomon describe his lover and her breasts?

He described her height as a date palm tree and her breasts as clusters of grapes.

Song of Solomon 7:8

What did he also want his lover's breasts and breath to be like?

He also wanted his lover's breasts to be like grape clusters and her breath to be sweet like the smell of an apple.

Song of Solomon 7:9

What did he want his lover's mouth to be like?

He wanted her mouth to be like the best wine.

Song of Solomon 7:10

To whom did the young woman belong and whom did he desire?

The young woman belonged to her beloved and her beloved desired her.

Song of Solomon 7:11

Where did the young woman want her beloved to go with her?

She wanted him to go into the countryside to spend the night in the villages.

Song of Solomon 7:12

Why did she want her beloved to rise early?

She wanted him to rise early to see if the vines in the vineyards had budded and the pomegranates had begun blooming.

Song of Solomon 7:12 (#2)

What did she say she would give her beloved when they got to the vineyards?

She said she would give him her love.

Song of Solomon 7:13

What did she say the mandrakes would do?

She said the mandrakes would give off their fragrance.

Song of Solomon 7:13 (#2)

What did she say was at the door where she and her lover were staying?

She said that at the door where they were staying there were all sorts of choice fruits, new and old, that she had stored up for him.

Song of Solomon 8:1

What did the woman wish that her lover was like and why?

She wished he were like her brother so that she could kiss her lover at any time and no one would despise her.

Song of Solomon 8:2

Where would the woman have liked to bring her lover?

She would have liked to bring him to her mother's house.

Song of Solomon 8:3

What were her lover's left and right hands doing?

His left hand was holding her head and his right hand was hugging her.

Song of Solomon 8:4

What did the woman want Jerusalem's women to promise?

The woman wanted Jerusalem's women to promise that they would not stir up love before its proper time.

Song of Solomon 8:5

What did the women of Jerusalem ask?

They asked who was coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved.

Song of Solomon 8:5 (#2)

What did the young woman tell her lover when she woke him under the apple tree?

She told him that his mother had conceived and given birth to him under the apple tree.

Song of Solomon 8:6

What did the young woman want her lover to do and why?

She wanted him to set her as a seal over his heart, because love is as strong as death, and jealousy flashes like a hot flame.

Song of Solomon 8:7

What couldn't stop love?

Floods of water could put out the fire of love.

Song of Solomon 8:8

What did the woman's brothers say about their little sister?

They said that her breasts had not yet grown and that they wondered what they would do for her when she was promised in marriage.

Song of Solomon 8:9

What would the woman's brothers do if she were a wall?

If she were a wall, they would build a tower of silver on her.

Song of Solomon 8:9 (#2)

What would the woman's brothers do if she were a door?

If she were a door, they would adorn her with boards of cedar.

Song of Solomon 8:10

How did the young woman describe herself?

She described herself as a wall with breasts like fortress towers and completely mature.

Song of Solomon 8:11

What did the young woman say that Solomon did with his vineyard at Baal Hamon?

Solomon leased his vineyard to those who would take care of it.

Song of Solomon 8:12

What does the young woman say about her own vineyard and those who maintained it?

She said the 1000 shekels that it brought belonged to Solomon and that those who maintained it would get 200 shekels.

Song of Solomon 8:13

What did the woman's lover say to her who lived in the gardens about what his friends, as well as he, wanted to hear?

He said that his friends, as well as he, wanted to be the ones to hear her voice.

Song of Solomon 8:14

What did the young woman want her beloved to do and be like?

She wanted her beloved to hurry and to be like a deer.