unfoldingWord® Translation Questions © 2022 unfoldingWord. Released under CC BY-SA 4.0 license. unfoldingWord® Translation Questions has been adapted in the following languages: Tok Pisin, Arabic (عربي), French (Français), Hindi (हिंदी), Indonesian (Bahasa Indonesia), Portuguese (Português), Russian (Русский), Spanish (Español), Swahili (Kiswahili), and Simplified Chinese (简体中文) from unfoldingWord® Translation Questions © 2022 unfoldingWord. Released under CC BY-SA 4.0 license by Mission Mutual

Psalms

Psalms 1:1 (#1)

What does the happy man not do?

He does not do what the wicked advise him to do.

Psalms 1:1 (#2)

Where does the happy man not stand?

He does not stand in the pathway of sinners.

Psalms 1:1 (#3)

Where does the happy man not sit?

He does not sit in the seat of scoffers.

Psalms 1:2 (#2)

When does the man meditate on the instruction of Yahweh?

He meditates on it day and night.

Psalms 1:2 (#1)

In what does the man delight?

He delights in the instruction of Yahweh.

Psalms 1:3 (#2)

What will happen to everything the man does?

Whatever he does will prosper.

Psalms 1:3 (#1)

What is the man like?

He is like a tree set to grow by streams of water.

Psalms 1:4 (#1)

What are wicked people like?

They are like the chaff that the wind chases away.

Psalms 1:5 (#1)

What will happen to wicked people in the judgment?

They will not stand in the judgment.

Psalms 1:6 (#1)

Who knows the way of the righteous?

Yahweh knows the way of the righteous.

Psalms 1:6 (#2)

What will happen to the way of the wicked?

The way of the wicked will perish.

Psalms 2:2 (#1)

Who are the rulers conspiring against?

They are conspiring against Yahweh and against his anointed.

Psalms 2:3 (#1)

What do the rulers want to tear apart and throw off?

They want to tear apart the restraints Yahweh and his chosen king put on them and cast off their rule.

Psalms 2:4 (#1)

Who sits in the heavens and mocks the nations who rebel?

The Lord mocks them.

Psalms 2:6 (#1)

Who has the Lord anointed?

The Lord has anointed his king on Zion, his holy mountain.

Psalms 2:7 (#1)

What decree does Yahweh give to the psalmist?

Yahweh says, “You are my son! Today I have begotten you.”

Psalms 2:8 (#1)

What will Yahweh do with the nations and most distant regions of the earth?

Yahweh will give them as an inheritance and possession.

Psalms 2:9 (#1)

What will happen to the nations?

They will be broken and smashed.

Psalms 2:11 (#1)

How should the kings and rulers respond to Yahweh’s decree?

They should serve Yahweh in fear and rejoice with trembling.

Psalms 2:12 (#2)

What happens to all those who take refuge in the son?

They will have a life that is truly good.

Psalms 2:12 (#1)

Why should the kings give allegiance to Yahweh's son?

They should give him allegiance so that he will not be angry and they will not perish.

Psalms 3:1 (#1)

What does David say about how many enemies he has?

David says that his so many enemies who have decided to oppose him.

Psalms 3:3 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh is to him?

David says Yahweh is a shield that protects him and he is the one who encourages.

Psalms 3:4 (#1)

What does Yahweh do when David calls out to him?

He answers David from his holy hill.

Psalms 3:6 (#1)

Who does David say he will not fear because of Yahweh's protection?

David will not be afraid of the many people who stand against him.

Psalms 3:7 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh does to his enemies?

Yahweh destroys David's enemies power like he is breaking animals' teeth.

Psalms 3:8 (#1)

From whom does salvation come?

Salvation comes from Yahweh.

Psalms 4:1 (#1)

Who does David ask to answer when he calls?

David prays for the God of his righteousness to answer when he calls.

Psalms 4:2 (#1)

What does David say the people are doing to his glory?

They are dishonoring him instead of honoring him.

Psalms 4:3 (#1)

Who does Yahweh set apart for himself?

Yahweh sets apart the faithful for himself.

Psalms 4:4 (#1)

What does David tell people to do while lying on their beds?

David tells them to meditate in their hearts and be silent.

Psalms 4:5 (#1)

What kind of sacrifices does David say to offer?

He says to offer sacrifices of righteousness.

Psalms 4:5 (#2)

In whom does David say to trust?

He says to trust in Yahweh.

Psalms 4:6 (#1)

What do many people say?

Many people ask who will show them anything good.

Psalms 4:7 (#1)

What has Yahweh put in David's heart?

Yahweh has put more joy in his heart than others have in their hearts when their grain and new wine abound.

Psalms 4:8 (#1)

Who makes David safe and secure when he lies down in peaceful sleep?

Yahweh alone makes David safe and secure.

Psalms 5:1 (#1)

Who does David ask listen to what he says and understand his murmuring?

David asks Yahweh to listen to what he says and understand his distressed sigh.

Psalms 5:2 (#1)

What names does David use for the one who listens to the sound of his cry?

David calls him his king and his God.

Psalms 5:3 (#1)

What does David say he will do each morning?

David says he will prepare for Yahweh and watch.

Psalms 5:4 (#1)

What does God certainly not do?

He certainly does not approve of evil, and evil people will not be his guests.

Psalms 5:5 (#1)

Who will not stand in God's presence?

The arrogant will not stand in God's presence.

Psalms 5:5 (#2)

Whom does God hate?

God hates all who do evil things.

Psalms 5:6 (#1)

What will God do to liars?

God will destroy liars.

Psalms 5:6 (#2)

Who does Yahweh despise?

Yahweh despises violent and deceitful men.

Psalms 5:7 (#1)

Why will David come into Yahweh's house?

David will come into Yahweh's house because of Yahweh's great covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 5:7 (#2)

How will David bow down toward Yahweh's holy temple?

David will bow down in reverence.

Psalms 5:8 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh to guide him in righteousness?

David asks Yahweh to guide him in righteousness because of those who are watching him.

Psalms 5:9 (#1)

How does David describe his enemies?

David describes his enemies as untrustworthy, desiring to destroy people, speaking things that are vile like the smell of an open grave, and flattering people to trap and destroy them.

Psalms 5:10 (#1)

What does David ask God to do to his enemies because of their many transgressions and their rebellion against God?

David asks God to declare his enemies guilty and to drive them out.

Psalms 5:11 (#1)

Why should those who take refuge in God shout for joy?

They should shout for joy because God defends them.

Psalms 5:12 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for the righteous?

Yahweh will bless the righteous and surround them with his favor as with a shield.

Psalms 6:1 (#1)

What is David asking Yahweh not to do?

He asks Yahweh not to rebuke him in his anger or discipline him in his wrath.

Psalms 6:2 (#1)

What is David asking Yahweh to do because David is frail?

David asks Yahweh to have mercy on him and to heal him.

Psalms 6:4 (#1)

Why does David say that Yahweh should rescue and save him?

Because of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 6:5 (#1)

What will not be remembered in death?

In death there is no remembrance of Yahweh.

Psalms 6:6 (#1)

What does David do to his bed because he is weary and groaning?

All night he soaks it with his tears.

Psalms 6:7 (#1)

What happens to David's eyes because of his grief and because of all his adversaries?

His vision becomes weak, so that he cannot see well.

Psalms 6:8–9 (#1)

Why should those who practice iniquity get away from David?

Because Yahweh has heard the sound of his weeping and his appeal for mercy and accepts his prayer.

Psalms 6:10 (#1)

What does David ask God to make happen to his enemies?

He asks that all his enemies will be ashamed and greatly troubled and they will turn back.

Psalms 7:1 (#1)

In whom does David take refuge?

David takes refuge in Yahweh his God.

Psalms 7:1 (#2)

What is David asking Yahweh to do?

David is asking Yahweh to save him from those who chase him, and to rescue him.

Psalms 7:3–5 (#1)

What does David say should happen to him if he has done wrong?

David says that if he has done wrong, his enemy should be allowed to chase and capture him and leave him lying dead.

Psalms 7:6 (#2)

What does David say Yahweh has already ordered?

David says that Yahweh has already ordered judgment.

Psalms 7:6 (#1)

What is David asking Yahweh to do in Yahweh's anger?

David is asking Yahweh show that he is greater than what David's furious enemies can do.

Psalms 7:7 (#1)

What does David want Yahweh to do concerning the peoples?

David wants Yahweh to take his rightful place ruling over all the peoples.

Psalms 7:8 (#1)

Who does David want Yahweh to judge?

David wants Yahweh to judge all the peoples, including himself.

Psalms 7:9 (#1)

What does David say the righteous God does?

David says God examines thoughts and desires.

Psalms 7:10 (#2)

Who does God save?

God saves the upright in heart.

Psalms 7:10 (#1)

Where does David's protection come from?

David's protection comes from God.

Psalms 7:11 (#1)

How does David describe God?

David describes God as a righteous judge who is indignant each day.

Psalms 7:12 (#1)

What will God do if a person does not repent?

God will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle.

Psalms 7:14 (#1)

How does David describe the wicked person who does not repent?

David describes the wicked person as filled with evil intentions, as though pregnant with them, and as one who lies as naturally as giving birth.

Psalms 7:15 (#1)

What happens to the wicked man who digs a pit?

He falls into the hole he has made.

Psalms 7:16 (#1)

What happens to the trouble and violence of the wicked man?

He experiences the bad and violent things that he wants to do to others.

Psalms 7:17 (#2)

To whom will David sing praise?

David will sing praise to the name of Yahweh, the Most High.

Psalms 7:17 (#1)

For what will David give thanks to Yahweh?

David will give thanks to Yahweh for his righteousness.

Psalms 8:1 (#1)

Whose name is magnificent in all the earth?

The name of Yahweh our Lord is magnificent.

Psalms 8:2 (#1)

What did Yahweh establish out of the mouth of children and nursing ones?

Yahweh established strength.

Psalms 8:2 (#2)

Why did Yahweh establish strength from the mouths of children and nursing ones?

He established it in order to cause the enemy and avenger to end.

Psalms 8:3 (#1)

What does the psalmist see when he looks at the sky that causes him to wonder why God pays attention to people?

He sees the heavens, the moon, and the stars that God set in place.

Psalms 8:5 (#1)

How does the human race compare to the heavenly beings?

Yahweh made humans only a little lower than the heavenly beings.

Psalms 8:5 (#2)

With what did Yahweh crown humans?

He crowned them with glory and majesty.

Psalms 8:6 (#1)

What did Yahweh make mankind to do?

Yahweh made mankind to rule over the works of Yahweh's hands.

Psalms 8:7–8 (#1)

What are some things that Yahweh put under mankind's feet?

He put all sheep and oxen, and even the animals of the field, the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea, and everything that passes on the paths of the seas under mankind's feet.

Psalms 8:9 (#1)

Whose name is magnificent in all the earth?

The name of Yahweh our Lord is magnificent.

Psalms 9:1 (#1)

How will David give thanks to Yahweh and of what will he tell?

He will give thanks to Yahweh with his whole heart and tell about all his marvelous deeds.

Psalms 9:3 (#1)

When David's enemies turn back, what happens to them?

The enemies stumble and perish before Yahweh.

Psalms 9:4 (#1)

What has the righteous judge done for David?

The righteous judge sits on his throne and has defended David's just cause.

Psalms 9:5 (#1)

What does Yahweh do to the nations and the wicked?

He rebukes the nations, destroys the wicked, and blots out their name forever and ever.

Psalms 9:6 (#1)

What happens to the enemy?

The enemy are finished in desolation forever, and all remembrance of them perishes.

Psalms 9:7 (#1)

Who sits forever and has established his throne for justice?

Yahweh sits forever and has established his throne for justice.

Psalms 9:8 (#1)

How does Yahweh judge the world and what does he do for the nations?

Yahweh judges the world fairly and makes just decisions for the nations.

Psalms 9:9 (#1)

What will Yahweh be for the oppressed?

Yahweh will be a stronghold for the oppressed in times of trouble.

Psalms 9:10 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about those who know Yahweh's name?

Those who know Yahweh's name trust in him, because Yahweh has not abandoned those who seek him.

Psalms 9:11 (#1)

What does David say the people are to do for Yahweh, who sits in Zion?

They are to sing praises to Yahweh and tell the nations what Yahweh has done.

Psalms 9:12 (#1)

What does Yahweh not forget?

He does not forget the cry of the poor.

Psalms 9:13 (#1)

What is David asking Yahweh to do for him?

He is asking Yahweh to have mercy on him.

Psalms 9:13 (#2)

By whom is David oppressed?

David is oppressed by those who hate him.

Psalms 9:14 (#1)

Where will David rejoice in salvation?

David will rejoice in salvation in the gates of the daughter of Zion.

Psalms 9:15 (#1)

What has happened to the nations?

The nations have sunk down into the pit that they made and their feet are caught in the net that they hid.

Psalms 9:16 (#1)

Who has revealed himself and done justice?

Yahweh has revealed himself and done justice.

Psalms 9:17 (#1)

Where are the wicked sent?

They are sent to Sheol, along with all the nations that forget God.

Psalms 9:18 (#1)

What will not happen to the needy and the afflicted?

The needy will not be forgotten forever, nor will the hope of the afflicted perish forever.

Psalms 9:19 (#1)

What does David want Yahweh to prevent humanity from doing?

David wants Yahweh to arise and not let humanity prevail.

Psalms 9:20 (#1)

What is David asking Yahweh to do to the nations?

He is asking Yahweh to terrify them and make them know that they are mere men.

Psalms 10:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh at the beginning of the psalm?

The psalmist asks why Yahweh stands far off and hides in times of trouble.

Psalms 10:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do to the wicked?

The psalmist asks that the wicked be caught in the schemes they have planned to use against the afflicted.

Psalms 10:3 (#1)

What does the wicked man do regarding Yahweh?

The wicked man despises Yahweh and praises those who steal from others.

Psalms 10:4 (#1)

Why does the wicked man not seek God?

The wicked man does not seek God because he is so proud.

Psalms 10:6 (#1)

What does the wicked man say in his heart?

The wicked man says in his heart that he will never be shaken and will never face distress.

Psalms 10:7 (#1)

What is the wicked man always talking about?

He constantly curses, lies, threatens others, and is always talking about harming others and doing wrong.

Psalms 10:8 (#1)

What does the wicked man do to innocent people?

He hides in ambush near the villages, murders the innocent in secret, and watches for helpless people.

Psalms 10:9 (#1)

What animal is the wicked man like?

He is like a lion that hides in a secret place and waits to seize the afflicted.

Psalms 10:11 (#2)

What does the wicked man think about his evil deeds?

He thinks that God will not notice his evil deeds.

Psalms 10:11 (#1)

What does the wicked man say in his heart about God?

The wicked man says that God has forgotten, that God has hidden his face, and that God will never see.

Psalms 10:12 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do?

The psalmist asks Yahweh to take action to prove that he is powerful by paying attention to oppressed people.

Psalms 10:13 (#1)

What does the wicked man say in his heart?

The wicked man says in his heart that God will not seek him out.

Psalms 10:14 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh does for helpless people?

Yahweh sees the mischief done to them, and helpless people and orphans trust him as their helper.

Psalms 10:15 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do to the wicked?

The psalmist asks Yahweh to make the wicked powerless and their wickedness come to nothing.

Psalms 10:16 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh's reign?

Yahweh is king forever and ever, and the nations have perished from his land.

Psalms 10:17–18 (#1)

How does Yahweh respond to the afflicted?

Yahweh hears the desires of the afflicted, strengthens their heart, attends to them, and acts justly for the orphan and oppressed.

Psalms 10:18 (#1)

How does Yahweh respond to the needs of the oppressed?

He strengthens their heart, listens to their prayer, and defends them.

Psalms 11:1 (#1)

In whom does David take refuge?

David takes refuge in Yahweh.

Psalms 11:1 (#2)

What do some people tell David he should do?

They tell him to flee to the mountains like a bird.

Psalms 11:2 (#1)

How do the wicked prepare to attack the upright in heart?

They prepare their bows and make ready their arrows while hiding in darkness.

Psalms 11:4 (#1)

What is Yahweh doing in his holy temple?

His eyes watch and examine all people.

Psalms 11:5 (#1)

Who does Yahweh test?

He tests both the righteous and the wicked.

Psalms 11:5 (#2)

Who does Yahweh hate?

He hates those who love to do violence.

Psalms 11:6 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do to the wicked?

He asks Yahweh to rain snares, fire, and brimstone upon them, with a scorching wind as their portion.

Psalms 11:7 (#2)

What will happen to the upright?

The upright will see Yahweh's face.

Psalms 11:7 (#1)

What does Yahweh think of righteousness?

He loves righteousness.

Psalms 12:1 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh for help?

David asks Yahweh for help because the faithful have come to an end and have vanished from among the sons of man.

Psalms 12:2 (#1)

How does everyone speak to his neighbor?

Everyone speaks lies to his neighbor and speaks insincerely, with flattering lips.

Psalms 12:3 (#1)

What does David want Yahweh to do to the flattering lips?

David wants Yahweh to cut off all flattering lips so that they cannot continue to boast.

Psalms 12:4 (#1)

What do some people boast about?

Some boast that with their tongue they will be powerful, they control what they say, and that no one is master over them.

Psalms 12:5 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for the poor and the needy?

Yahweh will arise and provide safety for which they long.

Psalms 12:6 (#1)

What are the words of Yahweh like?

Yahweh's words are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace and purified seven times.

Psalms 12:7 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh will do for his people?

David says Yahweh will keep and protect them from this wicked generation forever.

Psalms 12:8 (#1)

What causes the wicked to walk proudly?

The wicked walk proudly when people praise wicked actions.

Psalms 13:1 (#1)

What does David repeatedly ask Yahweh at the beginning of this psalm?

David repeatedly asks Yahweh how long he will forget him and hide his face from him.

Psalms 13:2 (#1)

What is David experiencing while waiting for Yahweh to answer?

David must carry sorrow in his heart every day, and his enemy has the upper hand over him.

Psalms 13:3 (#2)

What does David fear will happen if Yahweh does not answer?

David fears he will die.

Psalms 13:3 (#1)

How does David ask Yahweh to respond to his prayer?

He asks Yahweh to consider him, answer him, and restore his strength.

Psalms 13:4 (#1)

What does David not want his enemy to say about him?

He does not want his enemy to say that he has prevailed over David.

Psalms 13:4 (#2)

What will happen if David is defeated?

His enemies will rejoice when he is brought down.

Psalms 13:5 (#2)

What does David ask that his heart might do?

He asks that his heart might rejoice in Yahweh's salvation.

Psalms 13:5 (#1)

In what has David trusted?

David has trusted in Yahweh's covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 13:6 (#1)

Why will David sing to Yahweh?

David will sing because Yahweh has treated him very generously.

Psalms 14:1 (#1)

What does a fool say in his heart?

A fool says, "There is no God."

Psalms 14:2 (#1)

Why does Yahweh looks down on the sons of mankind?

He looks down to see if there are any who understand, who seek after him.

Psalms 14:3 (#1)

Who has done evil and corrupted themselves?

Everyone has done evil and corrupt things and no one does what is right.

Psalms 14:4 (#1)

Who does not call on Yahweh?

Those who make a practice of doing wicked things and acting violently toward Yahweh's people, do not call on Yahweh.

Psalms 14:5 (#1)

Why do those who do not call on Yahweh tremble with dread?

They tremble with dread because God is with the righteous assembly.

Psalms 14:6 (#1)

Who is the refuge of the poor person?

Yahweh is his refuge.

Psalms 14:7 (#1)

What does David want to come from Zion?

David wants the salvation of Israel to come from Zion.

Psalms 14:7 (#2)

When will Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad?

When Yahweh restores the prosperity of his people.

Psalms 15:1–2 (#1)

What kind of person may stay in Yahweh's tabernacle and live on his holy hill?

The person who walks blamelessly, does what is right, and speaks truth from his heart may stay in Yahweh's tabernacle and live on his holy hill.

Psalms 15:3 (#1)

What does this blameless person not do with his tongue?

He does not insult or say bad things with his tongue.

Psalms 15:4 (#3)

When this person swears to his own disadvantage, what does he not do?

He does not take back his promises, even if it causes them trouble to do that.

Psalms 15:4 (#2)

Who does this blameless person honor?

He honors those who fear Yahweh.

Psalms 15:4 (#1)

Who does this blameless person despise?

He despises the person God rejects.

Psalms 15:5 (#3)

What will never happen to the blameless person who does these things?

He will never be shaken.

Psalms 15:5 (#1)

When this blameless person lends money, what does he not do?

He does not charge interest.

Psalms 15:5 (#2)

What does this blameless person not take bribes to do?

He does not take bribes to testify against the innocent.

Psalms 16:1 (#1)

What does David ask God to do for him?

David wants God to protect him because he takes refuge in God.

Psalms 16:2 (#1)

What does David recognize about his relationship to Yahweh?

David recognizes that Yahweh is his Lord, and that everything good David has comes from Yahweh.

Psalms 16:3 (#1)

Who are the holy ones on the earth?

They are majestic people, and David delights greatly in them.

Psalms 16:4 (#1)

What will happen to those who hasten after another god?

Their sorrows will be multiplied.

Psalms 16:4 (#2)

In what ways will David not worship other gods?

He will not pour out drink offerings of blood, and he will not speak their names with his lips.

Psalms 16:5 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh is to him?

David says Yahweh is the portion of his inheritance and his cup, and Yahweh controls what happens to him.

Psalms 16:6 (#1)

What does David recognize that Yahweh has done for him?

David recognizes that Yahweh has greatly blessed him.

Psalms 16:7–8 (#1)

Why does David bless Yahweh?

David blesses Yahweh because Yahweh counsels him.

Psalms 16:9 (#1)

How does David's heart respond to Yahweh?

David's heart is glad, and he rejoices. He will rest securely.

Psalms 16:10 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh will not allow to happen to his faithful one?

Yahweh will not abandon his faithful one to Sheol where dead people go and will save him from dying.

Psalms 16:11 (#1)

What benefits does David get from Yahweh?

Yahweh reveals to David the path of life, gives him joy in Yahweh's presence, and provides delights at his right hand forever.

Psalms 17:1 (#1)

What does David ask God to do for him?

David asks Yahweh to listen to his plea for justice, pay attention to his call for help, and give ear to his prayer.

Psalms 17:2 (#1)

What does David pray will come from Yahweh's presence?

David prays that his vindication will come from Yahweh's presence.

Psalms 17:3 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh found when he tested David at night?

Yahweh examined David's heart, visited him in the night, and detected nothing wrong; David has determined that he will not sin by what he says.

Psalms 17:4 (#1)

How has David kept himself from the paths of the violent?

By the word of Yahweh's lips, David has kept himself from the paths of the violent.

Psalms 17:6 (#1)

Why does David call on God?

David calls on God because God answers him.

Psalms 17:7 (#2)

Who does God save by his right hand?

He saves those who take refuge in him from their enemies.

Psalms 17:7 (#1)

What does David ask God to show him?

He asks God to show his covenant faithfulness to him in a wonderful way.

Psalms 17:8–9 (#1)

How does David ask God to protect him from the wicked?

David asks God to protect him as carefully as people protect their own eyes and to protect him from the wicked like mother birds protect their babies under their wings.

Psalms 17:10 (#1)

How does David describe his enemies?

He says his enemies have no mercy on anyone, and their mouths speak with pride.

Psalms 17:11 (#1)

What have David's enemies done to him?

They have surrounded him and set their eyes on him, crouching low to attack him.

Psalms 17:13 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do to his enemies?

He asks Yahweh to arise, confront his enemies and make them bow down, and to rescue him from the wicked with his sword.

Psalms 17:14 (#1)

From whom is David asking Yahweh to rescue him by his hand?

He is asking Yahweh to rescue him from men of this world whose prosperity is in this life alone.

Psalms 17:14 (#2)

What does Yahweh provide for the men of this world?

Yahweh fills their bellies with riches; they are satisfied with sons, and they leave their abundance to their children.

Psalms 17:15 (#1)

What does David expect to happen when he sees Yahweh's face in righteousness?

He will be satisfied with a sight of Yahweh.

Psalms 18:1 (#1)

What does David express toward Yahweh?

David says that he loves Yahweh.

Psalms 18:3 (#1)

What happens when David calls on Yahweh?

David is saved from his enemies.

Psalms 18:6 (#1)

Where was Yahweh when he heard David's voice?

Yahweh heard David's voice from his temple.

Psalms 18:7 (#1)

Why were the foundations of the mountains shaken?

They were shaken because God was angry.

Psalms 18:9–10 (#1)

How did Yahweh come down from the heavens?

With a dark cloud under his feet, he rode on a cherub and flew swiftly on the wings of the wind.

Psalms 18:14 (#1)

How did Yahweh scatter his enemies?

He shot his lightning like arrows and made his enemies so afraid that they ran away in different directions.

Psalms 18:15 (#1)

What exposed the foundations of the world?

Yahweh's rebuke and the blast of the breath of his nostrils exposed the foundations of the world.

Psalms 18:16 (#1)

Out of what did Yahweh pull David?

It was as if he pulled David out of the deep water of the ocean.

Psalms 18:19 (#1)

Why did Yahweh save David?

Yahweh saved David because Yahweh delighted in him.

Psalms 18:27 (#2)

What does Yahweh do to those who are proud?

Yahweh humiliates them.

Psalms 18:27 (#1)

What does Yahweh do to afflicted people?

He saves afflicted people.

Psalms 18:30 (#1)

How does David describe God's way?

He says God's way is perfect.

Psalms 18:37 (#1)

What did David do to his enemies?

David pursued his enemies and destroyed them.

Psalms 18:41 (#1)

What happened when David's enemies called to Yahweh?

Yahweh did not answer them.

Psalms 18:43 (#1)

Over what has Yahweh made David the head?

Yahweh made David the head over nations.

Psalms 18:48 (#1)

From whom does Yahweh deliver David?

Yahweh delivers David from his enemies.

Psalms 18:50 (#1)

To whom does Yahweh show his covenant faithfulness?

He shows his covenant faithfulness to his anointed one, to David and to his descendants forever.

Psalms 19:1 (#1)

What do the heavens declare and the sky proclaim?

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky proclaims the work of his hands.

Psalms 19:2 (#1)

What do the days and nights continually declare?

Day after day, words flow forth, and night after night knowledge is declared.

Psalms 19:4 (#1)

What goes out through all the earth and to the end of the world?

Their words go out through all the earth to the end of the world.

Psalms 19:5 (#1)

What is the sun like?

The sun is like a bridegroom and like a strong man.

Psalms 19:7 (#2)

What does the testimony of Yahweh do?

The testimony of Yahweh makes the simple wise.

Psalms 19:7 (#1)

What does the law of Yahweh do?

The law of Yahweh restores the soul.

Psalms 19:8 (#1)

What do the precepts of Yahweh do?

The precepts of Yahweh make the heart rejoice.

Psalms 19:8 (#2)

What does the commandment of Yahweh do?

The commandment of Yahweh shows them how he wants them to behave.

Psalms 19:10 (#1)

How do the judgments of Yahweh compare to gold?

They are of greater value than gold, even much more than much fine gold.

Psalms 19:11 (#1)

What do the judgments of Yahweh do for the servant?

By them the servant is warned, and there is great reward in keeping them.

Psalms 19:12 (#1)

From what does David ask Yahweh to acquit him?

He asks Yahweh to acquit him from his hidden faults.

Psalms 19:14 (#1)

What does David want to be acceptable to Yahweh?

David wants the words of his mouth and the meditation of his heart to be acceptable to Yahweh.

Psalms 20:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist pray that Yahweh will do for the king in his time of trouble?

The psalmist prays that Yahweh will answer the king in his time of trouble and protect him.

Psalms 20:2 (#1)

From where does David want Yahweh to send help and support?

He asks that Yahweh send help from the sanctuary and support from Zion.

Psalms 20:3 (#1)

What does David want Yahweh to remember and accept?

David asks that Yahweh remember all the grain offerings and accept the burnt offering.

Psalms 20:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to grant the king?

The psalmist asks that Yahweh grant the king what his heart desires and fulfill all his plans.

Psalms 20:5 (#1)

In what does David say they will rejoice?

David says they will rejoice in the salvation that Yahweh gives.

Psalms 20:6 (#1)

Who does David say that Yahweh will rescue?

David knows that Yahweh will rescue his anointed.

Psalms 20:7 (#1)

In what do other people trust?

Some trust in chariots and others in horses to defeat their enemies.

Psalms 20:7 (#2)

What do David and his people do instead of trusting in chariots or horses?

They remember to trust in the power of Yahweh their God.

Psalms 20:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist say happens to enemies compared to his own people?

The enemies bow down and fall, but the psalmist and his people rise and stand firm.

Psalms 20:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do at the end of the psalm?

The psalmist asks Yahweh to save, and prays that the king will answer them when they call.

Psalms 21:1 (#1)

In what does the king rejoice?

He rejoices in Yahweh's strength and in the salvation Yahweh provides.

Psalms 21:2 (#1)

What has Yahweh done for the king?

Yahweh has given the king his heart's desire and has not held back the request of his lips.

Psalms 21:3 (#1)

What has Yahweh brought to the king and placed on his head?

He has brought the king rich blessings and placed a crown of refined gold on his head.

Psalms 21:4 (#1)

What did Yahweh give the king after the king asked for it?

Yahweh gave the king life and long days forever and ever.

Psalms 21:5 (#1)

Why is the king's glory great?

His glory is great because of Yahweh's salvation.

Psalms 21:5 (#2)

What has Yahweh bestowed upon the king?

Yahweh has bestowed splendor and majesty.

Psalms 21:7 (#1)

Why will the king not be shaken?

He will not be shaken because he trusts in Yahweh through the Most High's covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 21:8 (#1)

What will Yahweh's hand find?

Yahweh's hand will find all his enemies, those who hate him.

Psalms 21:9 (#1)

What will Yahweh do to his enemies?

He will burn them up, and they will be consumed in his wrath.

Psalms 21:10 (#1)

What will Yahweh do to the offspring of his enemies?

He will destroy their offspring and their descendants.

Psalms 21:11–12 (#1)

Why will the plot of Yahweh's enemies not succeed?

It will not succeed because Yahweh will turn them back and draw his bow against them.

Psalms 21:13 (#1)

How will the people exalt Yahweh?

They will sing and praise his power.

Psalms 22:1 (#1)

What is David asking God?

David is asking why God has abandoned him, why he is so far from David.

Psalms 22:2 (#1)

What does David do in the daytime and at night?

David cries out in the daytime, and at night David is not silent.

Psalms 22:3 (#1)

How does David refer to God?

David refers to God as holy, sitting as king with the praises of Israel.

Psalms 22:4–5 (#1)

What did David's ancestors do and how did God respond?

They trusted in God, he rescued them, and they were not disappointed.

Psalms 22:6 (#1)

How does David describe himself?

David says he is a worm and not a man, a disgrace to humanity and despised by the people.

Psalms 22:8 (#1)

What do the people that taunt and mock David say to him?

They say that he trusts in Yahweh and that Yahweh should rescue him since Yahweh delights in him.

Psalms 22:9–10 (#1)

How long has David trusted God?

David trusted Yahweh when he was on his mother's breasts and since he was in his mother's womb.

Psalms 22:11 (#1)

What is David asking God to do for him?

He is asking God to not be far away from him because trouble is near and there is no one to help.

Psalms 22:12–13 (#1)

What is surrounding David like a roaring lion?

His enemies, like many strong bulls of Bashan, surround him, and they are opening their mouths wide against him like a roaring lion.

Psalms 22:14–15 (#1)

How does David describe himself?

He says he is being poured out like water, all his bones are dislocated, his heart is like wax, his strength has dried up, his tongue sticks to the roof of his mouth.

Psalms 22:16 (#1)

What has surrounded David and encircled him?

Dogs have surrounded him and a company of evildoers encircled him, having pierced his hands and feet.

Psalms 22:18 (#1)

What was done to the garments and the clothes?

The garments were divided and lots were cast for the clothes.

Psalms 22:19 (#1)

What does David request of Yahweh?

He requests that Yahweh not be far away and hurry to help him.

Psalms 22:20–21 (#1)

From what does David want to be rescued and saved?

He wants his life delivered from the sword, rescued from the hand of the dog, and saved from the mouth of the lion and the horns of wild oxen.

Psalms 22:22 (#1)

What will David declare to his brothers, and where will he praise Yahweh?

He will declare Yahweh's name to his brothers and praise him in the midst of the assembly.

Psalms 22:23 (#1)

Who should praise, honor, and stand in awe of Yahweh?

All who fear Yahweh, all descendants of Jacob, and all descendants of Israel should praise, honor, and stand in awe of him.

Psalms 22:24 (#1)

When did Yahweh hear the afflicted one?

He heard the afflicted one when he cried to him.

Psalms 22:25 (#1)

Where will David praise and fulfill his vows?

He will praise Yahweh in the great assembly and fulfill his vows before those who fear Yahweh.

Psalms 22:26 (#1)

Who will eat, be satisfied, and praise Yahweh?

The poor will eat and be satisfied, and those who seek Yahweh will praise him.

Psalms 22:27 (#1)

What will all the peoples of the earth and what will the families of the nations do?

The peoples of the earth will remember and turn to Yahweh and all the families of the nations will bow down before him.

Psalms 22:28 (#1)

Over what does Yahweh rule?

Yahweh rules over the nations.

Psalms 22:29 (#1)

Who will bow before Yahweh?

Both the wealthy of the earth and those who are dying and cannot preserve their own lives will bow before him.

Psalms 22:30–31 (#1)

What will future generations do?

They will come and declare to a people not yet born what Yahweh has done.

Psalms 23:1 (#1)

Who is David's shepherd?

David's shepherd is Yahweh.

Psalms 23:2 (#1)

Where does Yahweh make David lie down?

Yahweh makes David lie down in green pastures.

Psalms 23:2 (#2)

Where does Yahweh lead David?

Yahweh leads David beside tranquil water.

Psalms 23:3 (#2)

Where does Yahweh guide David?

Yahweh guides David along right paths.

Psalms 23:3 (#1)

What does Yahweh restore?

Yahweh restores David's soul.

Psalms 23:4 (#1)

When David walks through the valley of deep darkness, who is with him?

Yahweh is with David.

Psalms 23:5 (#1)

What does Yahweh prepare before David?

Yahweh prepares a table in the presence of David's enemies.

Psalms 23:5 (#2)

What does Yahweh anoint?

Yahweh anoints David's head with oil.

Psalms 23:6 (#1)

What will pursue David all the days of his life?

Goodness and covenant faithfulness will pursue David.

Psalms 23:6 (#2)

Where will David live all the days of his life?

David will live in the house of Yahweh for a very long time.

Psalms 24:1–2 (#1)

What does the psalmist say belongs to Yahweh?

The earth and its fullness belong to Yahweh, along with the world and everyone who lives in it, because he founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.

Psalms 24:3–4 (#1)

Who will ascend the mountain of Yahweh and stand in his holy place?

Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, who have not lifted up their soul to what is false and have not sworn deceitfully, will ascend Yahweh's mountain and stand in his holy place.

Psalms 24:5–6 (#1)

What will those who seek Yahweh receive?

Those who seek Yahweh and seek his face will receive a blessing and righteousness from the God of their salvation.

Psalms 24:7 (#1)

Why are the gates to be lifted up?

So that the King of glory may come in.

Psalms 24:8–10 (#1)

Who is the King of glory?

Yahweh is the King of glory. He is strong and mighty in battle, and he commands armies.

Psalms 25:2 (#1)

For what does David ask God?

David asks God to not let him be shamed, and to not let his enemies rejoice over him.

Psalms 25:4–5 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to teach him?

David asks Yahweh to make known to him Yahweh's ways and paths, and to lead him in Yahweh's truth.

Psalms 25:6–7 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to remember?

David asks Yahweh to remember his compassion and covenant faithfulness, but not to remember the sins of David's youth or his transgressions.

Psalms 25:8–9 (#1)

What does Yahweh do because he is good and upright?

He teaches the sinful in the way, leads the humble in justice, and teaches the humble his way.

Psalms 25:10 (#1)

What are all the paths of Yahweh?

They are covenant love and faithfulness for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

Psalms 25:11 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh to forgive his iniquity?

David asks Yahweh to forgive his iniquity for the sake of Yahweh's name.

Psalms 25:12–13 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for the man who fears Yahweh?

Yahweh will teach him in the way he is to choose, his life will remain in prosperity, and his descendants will inherit the land.

Psalms 25:14 (#1)

What does Yahweh share with those who fear him?

Yahweh shares his secret with those who fear him and makes his covenant known to them.

Psalms 25:15 (#1)

Why does David continually keep his eyes on Yahweh?

Because Yahweh will rescue David when his enemies attempt to hurt him.

Psalms 25:16 (#1)

When David is alone and afflicted, what does he request of Yahweh?

David asks Yahweh to turn toward him and be gracious to him.

Psalms 25:17–19 (#1)

When the troubles of David's heart are enlarged, what does he ask of Yahweh?

David asks Yahweh to bring him out of his distresses, to see his affliction and his trouble and forgive all of his sins, and to see his enemies who are many and who hate him with violent hatred.

Psalms 25:20 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh to not let him be shamed?

Because David takes refuge in Yahweh.

Psalms 25:22 (#1)

From what does David ask God to redeem Israel?

He asks God to redeem Israel from all of his troubles.

Psalms 26:1 (#1)

How does David say that he has walked?

David says he has walked with integrity and has trusted in Yahweh without wavering.

Psalms 26:2 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to examine and test?

He asks Yahweh to test the purity of his inner parts and heart.

Psalms 26:3 (#1)

What is before David's eyes?

Yahweh's covenant faithfulness is before David's eyes.

Psalms 26:4 (#1)

With whom does David not associate or mingle?

David does not associate with deceitful people or mingle with dishonest people.

Psalms 26:5 (#2)

With whom does David say he will not sit?

David says he will not sit with the wicked.

Psalms 26:5 (#1)

What does David hate?

David hates gathering with evil people.

Psalms 26:6–7 (#1)

What does David do as he goes around Yahweh's altar?

He sings songs of thanksgiving and recounts all of Yahweh's wonderful acts.

Psalms 26:8 (#1)

How does David feel about the place where Yahweh lives?

He loves the place where Yahweh lives and his glory appears.

Psalms 26:9 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh not to do?

David asks Yahweh not to gather his soul with the sinful or his life with men of blood.

Psalms 26:11 (#1)

How does David say that he will walk?

David says that he will walk in integrity.

Psalms 26:12 (#1)

Where does David's foot stand and where will he bless Yahweh?

His foot stands on level ground and he will bless Yahweh among the assemblies.

Psalms 27:1 (#1)

Why should David not fear anyone?

David should not fear anyone since Yahweh is his light, his salvation, and the refuge of his life.

Psalms 27:2 (#1)

What happened when evildoers advanced against David?

His enemies and those who were hostile to him stumbled and fell.

Psalms 27:3 (#1)

In what situations will David not fear but rather remain confident?

His heart will not fear even though an army encamps against him and war rises up against him.

Psalms 27:4 (#1)

What has David asked of Yahweh?

David has asked that he may dwell in the house of Yahweh all the days of his life, to look upon the beauty of Yahweh, and to inquire in his temple.

Psalms 27:5 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for David in the day of trouble?

Yahweh will protect him in his tabernacle and keep him safe as if he were setting him high upon a rock where David's enemies cannot reach him.

Psalms 27:6 (#1)

How will David offer worship to Yahweh?

David will offer sacrifices of joy, sing, and make music to Yahweh.

Psalms 27:7 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do?

David asks Yahweh to hear his voice, to be gracious to him, and to answer him.

Psalms 27:8 (#1)

What does David's heart say to Yahweh?

David's heart says that he will seek Yahweh's face.

Psalms 27:9 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh not to do?

David asks Yahweh not to hide his face from him, not to turn his servant away in anger, nor to abandon or leave him.

Psalms 27:10 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh will do even though his father and mother have left him?

David says that Yahweh will care for him even though his father and mother have left him.

Psalms 27:11 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do because of his enemies?

David asks Yahweh to teach him Yahweh's way and guide him so that he remains safe from his enemies.

Psalms 27:12 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh not to give him up to his adversaries?

David asks this because false witnesses and violent accusers have risen against him.

Psalms 27:13 (#1)

What did David believe that helped him?

David believed that he would see the goodness of Yahweh and trust him as long as he lived.

Psalms 27:14 (#1)

What does David encourage the people to do?

David encourages the people to wait on Yahweh, to be strong, and to let their heart be courageous.

Psalms 28:1 (#1)

To whom does David cry out?

David cries out to Yahweh, his rock.

Psalms 28:1 (#2)

What will happen to David if Yahweh does not respond to him?

David will join those who go down to the grave.

Psalms 28:2 (#1)

Who does David want to hear the sound of his pleading?

David wants Yahweh to hear the sound of his pleading.

Psalms 28:3 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh not to do?

David asks Yahweh not to drag him away with the wicked.

Psalms 28:4 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to give the wicked?

David asks Yahweh to give them what their deeds deserve and to repay them for their evil deeds.

Psalms 28:5 (#1)

What do the wicked not give heed to?

The wicked do not give heed to the works of Yahweh or the action of his hands.

Psalms 28:6 (#1)

What has Yahweh heard?

Yahweh has heard the sound of David's pleading.

Psalms 28:7 (#1)

Who is David's strength and shield?

Yahweh is David's strength and shield.

Psalms 28:7 (#2)

In whom does David's heart trust?

David's heart trusts in Yahweh and greatly rejoices.

Psalms 28:8 (#2)

Who is the saving refuge of his anointed one?

Yahweh is the saving refuge of his anointed one.

Psalms 28:8 (#1)

Who is the strength of his people?

Yahweh is the strength of his people.

Psalms 28:9 (#1)

Who does David want Yahweh to save and bless?

David wants Yahweh to save his people and bless his inheritance.

Psalms 29:1 (#1)

Who does David say should ascribe glory and strength to Yahweh?

David says the sons of God should ascribe glory and strength to Yahweh.

Psalms 29:3 (#1)

To what does David compare the voice of Yahweh?

David compares the voice of Yahweh to thunder over the waters.

Psalms 29:5 (#1)

What does Yahweh break?

Yahweh breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

Psalms 29:8 (#1)

What does Yahweh shake?

Yahweh shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

Psalms 29:9 (#1)

What do the people in Yahweh's temple declare?

Everyone in his temple declares Yahweh's glory.

Psalms 29:10 (#1)

How long does Yahweh sit as king?

Yahweh sits as king forever.

Psalms 29:11 (#1)

What two things will Yahweh give his people?

Yahweh will give strength to his people and will bless his people with peace.

Psalms 30:1 (#1)

Why does David extol Yahweh?

He extols Yahweh because Yahweh has drawn him up and has not allowed David's enemies to rejoice over him.

Psalms 30:2 (#1)

What did Yahweh do when David cried for help?

Yahweh healed David.

Psalms 30:3 (#1)

In what way did Yahweh restore David?

Yahweh caused David to get well and restored him when he was about to die.

Psalms 30:4 (#1)

What are the faithful told to do in remembrance of Yahweh's holiness?

The faithful are told to sing praise to Yahweh and to give him thanks.

Psalms 30:5 (#1)

How long does Yahweh's anger and favor last?

Yahweh's anger is only for a moment, but his favor is for a lifetime.

Psalms 30:5 (#2)

What happens after weeping comes for a night?

Joy comes in the morning.

Psalms 30:6 (#1)

What did David say when his life was going well?

David said that he would never be shaken.

Psalms 30:7 (#1)

What happened to David when Yahweh hid his face?

When Yahweh hid his face, David was dismayed.

Psalms 30:8 (#1)

What did David seek from the Lord?

David sought favor from the Lord.

Psalms 30:10 (#1)

What things is David asking Yahweh to do for him?

David is asking Yahweh to hear him, to be gracious to him, and to be his helper.

Psalms 30:11 (#1)

What has Yahweh done for David?

Yahweh has turned David's mourning into dancing, causing him to change from being sad to being joyful.

Psalms 30:12 (#1)

What does David say his glory will do?

David's glory will sing praise to Yahweh and not be silent. He will give thanks to Yahweh his God forever.

Psalms 31:1 (#1)

In whom does David take refuge?

David takes refuge in Yahweh.

Psalms 31:1–2 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to become for him?

He asks Yahweh to be his rocky summit of refuge and a stronghold to save him.

Psalms 31:3 (#1)

Why does Yahweh lead and guide David?

Yahweh leads and guides David for the sake of his own name.

Psalms 31:4 (#1)

What does David believe that Yahweh will protect him from?

Yahweh will rescue him from the evil plans his enemies have made to hurt him.

Psalms 31:5 (#1)

Into what does David commit his spirit?

David puts himself into the care of Yahweh.

Psalms 31:6 (#1)

Who does David hate?

He hates those who keep idols of worthlessness.

Psalms 31:7 (#1)

Why will David be glad and rejoice in Yahweh's covenant faithfulness?

David will be glad and rejoice because Yahweh has seen his affliction and known the troubles of his soul.

Psalms 31:8 (#1)

Where has Yahweh set David's feet?

Yahweh has set David's feet in an open space.

Psalms 31:9 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh to be gracious to him?

David is in distress and his eye has wasted away from grief.

Psalms 31:10 (#1)

Why does David's strength fail and his bones waste away?

His strength fails and his bones waste away because of his iniquity.

Psalms 31:11 (#1)

How do people respond to David?

His enemies treat him with contempt, his neighbors are especially horrified by him, and those who see him outside flee from him.

Psalms 31:12 (#1)

To what does David compare himself?

David says he is as forgotten as a dead man whom no one thinks about, and that he is like a broken vessel.

Psalms 31:13 (#1)

Why is David so troubled?

He hears the whispering of many and there is terror on every side, as his enemies conspire together to take his life.

Psalms 31:15 (#1)

From whom does David ask God to rescue him?

He asks God to rescue him from his enemies and from those who pursue him.

Psalms 31:16 (#1)

What does David ask God to do for his servant?

David asks God to make his face shine upon his servant and to save him in Yahweh's covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 31:17 (#1)

What does David ask God not to let happen to him?

David asks Yahweh not to let him have shame.

Psalms 31:18 (#1)

Why should lying lips be silenced?

They speak arrogant and contemptuous things against the righteous.

Psalms 31:19 (#1)

For whom is God's goodness stored up?

Yahweh's goodness is stored up for those who fear him.

Psalms 31:20 (#1)

From what does Yahweh protect those who revere him?

He protects them from the evil plots of the enemies who accuse them.

Psalms 31:21 (#1)

Why is Yahweh to be blessed?

Yahweh showed David his marvelous covenant faithfulness when David was in a besieged city.

Psalms 31:22 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for David even though David said that he was cut off from God's eyes?

Yahweh heard his plea for help when David cried out to him.

Psalms 31:23 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for his faithful followers?

Yahweh preserves the faithful but pays back the proud in full.

Psalms 31:24 (#1)

What advice does David give to those who wait for Yahweh?

He tells them to be firm and courageous.

Psalms 32:1 (#1)

Who does the psalmist describe as truly happy?

The psalmist describes as truly happy those whose transgression is lifted up and whose sin is covered.

Psalms 32:3–4 (#1)

What happened to David when he did not confess his sins?

His bones wasted away and he groaned all day long. Yahweh's hand was heavy on him day and night, and his vitality was sapped by the summer heat.

Psalms 32:5 (#1)

What did God do when David acknowledged his sin and no longer hid his iniquity?

God forgave the guilt of David's sin.

Psalms 32:6 (#1)

What should godly people do when they realize they have sinned?

They should pray to Yahweh when they realize that they have sinned.

Psalms 32:6 (#2)

What assurance does the psalmist give to the godly who pray to Yahweh?

A flood of great waters will not reach them.

Psalms 32:7 (#1)

With what does Yahweh surround the psalmist?

Yahweh surrounds him with shouts of deliverance.

Psalms 32:8 (#1)

What does Yahweh promise to do for those who come to him?

Yahweh promises to instruct and teach them about the way they should go, and to counsel them personally.

Psalms 32:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist warn against being like?

The psalmist warns against being like a horse or mule without understanding, which must be controlled with a bit and bridle.

Psalms 32:10 (#1)

What will happen to the one who trusts in Yahweh?

Yahweh's covenant faithfulness will surround him.

Psalms 32:11 (#1)

What does the psalmist call on the righteous and upright in heart to do?

The psalmist calls them to be glad in Yahweh, rejoice, and shout for joy.

Psalms 33:1 (#1)

In whom does the psalmist say the righteous should rejoice?

The righteous should rejoice in Yahweh.

Psalms 33:2 (#1)

With what instruments does the psalmist say to play to give thanks to Yahweh?

The psalmist says to give thanks to Yahweh with the harp and with the lyre of ten strings.

Psalms 33:4 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe Yahweh's word and work?

Yahweh's word is upright and all his work is done in faithfulness.

Psalms 33:5 (#1)

What does Yahweh love?

Yahweh loves righteousness and justice.

Psalms 33:6 (#1)

What was made by the word of Yahweh?

The heavens and the stars were created by Yahweh commanding it.

Psalms 33:7 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh does to the waters of the sea?

He gathers the waters of the sea together like a heap.

Psalms 33:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist say all the inhabitants of the world should do?

All the inhabitants of the world should deeply revere Yahweh.

Psalms 33:11 (#1)

How long will the counsel of Yahweh stand?

The counsel of Yahweh stands forever, the plans of his heart to every generation.

Psalms 33:14 (#1)

On whom does Yahweh look down from where he lives?

Yahweh looks down on all the people, on all who live on the earth.

Psalms 33:18 (#1)

Whom does Yahweh watch over?

Yahweh watches over those who deeply revere him and confidently expect him to faithfully love them.

Psalms 33:21 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say the heart rejoices in Yahweh?

The heart rejoices in Yahweh because the people trust in his holy name.

Psalms 34:1 (#1)

How often will David praise Yahweh?

David will praise Yahweh at all times.

Psalms 34:2 (#1)

Who does David want to hear when he boasts in Yahweh?

David wants the humble to hear it and rejoice.

Psalms 34:3 (#1)

What is David asking people to do with him?

David is asking them to magnify Yahweh and exalt his name together.

Psalms 34:4 (#1)

What happened when David sought Yahweh?

Yahweh answered David and delivered him from all his fears.

Psalms 34:5 (#1)

What happens to those who look to Yahweh?

They are radiant and their faces are not ashamed.

Psalms 34:6 (#1)

What did Yahweh do when this afflicted man called out to him?

Yahweh heard him and saved him from all his troubles.

Psalms 34:7 (#1)

What does the angel of Yahweh do when he encamps around those who fear him?

The angel of Yahweh rescues them.

Psalms 34:8 (#1)

Who is the man who is happy?

The man who takes refuge in Yahweh is happy.

Psalms 34:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist say is true for those who fear Yahweh?

There is no lack for those who fear Yahweh.

Psalms 34:10 (#1)

What does David say about those who seek Yahweh?

Those who seek Yahweh will not lack anything good.

Psalms 34:11 (#1)

What does David invite the sons to do?

David invites them to come and listen to him so that he can teach them the fear of Yahweh.

Psalms 34:13–14 (#1)

What does the psalmist say a man who desires life should do?

He should guard his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit, turn away from evil, do good, seek peace, and pursue it.

Psalms 34:15 (#1)

How does Yahweh pay attention to the righteous?

Yahweh pays attention and listens when the righteous call to him for help.

Psalms 34:16 (#1)

What will Yahweh do to the doers of evil?

Yahweh will cut off their remembrance from the earth.

Psalms 34:17 (#1)

What does Yahweh do when the righteous cry out?

He hears and delivers them from all their troubles.

Psalms 34:18 (#2)

Who does Yahweh save?

Yahweh saves those with a crushed spirit.

Psalms 34:18 (#1)

To whom is Yahweh near?

He is near the brokenhearted.

Psalms 34:19–20 (#1)

What happens to the righteous who have many troubles?

Yahweh delivers him from all of them and guards all his bones.

Psalms 34:21 (#2)

What will happen to those who hate the righteous?

Those who hate the righteous will be found guilty.

Psalms 34:21 (#1)

What will happen to the wicked?

Evil will kill the wicked.

Psalms 34:22 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for his servants?

He redeems the soul of his servants, and those who take refuge in him will not be guilty.

Psalms 35:1 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do for him?

David asks Yahweh to work against those who work against him, and fight against those who fight against him.

Psalms 35:2–3 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do?

He asks Yahweh to protect him and come to save him.

Psalms 35:4 (#1)

What does David want to happen to those who plan to harm him?

David wants them to be turned back and confounded.

Psalms 35:5 (#1)

Who does David want to drive away his enemies?

He wants the angel of Yahweh to drive them away.

Psalms 35:7 (#1)

What did David's enemies do without cause?

They tried to kill David as though they had set their net and dug a pit for him to fall into.

Psalms 35:8 (#1)

What does David want to happen to his enemies?

David wants destruction to overtake them by surprise, for them to be caught in their own nets, and for them to fall to their destruction.

Psalms 35:9 (#1)

In what will David rejoice?

He will rejoice in Yahweh's salvation.

Psalms 35:11–12 (#1)

Why is David sorrowful?

He is sorrowful because unrighteous witnesses rise up to accuse him falsely, and repay him evil for good.

Psalms 35:13–14 (#1)

How did David respond to his enemies' troubles?

David wore sackcloth, fasted for them, went about in grief and bent down in mourning for them.

Psalms 35:15–16 (#1)

How did his enemies respond to David's suffering?

They rejoiced and celebrated and then gathered to attack, slander, and mock him in anger.

Psalms 35:17–18 (#1)

When will David thank Yahweh in front of his people?

He will thank Yahweh when he is rescued from his enemies' destructive attacks.

Psalms 35:20 (#1)

What do David's enemies do instead of speaking peace?

They devise deceitful words against those who live in peace.

Psalms 35:22–23 (#1)

What does David want Yahweh to do since he has seen David's troubles?

He wants Yahweh to not be silent, to not be far away, and to arouse and awake to his defense.

Psalms 35:24 (#1)

Why does David say Yahweh should defend him?

He says Yahweh should defend him because of Yahweh's righteousness.

Psalms 36:2 (#1)

How does the wicked man respond to his own sin?

They are so proud that they refuse to recognize how wrongly they act.

Psalms 36:3 (#1)

What are the wicked man's words like?

His words are sinful and deceitful.

Psalms 36:3 (#2)

What does the wicked man not want to be?

He does not want to be wise and to do good.

Psalms 36:4 (#1)

What does the wicked man do while he lies in bed?

He plans ways to sin while he lies in bed.

Psalms 36:5 (#1)

What reaches to the heavens and to the clouds?

Yahweh's covenant faithfulness reaches to the heavens, and his trustworthiness reaches to the clouds.

Psalms 36:6 (#1)

What is Yahweh's righteousness like?

His righteousness is as permanent as the mountains of God, and his judgments are vast and mysterious as the deepest oceans.

Psalms 36:6 (#2)

What does Yahweh take care of?

Yahweh takes care of all living creatures, both people and animals.

Psalms 36:7 (#1)

To what does the psalmist compare how God protects people?

God protects people just as a bird shelters its young under its wings.

Psalms 36:9 (#1)

Who is the fountain of life by whose light we see?

Yahweh is the one who causes everything to live and makes it possible to understand what is true.

Psalms 36:10 (#1)

To whom does David ask God to extend his covenant faithfulness?

David asks God to extend God's covenant faithfulness fully to those who know God.

Psalms 36:11 (#1)

What does David ask God not to let happen?

David asks God not to let the foot of the arrogant man come near him, and the hand of the wicked to drive him away.

Psalms 36:12 (#1)

What has happened to the evildoers?

They have fallen and are knocked down and are not able to get up.

Psalms 37:1–2 (#1)

Why does David say to not be upset because of evildoers?

He says to not be worried about evildoers because they will soon dry up as the grass and plants wither and die.

Psalms 37:4 (#1)

Why does David say to delight in Yahweh?

He says to delight in Yahweh and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Psalms 37:5–6 (#1)

Why does David say to trust in Yahweh?

He says to trust in Yahweh and he will act on your behalf, display your justice like the daylight and your innocence like the day at noon.

Psalms 37:7 (#1)

What does David say people should do before Yahweh?

David says to be still before Yahweh and wait patiently for him, and to not be angry if someone succeeds with their evil plans.

Psalms 37:8–10 (#1)

Why does David say to not be angry and frustrated or to worry about evildoers?

They will be cut off and disappear, but those who wait for Yahweh will inherit the land.

Psalms 37:11 (#1)

What will happen to the meek?

They will inherit the land and delight in peacefulness.

Psalms 37:14–15 (#1)

What will happen to the wicked who have tried to kill those who are upright?

The swords of the wicked will pierce their own hearts and their bows will be broken.

Psalms 37:16–17 (#1)

Why is the little that the righteous have better than the abundance of many wicked people?

The little that the righteous have is better because the arms of the wicked people will be broken, but Yahweh will support the righteous people.

Psalms 37:18–19 (#1)

How will Yahweh provide for the blameless?

The blameless will not be ashamed when times are bad, they will have enough to eat, and their heritage will be forever.

Psalms 37:20 (#1)

What will happen to Yahweh's enemies?

His enemies will be like the glory of the pastures which will be consumed and disappear in the smoke.

Psalms 37:23–24 (#1)

What is the benefit of having Yahweh establish a man's steps?

Even if something bad happens to him, he will not fail completely for Yahweh is taking care of him.

Psalms 37:25 (#1)

What has David not seen happen to the righteous person?

He has not seen the righteous person abandoned or his children begging for bread.

Psalms 37:26 (#1)

How does the righteous person act?

He is gracious, generous, and he lends freely.

Psalms 37:27 (#1)

What should people do to live in the land forever?

They should turn away from evil and do what is right.

Psalms 37:29 (#1)

What will the righteous inherit?

They will inherit the land and live there forever.

Psalms 37:30 (#1)

What does the mouth of the righteous person speak?

The mouth of the righteous person speaks wisdom and increases justice.

Psalms 37:32–33 (#1)

What will happen to the righteous person whom the wicked person seeks to kill?

Yahweh will not abandon him into the evil person's hand nor condemn him when he is judged.

Psalms 37:34 (#1)

What will happen to those who wait for Yahweh?

Yahweh will raise them up to possess the land.

Psalms 37:35–36 (#1)

What will happen to the wicked and violent person?

He had been powerful but then he passed away and was nowhere to be found.

Psalms 37:39–40 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for the righteous?

Yahweh protects them in time of trouble, and helps and rescues them.

Psalms 38:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh not to do?

He asks Yahweh not to rebuke him in his anger and not to punish him in his wrath.

Psalms 38:1–2 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh's discipline feels like to him?

He says he feels as though Yahweh had shot arrows into him and his hand had struck him.

Psalms 38:3 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say his whole body is sick?

His whole body is sick because of Yahweh's anger, and there is no peace in his bones because of his sin.

Psalms 38:4 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe his iniquities?

He says his iniquities overwhelm him and are a burden too heavy for him to bear.

Psalms 38:5 (#1)

What has happened to the psalmist's wounds?

His wounds are infected and smell because of his foolish sins.

Psalms 38:6 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe his daily condition?

He is stooped over and humiliated every day, and he goes about mourning all day long.

Psalms 38:7 (#1)

What fills the psalmist within?

He is filled with burning from within, and there is no health in his flesh.

Psalms 38:8 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe the extent of his suffering?

He is numb and utterly crushed, and he groans because of the anguish of his heart.

Psalms 38:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist say the Lord knows about him?

The Lord understands his heart's deepest yearnings, and his groanings are not hidden from the Lord.

Psalms 38:10 (#1)

What three things does the psalmist say are happening to him physically?

His heart is pounding, his strength is fading, and his eyesight is dimming.

Psalms 38:11 (#1)

How do the psalmist's friends and neighbors respond to his condition?

His friends and loved ones shun him because of his condition, and his relatives stand far away.

Psalms 38:12 (#1)

What do those who seek the psalmist's life do to him?

They lay snares for him and speak destructive and deceitful words against him all day long.

Psalms 38:13–14 (#1)

How does the psalmist respond to those who seek to harm him?

He acts like a deaf man who hears nothing and a mute man who says nothing in reply.

Psalms 38:15 (#1)

In whom does the psalmist place his hope?

He waits for Yahweh and trusts that the Lord his God will answer him.

Psalms 38:16 (#1)

What does the psalmist fear will happen if his foot slips?

He fears his enemies will rejoice and gloat over him.

Psalms 38:17 (#1)

What two things does the psalmist say about his current situation?

He says he is about to stumble and that he is in constant pain.

Psalms 38:18 (#1)

What does the psalmist confess to Yahweh?

He confesses his guilt and says he is troubled about his sin.

Psalms 38:19–20 (#1)

How do the psalmist's enemies treat him?

His enemies are numerous, hate him without cause, repay him evil for good, and accuse him even though he has pursued what is good.

Psalms 38:20 (#1)

How do his enemies repay the good he has done?

They repay David evil for good and they hurl accusations at him.

Psalms 38:21 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh not to do?

He asks Yahweh not to abandon him and not to stay far away from him.

Psalms 38:21–22 (#1)

What names does David use when he asks Yahweh for help?

He calls him, "Yahweh", "God", "Lord", and "my salvation."

Psalms 38:22 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do?

He asks Yahweh to come quickly to help him.

Psalms 39:1 (#1)

What did David decide to do?

David decided to watch what he said so that he would not sin with his tongue. He would keep silent while in the presence of an evil man.

Psalms 39:2–3 (#1)

What happened when David kept silent and kept back his words from saying anything good?

David's pain grew worse, and his heart became hot and burned like a fire when he thought about what was happening.

Psalms 39:4 (#1)

What does David want to know about his life?

David wants to know when his life will end, how long his days are, and how transient he is.

Psalms 39:5 (#1)

What does David say his life is like before Yahweh?

David's lifetime is like nothing before Yahweh.

Psalms 39:6 (#1)

What does David say everyone hurries to do?

David says everyone hurries to accumulate riches, even though they do not know who will receive them after they die.

Psalms 39:7 (#1)

Who is David's only hope?

The Lord is David's only hope.

Psalms 39:8 (#1)

What does David ask the Lord to rescue him from?

David asks the Lord to rescue him from his sins.

Psalms 39:8 (#2)

Of what does David not want to be the object?

David does not want to be the object of the ridicule of foolish people.

Psalms 39:9 (#1)

How does David respond to what the Lord did?

David is silent and does not open his mouth.

Psalms 39:10 (#1)

What does David ask the Lord to stop?

David asks the Lord to stop punishing him as he feels he is about to die.

Psalms 39:11 (#1)

What happens when the Lord disciplines people for sin?

When the Lord disciplines people for sin, he destroys what they treasure, and only gives them a short time to live.

Psalms 39:12 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh to hear his prayer?

David asks because he is living before Yahweh on earth only for a short time, a refugee like all his ancestors were.

Psalms 39:13 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do before David dies?

David asks Yahweh to leave him alone so that David may be happy again before he dies.

Psalms 40:1 (#1)

What did Yahweh do after David waited patiently for him?

Yahweh listened to David and heard his cry.

Psalms 40:2 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for David?

Yahweh rescued David from the terrible things that had been happening to him as if he'd been in a pit of mud but was lifted out onto a safe and solid rock.

Psalms 40:3 (#1)

What will many do because God has put a new song in David's mouth?

Many will see it and honor him and will trust in Yahweh.

Psalms 40:4 (#1)

Who is blessed?

The man is blessed who makes Yahweh his trust and does not honor the proud or those who turn away from Yahweh to lies.

Psalms 40:5 (#1)

How does David describe God's deeds and thoughts?

God's wonderful deeds are many and his thoughts about us cannot be numbered.

Psalms 40:7–8 (#1)

What is written about David in the scroll of God's law?

It is written that he delights to do God's will and that he deeply treasures God's laws.

Psalms 40:9 (#1)

What has David proclaimed in the great assembly?

He has proclaimed good news of God's righteousness in the great assembly.

Psalms 40:10 (#1)

What has David not concealed?

He has not concealed God's righteousness in his heart nor God's covenant faithfulness nor trustworthiness from the great assembly.

Psalms 40:11 (#1)

What does David pray that Yahweh will do for him?

David prays that Yahweh not keep back his acts of mercy from David, but rather, let Yahweh's covenant faithfulness and his trustworthiness always preserve David.

Psalms 40:12 (#1)

What does David say is happening to him?

Troubles that cannot be numbered surround him, and his iniquities have caught up with him so that he can no longer see clearly. They are more than the hairs on his head, and his heart has failed him.

Psalms 40:13 (#1)

What does David pray that Yahweh will be pleased to do?

He prays that Yahweh will be pleased to rescue him.

Psalms 40:14 (#1)

What does David pray will happen to those who pursue his life?

He prays that they have shame and be completely disappointed, and that they be turned back and brought to dishonor.

Psalms 40:16 (#1)

What does David pray for those who seek Yahweh and love his salvation?

He prays that they rejoice and be glad in Yahweh, and that they say continually, "May Yahweh be great."

Psalms 40:17 (#1)

How does David describe the Lord?

The Lord thinks about him, is his help, and comes to David's rescue.

Psalms 41:1 (#1)

Who does David say is the one who is blessed?

The one who is helps powerless people has a good life.

Psalms 41:1–2 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for the person who considers the lowly?

Yahweh will rescue him, preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be happy on the earth.

Psalms 41:2 (#1)

What will Yahweh not do to the blessed person?

Yahweh will not turn him over to the will of his enemies.

Psalms 41:3 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for the blessed person on the bed of suffering?

Yahweh will support him on the bed of suffering and make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing.

Psalms 41:4 (#1)

Why did David ask Yahweh to have mercy on him?

He asked Yahweh to be gracious to him because he had sinned against Yahweh.

Psalms 41:5 (#1)

What evil do his enemies speak against David?

They ask when he will die and his name will perish.

Psalms 41:6 (#1)

What does David's enemy say to him?

His enemy says worthless things.

Psalms 41:7 (#1)

What do those who hate David whisper and hope for?

Those who hate David whisper together against him and plan for his hurt.

Psalms 41:9 (#1)

What has David's own close friend in whom he trusted done?

His own close friend has betrayed him.

Psalms 41:10 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do for him?

The psalmist asks Yahweh to have mercy on him and raise him up so that he can pay back his enemies.

Psalms 41:11 (#1)

How does David know that Yahweh delights in him?

David knows this because his enemy does not triumph over him.

Psalms 41:12 (#1)

How does Yahweh help David?

Yahweh upholds him in his integrity and will keep David before his face forever.

Psalms 41:13 (#1)

When may Yahweh be praised?

Yahweh may be praised from always, from everlasting to everlasting.

Psalms 42:1 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe his longing for God?

He says his soul longs for God just as a deer pants for streams of water.

Psalms 42:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist say his soul does?

His soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

Psalms 42:3 (#1)

What has the psalmist's crying become for him?

His weeping has taken the place of his food day and night.

Psalms 42:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist call to mind?

He calls to mind how he went with the crowd and led them in procession to the house of God with a voice of rejoicing and praise.

Psalms 42:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist tell his soul to do?

He tells his soul to wait for God, for he will again thank God, the one who brings him salvation.

Psalms 42:7 (#1)

What do the psalmists say passes over them?

He says all of God's breakers and waves pass over him.

Psalms 42:8 (#2)

What happens at night for the psalmist?

At night, God's song is with the psalmist, a prayer to the God of his life.

Psalms 42:8 (#1)

What does Yahweh command in the daytime?

Yahweh commands his covenant faithfulness in the daytime.

Psalms 42:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist say to God, his rock?

He asks why God has forgotten him, and why David walks about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy.

Psalms 42:10 (#1)

What do the psalmist's enemies say to him, and how does it affect him?

They mock him all day by asking where his God is, and it feels like crushing pain in his bones.

Psalms 42:11 (#1)

What does the psalmist tell his soul at the end of the psalm?

He tells his soul to wait for God, for he will again praise God, who saves him.

Psalms 43:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God to do for him?

He asks God to vindicate him and plead his case against a nation that is not faithful.

Psalms 43:2 (#1)

Why does the psalmist appeal to God to vindicate him?

He appeals to God because God is the God of his refuge.

Psalms 43:3 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God's light and faithfulness to do?

He asks them to lead him and bring him to the mountain of God's holiness and to God's dwellings.

Psalms 43:4 (#2)

What will the psalmist do with the lyre?

He will thank God with the lyre.

Psalms 43:4 (#1)

Where does the psalmist want to come when God brings him there?

He wants to come to the altar of God.

Psalms 43:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist tell his soul to do instead of being cast down?

He tells his soul to wait for God, for he will again thank God who is his salvation and his God.

Psalms 44:1 (#1)

What have the psalmists heard with their ears?

They have heard what work God did in their days, in the days of old.

Psalms 44:2 (#1)

What did God do with his hand?

God drove out the nations with his hand and planted the people of Israel.

Psalms 44:3 (#1)

How did the Israelites obtain the land?

They did not obtain the land by their own sword or by their own arm, but by God's right hand because he favored them.

Psalms 44:5 (#1)

What do the Israelites do through God?

Through God they defeat their enemies, and through God's name they trample those who rise up against them.

Psalms 44:6 (#1)

In what does the psalmist not trust?

He does not trust in his bow, and his sword does not save him.

Psalms 44:7 (#1)

From what does God save them?

God saves them from their enemies and shames those who hate them.

Psalms 44:9 (#1)

What has God done?

God has rejected and humiliated them and no longer goes out with their armies.

Psalms 44:10 (#2)

What do those who hate the Israelites do?

Those who hate them take spoil for themselves.

Psalms 44:10 (#1)

What does God make the Israelites do?

God makes them turn back from the adversary.

Psalms 44:11 (#1)

What has God made the Israelites like?

God has made them like sheep destined for slaughter and has scattered them as slaves among the nations.

Psalms 44:13 (#1)

What has God made the Israelites to their neighbors?

God has made them a reproach to their neighbors, a scorn and a derision to those around them.

Psalms 44:15–16 (#1)

Why is the psalmist's dishonor before him all the day long?

His dishonor is before him, and the shame of his face has covered him because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults, because of the enemy and the avenger.

Psalms 44:17 (#1)

What have the Israelites not done?

They have not forgotten God nor dealt falsely with God's covenant.

Psalms 44:18 (#1)

What have the Israelites' heart and steps not done?

Their heart has not turned back, nor have their steps turned aside from God's way.

Psalms 44:19 (#1)

What has God done to them?

God has allowed their enemies to ruin their land as if darkness has covered it.

Psalms 44:20–21 (#1)

What would God discover?

God would discover whether they had forgotten the name of their God or spread out their hands to a foreign god.

Psalms 44:22 (#1)

What are the Israelites considered to be because of God?

They are considered to be like sheep for slaughter.

Psalms 44:25 (#1)

What has happened to the Israelites?

They are helpless as if they had fallen down and could not get up.

Psalms 44:26 (#1)

What does the psalmist pray that God would do?

He prays that God might rise up for their help and redeem them for the sake of God's covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 45:1 (#1)

What is the psalmist reciting to the king?

He is reciting his works to the king.

Psalms 45:2 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe the king?

The king is fairer than the sons of man, grace is poured onto his lips, and God has blessed him forever.

Psalms 45:4 (#1)

Why should the king ride out?

The king should ride out for the sake of truth, humility, and righteousness.

Psalms 45:5 (#1)

How are the king's arrows described?

His arrows are sharp as if piercing the hearts of the king's enemies.

Psalms 45:6 (#1)

How is God's throne and a scepter of justice described?

His throne is forever and ever, and a scepter of justice is the scepter of God's kingdom.

Psalms 45:7 (#1)

What has the king loved and hated?

He loves righteousness and hates wickedness.

Psalms 45:8 (#1)

Of what do all of the king's garments smell?

All of his garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia.

Psalms 45:9 (#1)

Where are the daughters of kings and the queen?

Daughters of kings are among the king's precious ones, and the queen stands at his right hand adorned in gold of Ophir.

Psalms 45:12 (#1)

What will the rich do?

The rich among the people will beg for a favor.

Psalms 45:14 (#1)

Where will the royal daughter be led?

She will be led to the king in embroidered dress.

Psalms 45:15 (#1)

How and where will the virgins be led?

They will be led by joy and rejoicing; they will enter into the palace of the king.

Psalms 45:16 (#1)

Who will take the place of the king's fathers?

His sons will take the place of his fathers, and he will make them princes throughout all the earth.

Psalms 45:17 (#1)

What does the psalmist want the peoples of all generations to do regarding the king?

The psalmist wants to make the king's name remembered in every generation, so the peoples will thank him forever and ever.

Psalms 46:1 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe God?

God is a refuge and strength to them, and he greatly helps them in trouble.

Psalms 46:2 (#1)

What do the psalmists say they will not do, even if the earth changes and the mountains shake into the sea?

They will not fear.

Psalms 46:4 (#1)

What makes the city of God rejoice?

The channels of a stream make the city of God rejoice.

Psalms 46:5 (#1)

What will the city of God not do?

The city of God will not be shaken.

Psalms 46:6 (#1)

What happens to the earth when God utters his voice after the nations roar and kingdoms shake?

The earth melts.

Psalms 46:7 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh of armies and the God of Jacob?

Yahweh of armies is with them, and the God of Jacob is a stronghold to them.

Psalms 46:9 (#1)

What does Yahweh do to wars?

He makes wars cease to the end of the earth. He shatters the bow and cuts the spear in pieces, and he burns the wagons with fire.

Psalms 46:10 (#1)

What does God tell the people to do?

Be still and know that he is God.

Psalms 46:10 (#2)

What will happen to God among the nations?

He will be exalted among the nations and on the earth.

Psalms 46:11 (#1)

What is the God of Jacob to them?

The God of Jacob is a stronghold to them.

Psalms 47:1–2 (#1)

Why does the psalmist tell everyone to clap their hands and shout to God with a voice of rejoicing?

They should do this because Yahweh Most High is to be feared, and he is the great King over all the earth.

Psalms 47:3 (#1)

What does Yahweh do to peoples and nations?

He subdues peoples under the Israelites and the nations under their feet.

Psalms 47:5 (#1)

How has God gone up?

God has gone up with a shout and the sound of a shofar.

Psalms 47:6–7 (#1)

Why should everyone sing praises to God?

They should sing praises because God is the King of all the earth.

Psalms 47:8 (#1)

Where does God reign?

God reigns over the nations.

Psalms 47:8 (#2)

Where does God sit?

God sits on his holy throne.

Psalms 47:9 (#1)

Where will the nobles of the peoples gather?

They will gather to the people of the God of Abraham.

Psalms 47:9 (#2)

Why will the nobles gather to the people of the God of Abraham?

They will gather because God is greatly exalted.

Psalms 48:1 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe Yahweh?

Yahweh is great and is greatly praised.

Psalms 48:2 (#1)

How is Mount Zion described?

Mount Zion is high and beautiful, and it is a joy to all the earth.

Psalms 48:3 (#1)

How is God known in the city?

God is known as a stronghold.

Psalms 48:4–6 (#1)

What happened when the kings assembled themselves together and saw the city?

They marveled, became terrified, and hurried away; trembling seized them there.

Psalms 48:8 (#1)

What will God do for the city of Yahweh of armies?

God will establish it forever.

Psalms 48:9 (#1)

What have the worshippers compared in the midst of God's temple?

They have compared God's covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 48:10 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe God's right hand?

His right hand is full of righteousness.

Psalms 48:11 (#1)

Why should Mount Zion rejoice and the daughters of Judah be glad?

They should rejoice and be glad because of God's judgments.

Psalms 48:13 (#1)

Why should the Israelites walk around Zion, count her towers, and consider her citadels?

They should do these things so that they may tell it to a later generation.

Psalms 48:14 (#1)

What will God be for his people?

He will be their guide until death.

Psalms 49:1–2 (#1)

Who does the psalmist call to hear him?

He calls all the people of the world to hear him, both common people and the wealthy alike.

Psalms 49:3 (#1)

With what will the psalmist speak?

He will think carefully and speak with wisdom to help them understand things better.

Psalms 49:3 (#2)

What will be the meditation of the psalmist's heart?

The psalmist will speak of the things he has thought carefully about so they will have better understanding.

Psalms 49:6–7 (#1)

What can those who trust in their wealth not do?

Those who trust in their wealth cannot pay God to keep a person from dying.

Psalms 49:8 (#1)

How is the redemption of a person's life costly?

No matter how much money a person has, they can never keep someone else from dying.

Psalms 49:9 (#1)

Who can live forever?

No one can live forever or avoid seeing the Pit.

Psalms 49:10 (#1)

What happens to the wise, the fool, and the brute alike?

The wise die, and the fool and the brute alike perish, and they leave their wealth to others.

Psalms 49:12 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about a human regarding honor?

A human does not abide in honor but is likened to the beasts, which are destroyed.

Psalms 49:14 (#1)

Who will be their shepherd?

It is as if death were a shepherd keeping them in the place where dead people are.

Psalms 49:14 (#2)

What will the upright do someday?

One day God will make the upright rule over wicked people.

Psalms 49:15 (#1)

What will God do for the psalmist?

God will rescue him from Sheol but will take him to himself.

Psalms 49:16 (#1)

When does the psalmist say not to fear?

People should not be troubled when a man becomes rich and has many valuable possessions.

Psalms 49:18 (#1)

According to the psalmist, when do people praise others?

People praise anyone who does well for themselves.

Psalms 49:19 (#2)

What will the rich man and his fathers not see?

They will never see the light again.

Psalms 49:19 (#1)

Where will the rich man go?

He will go to where his dead ancestors are.

Psalms 50:1 (#1)

What does the psalm say that Yahweh does in the opening verse?

Yahweh speaks and summons the earth from where the sun rises to where it sets.

Psalms 50:4 (#1)

Why does God call to the heavens above and to the earth?

He calls to the heavens above and to the earth so that he may judge his people.

Psalms 50:8 (#1)

Of what does God say he will not accuse his people?

God says he will not accuse them regarding their sacrifices.

Psalms 50:10 (#1)

Why does God say that he will take no bull or goat from his people?

God says that every beast of the forest is his, and the cattle on a thousand hills.

Psalms 50:14 (#1)

What does God command his people to offer and to pay?

God commands them to offer a thank offering and to pay their vows to the Most High.

Psalms 50:17 (#1)

What does God say the wicked hate and cast away?

God says that the wicked hate instruction and cast away his words.

Psalms 50:21 (#1)

What does God say that the wicked think about him when God keeps silent?

They thought that he was someone just like them.

Psalms 50:22 (#1)

Who will rescue the wicked when God tears them in pieces?

There will be no one to come deliver them.

Psalms 50:23 (#1)

To whom will God show his salvation?

God will show his salvation to whoever offers a thank offering and orders their path rightly.

Psalms 51:1 (#1)

Why does David say that God should have mercy on him?

He says God should have mercy on him according to his covenant faithfulness.

Psalms 51:4 (#1)

Against whom does David say he has sinned?

He says he has sinned against God, and only against God.

Psalms 51:5 (#1)

When does David say that his sin began?

David says his sin began as soon as his mother conceived him.

Psalms 51:7 (#1)

What does David ask God to do so that he may be purified?

He asks God to purify him with hyssop so he will be clean, and to remove his sins so he will be completely pure.

Psalms 51:10 (#1)

What does David ask God to create and renew in him?

He asks God to create in him a clean heart, and to renew a loyal spirit within him.

Psalms 51:11 (#1)

What does David ask God not to do to him?

He asks God to not cast him away from his presence, and to not take the Spirit of his holiness from him.

Psalms 51:12 (#1)

What does David ask God to restore to him?

He asks God to restore to him the joy of his salvation and to support him with a willing spirit.

Psalms 51:14 (#1)

What does David ask God to deliver him from?

He asks God to deliver him from the guilt of bloodshed.

Psalms 51:16 (#1)

What does David say God does not want from him?

David says God does not delight in sacrifice, and would not accept a burnt offering from him.

Psalms 51:17 (#1)

What are the sacrifices God wants?

The sacrifices of God are genuine humility and sorrow for sins.

Psalms 52:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist say protects him all of the day?

The covenant faithfulness of God protects him all day.

Psalms 52:3 (#1)

What does Doeg love more than good?

He loves evil more than good.

Psalms 52:4 (#1)

What words does Doeg love?

He loves all words of destruction.

Psalms 52:5 (#1)

What will God do to Doeg?

God will destroy him forever.

Psalms 52:7 (#1)

In what did the man trust instead of God?

He trusted in the abundance of his wealth.

Psalms 52:8 (#1)

In what will David place his own trust?

He will trust in the covenant faithfulness of God forever and ever.

Psalms 53:1 (#1)

What does the fool say in his heart?

He says that there is no God.

Psalms 53:2–3 (#1)

When God looks down from heaven at the people on earth, what does he find?

He finds that they have all turned away and corrupted themselves. There is no one who does good, not even one.

Psalms 53:4 (#1)

What do the doers of iniquity do to God's people?

They take from God's people as easily as they eat bread, and they do not call upon God.

Psalms 53:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist say happened to those who attacked Israel?

God defeated them and put them to shame, because he despises them.

Psalms 53:6 (#1)

From where did David hope that salvation for Israel would come?

He hoped that the salvation of Israel would come from the God of Israel.

Psalms 54:1 (#2)

What does David want God to do?

He wants God to save him and to vindicate him so people will realize that he has not done anything wrong.

Psalms 54:1 (#1)

How did David ask God to save him?

He asked God to save him by the might of God's name.

Psalms 54:2 (#1)

What does David ask God to hear?

He asks God to hear his prayer and listen to his words.

Psalms 54:3 (#1)

Who has risen up against David and sought his life?

Foreigners have risen up against him, and violent ones have sought his life.

Psalms 54:4 (#1)

What does David say God is to him?

David says God is a helper to him and to those who sustain his life.

Psalms 54:5 (#1)

What will God return to David's enemies?

God will return harm to his enemies.

Psalms 54:6 (#1)

Why will David praise Yahweh's name?

He will praise Yahweh's name because it is good.

Psalms 54:7 (#1)

What does David say his eye will see after God delivers him from his troubles?

He will see the defeat of his enemies.

Psalms 55:4 (#1)

What kind of terrors have fallen on David?

The terrors of death have fallen on him.

Psalms 55:6 (#1)

Why does David wish that he had wings like a dove?

If he had wings like a dove, he could fly away and find a place to rest and be safe from his enemies.

Psalms 55:9 (#1)

What does David ask the Lord to do to his enemies?

He asks the Lord to destroy them and to make them disagree about what to do.

Psalms 55:10–11 (#1)

What is found in the middle of the city?

Iniquity and trouble are in the middle of the city, and calamity, oppression, and deceit are also found there.

Psalms 55:12–13 (#1)

Who reproached David and powerfully opposed him?

David's companion and acquaintance reproached and opposed him.

Psalms 55:15 (#1)

What does David ask God to bring upon his enemies?

He asks for desolations to come upon them and for them to go down to Sheol alive.

Psalms 55:17 (#1)

What does David do continually?

He complains and moans to God.

Psalms 55:19 (#1)

Why will God hear and answer David's prayer?

He will hear and answer because David's enemies do not fear God.

Psalms 55:20 (#1)

What does David's friend do to his covenant?

He defiles his covenant by attacking his friends.

Psalms 55:23 (#1)

To where will God bring down the wicked?

God will bring them down to the pit of the grave.

Psalms 56:1 (#1)

Why does David ask God to be gracious to him?

He asks God to be gracious to him because men are fighting with him and oppressing him.

Psalms 56:2 (#1)

What do David's enemies do to him all day?

David's enemies attack him and fight against him arrogantly.

Psalms 56:3 (#1)

What does David say he will do when he is afraid?

When David is afraid, he will trust in God.

Psalms 56:4 (#1)

What is the result of David's trust in God?

David trusts in God, so he will not fear.

Psalms 56:5 (#1)

What do David's enemies do all day?

David's enemies continually interfere and plan ways to harm him.

Psalms 56:5 (#2)

What are David's enemies' thoughts toward David?

All their thoughts are against David for harm.

Psalms 56:7 (#1)

How does David ask God to deal with David's enemies?

David asks God to bring them down in defeat.

Psalms 56:8 (#1)

What does David ask God to do with his tears?

David asks God to keep a record of his tears.

Psalms 56:9 (#1)

When will David's enemies turn back?

David's enemies will turn back on the day that he calls to God.

Psalms 56:12 (#1)

What does David vow to give to God?

David vows to pay a thank-offering to God.

Psalms 56:13 (#1)

Where does David walk before God?

David walks before God in this world of the living.

Psalms 57:1 (#2)

For how long does David take refuge in God?

David takes refuge in God until the calamities have passed by.

Psalms 57:1 (#1)

Why does David ask God to be gracious to him?

He asks God to be gracious to him because he depends on God for protection.

Psalms 57:2 (#1)

What does David say God does for him?

David says that God is the one who accomplishes things for him.

Psalms 57:3 (#1)

What does David say God will send out to him?

David says that God will send out to him God's covenant faithfulness and his truth.

Psalms 57:4 (#1)

Among whom does David say he must lie down?

He must lie down among men who are as dangerous as lions and trying to kill him.

Psalms 57:5 (#1)

Where does David ask God to let his glory be?

David asks God to let his glory be above all the heavens and all the earth.

Psalms 57:6 (#1)

What does David say happens to those who dig a pit in front of him?

They themselves fall into the midst of it.

Psalms 57:8 (#1)

What musical instruments does David call to wake up?

David calls the lyre and harp to wake up.

Psalms 57:9 (#1)

Where will David give thanks to the Lord?

David will give thanks to the Lord among the peoples.

Psalms 57:9 (#2)

Where will David sing praise to the Lord?

David will sing songs of praise to the Lord among the nations.

Psalms 57:11 (#1)

Where does David ask for God's glory to be exalted?

David asks for God's glory to be exalted over all the heavens and all the earth.

Psalms 58:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist say the sons of man do on the earth?

The sons of man commit violent crimes on the earth.

Psalms 58:3 (#1)

When does David say the wicked go astray?

They go astray from the time when they are born.

Psalms 58:7 (#1)

What does David ask God to do when the wicked try to harm people?

David asks God to keep them from hurting people, as if they were shooting arrows that had no heads.

Psalms 58:10 (#1)

When will the righteous rejoice?

The righteous will rejoice when he sees God punish the wicked people.

Psalms 59:1 (#1)

How does David ask God to deliver him from his enemies?

He asks God to set him on high, away from those who rise up against him.

Psalms 59:3 (#1)

Who gather themselves together against David?

The mighty gather themselves together against David.

Psalms 59:5 (#1)

Who does David ask Yahweh to not be merciful to?

He asks Yahweh to not be gracious to wicked people who are treacherous workers of iniquity.

Psalms 59:10 (#1)

What does David say the God of his covenant faithfulness will do?

David says that the God of his covenant faithfulness will meet him and will defeat his enemies.

Psalms 59:13 (#1)

How does David ask God to consume his enemies?

He asks God to consume them in wrath, and to consume them so that they will be no more.

Psalms 59:16 (#1)

What does David say when he sings about God's strength?

He says God is his stronghold and a refuge in the day of trouble.

Psalms 60:1 (#1)

What has God done to the Israelites?

He has rejected them, become angry with them, and stopped helping them.

Psalms 60:2 (#1)

What has God done to the earth?

He has made the earth tremble and has broken it apart.

Psalms 60:3 (#1)

What has God made his people see?

He has made them see great difficulties.

Psalms 60:4 (#1)

To whom has God given a banner?

He has given a banner to those who fear him.

Psalms 60:6 (#1)

What does God say he will do with Shechem and the Valley of Succoth?

He says he will rejoice as he divides Shechem and measures out the Valley of Succoth for the Israelites to live in.

Psalms 60:8 (#1)

What does God say he will do to Edom?

He says he will throw his sandal over Edom to show that it belongs to him.

Psalms 60:10 (#1)

What does God not do for their armies?

He does not go out with their armies to enable them to defeat their enemies.

Psalms 60:11–12 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God to do for them?

The psalmist asks God to give them help against their enemy.

Psalms 61:1 (#1)

What does David ask God to do for him?

David asks God to hear his cry and to listen to his prayer.

Psalms 61:3 (#1)

What has God been like for David?

God has been like a strong tower, a refuge and place of protection from the enemy for David.

Psalms 61:4 (#1)

Where does David wish to live and take refuge?

David wishes to live with and to take refuge in God's presence forever.

Psalms 61:5 (#1)

What did God do for David when he heard his vows?

God gave him the blessings of those who honor God's name.

Psalms 61:6 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God to do for the king?

The psalmist asks God to add more years to the king's life and to allow his descendants to rule after him.

Psalms 61:8 (#1)

Why will David sing praise to God's name forever?

David will sing praise to God's name forever because he has vowed to do this each day as long as God lets him live.

Psalms 62:1 (#1)

Why does David say his soul is in silence before God?

David says his soul is in silence before God because he knows that his salvation comes from God.

Psalms 62:2 (#1)

What does David say God is to him?

David says God alone is his salvation and his protection, like a rock he could climb onto in order to be safe.

Psalms 62:4 (#1)

How do David's enemies treat him?

They plot together to bring him down from his high position, they delight in lies, and they bless with their mouths, but in their hearts they curse him.

Psalms 62:8 (#1)

What does David tell the people to do?

He tells the people to trust in God always and to pour out their hearts before God.

Psalms 62:9 (#1)

How does David describe ordinary people and important people?

Ordinary people lack power, and important people are not as powerful as they seem to be.

Psalms 62:10 (#1)

What does David warn people not to trust in?

David warns people not to trust in oppression or robbery, and if wealth increases, not to set their hearts on it.

Psalms 62:11 (#1)

What has David heard when God has spoken?

David has heard God say that he is the one who truly is powerful.

Psalms 62:12 (#1)

To whom does covenant faithfulness belong?

Covenant faithfulness belongs to the Lord, who repays each person according to what he has done.

Psalms 63:1 (#1)

How does David seek God?

He seeks God earnestly, his soul thirsts for him, and his body aches for him.

Psalms 63:2 (#1)

What does David see when he gazes at God in the sanctuary?

He sees God's power and glory.

Psalms 63:3–4 (#1)

What will David do because of God's covenant faithfulness?

David will praise God as long as he lives, he will bless God, and he will lift up his hands and pray to God.

Psalms 63:5 (#1)

What does David compare his satisfaction in God to?

He compares his satisfaction in God to eating rich food, and he praises God joyfully.

Psalms 63:6 (#1)

When does David meditate on God?

He thinks about God when on his bed and meditates on God in the night watches.

Psalms 63:7 (#1)

Why does David shout joyfully?

He shouts joyfully because he is aware that God protects him just as a mother bird protects her chicks under her wings.

Psalms 63:8 (#1)

Who upholds David?

The right hand of God upholds and protects David.

Psalms 63:9–10 (#1)

What will happen to those who seek to destroy David's life?

They will go into the lowest parts of the earth, they will die by the sword, and wild dogs will eat their corpses.

Psalms 63:11 (#2)

What will happen to those who speak falsehood?

Those who speak falsehood will have their mouths shut.

Psalms 63:11 (#1)

What will happen to those who swear by God?

Those who swear by God will exult in him and praise him.

Psalms 64:1 (#1)

What is David asking God to do?

He wants God to hear his voice and to preserve his life from fear of his enemies.

Psalms 64:2 (#1)

From what does David ask God to hide him?

He asks God to hide him from the secret plans of evildoers and from those who do evil things.

Psalms 64:3 (#1)

What do David's enemies do with their tongues?

They speak hostile things and cruel words which are like sharp swords.

Psalms 64:4 (#1)

At whom do David's enemies speak their cruel words?

They falsely accuse someone who is innocent like a person who shoots an arrow from a hiding place.

Psalms 64:5 (#1)

What do David's enemies say when they encourage each other to plan evil and to deceive people?

They say, "Who will see us?"

Psalms 64:7 (#1)

How will God respond to David's enemies?

God will judge and punish them, as if he were shooting an arrow and wounding them.

Psalms 64:8 (#1)

Because of God's actions, what will happen to the enemy?

The enemy will get into trouble because of their own tongue, and everyone who sees them will flee.

Psalms 64:9 (#1)

How will all people respond when God judges David's enemies?

All people will fear, tell others about God's works, and consider what God has done.

Psalms 64:10 (#1)

What will the righteous and all the upright in heart do?

The righteous people will rejoice in Yahweh and will trust in him for protection, and all the upright in heart will celebrate.

Psalms 65:1 (#1)

To whom does the psalmist say a vow will be paid?

The psalmist says a vow will be paid to God in Zion.

Psalms 65:3 (#1)

What does the psalmist say God will do about their transgressions?

The psalmist says God will forgive their transgressions.

Psalms 65:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the person God chooses and brings near to dwell in his courts?

That person is happy and will be satisfied with the goodness of God's house and the holiness of his temple.

Psalms 65:5 (#1)

How does the psalmist say God answers those who call to him?

God answers by doing fearsome things in righteousness.

Psalms 65:7 (#1)

What does God quiet?

He quiets the roar of the seas and their waves, as well as the nations.

Psalms 65:8 (#1)

How do people who live at the ends of the earth respond to God's signs?

They fear and respect God and celebrate when they see his signs and actions.

Psalms 65:9 (#1)

How does the psalmist say God helps the earth?

God waters it, enriches it, and prepares the earth to provide grain for its people.

Psalms 65:11 (#1)

What does the psalmist say God crowns the year with?

God crowns the year with fields that are glorious with crops, as if he had put a golden crown on them and provides food in abundance.

Psalms 65:13 (#1)

With what are the meadows and valleys covered?

The meadows are covered with flocks of sheep and goats, and the valleys are covered with grain.

Psalms 66:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist tell all the earth to do?

He tells everyone to shout to God and to joyfully praise him.

Psalms 66:3 (#1)

What causes God's enemies to cringe before him?

The greatness of God's power causes his enemies to cringe before him.

Psalms 66:6 (#1)

What miraculous deed did God do for his people?

He turned the sea into dry land so that the people passed through the river on foot.

Psalms 66:9 (#1)

What does God do for his people?

He keeps them alive and does not allow anyone to destroy them.

Psalms 66:10 (#1)

How has God tested his people?

He has tested them by allowing them to experience difficulties in order to refine them as silver is refined.

Psalms 66:12 (#1)

Where did God bring his people out?

He brought them out to a place of abundance.

Psalms 66:13 (#1)

With what will the psalmist come into God's house?

He will come into God's house with burnt offerings as he promised.

Psalms 66:15 (#1)

What will the psalmist offer to God?

He will offer burnt offerings of fatlings with the smoke of rams, and also cattle with male goats.

Psalms 66:16 (#1)

What will the psalmist declare to all who fear God?

He will declare what God has done for him.

Psalms 66:18 (#1)

What would have happened if the psalmist had regarded iniquity in his heart?

The Lord would not have heard and answered his prayer.

Psalms 66:20 (#1)

What two things has God not turned away from the psalmist?

God has not turned away the psalmist's prayer or his covenant faithfulness from the psalmist.

Psalms 67:1–2 (#1)

Why should God be gracious to his people and bless them?

He should be gracious and bless them so that his way may be known on the earth and his salvation among all the nations.

Psalms 67:3 (#1)

Who should thank God?

All the peoples should thank God.

Psalms 67:4 (#1)

Why should the nations rejoice and shout joyfully?

They should rejoice and shout joyfully because God judges the peoples with uprightness and guides the nations on the earth.

Psalms 67:6 (#1)

What does the psalmist say the earth has given?

The earth has given its produce.

Psalms 67:7 (#1)

What should happen because God has blessed his people?

All the people of the earth should fear and respect him.

Psalms 68:1 (#1)

What does David want to happen to God's enemies and to those who hate God?

He wants God's enemies to be scattered and those who hate God to flee from his face.

Psalms 68:3 (#1)

What should the righteous do?

The righteous should be glad, rejoice, exult, and be happy before God.

Psalms 68:6 (#1)

What does God do for the lonely and the prisoners?

God provides families and homes for lonely people, and he brings prisoners out into prosperity.

Psalms 68:7–8 (#1)

What did the earth and heavens do when God went out before his people?

The earth trembled and the heavens poured rain in God's presence.

Psalms 68:9–10 (#1)

What did God provide for his people?

God sent plentiful rain when his inheritance was weary and, in his goodness, he provided homes and food for the poor.

Psalms 68:11 (#1)

Who proclaims the good news?

A great crowd of women proclaim the good news.

Psalms 68:12–13 (#1)

What do the women who stay at home do when the enemy kings flee?

They divide the plunder, which includes treasures like a dove with silver wings and gold-colored feathers.

Psalms 68:16 (#1)

At what does the psalmist say that the mountains might look at in envy?

He says that the mountains might look in envy at the mountain that God desires for his dwelling place, where Yahweh will live forever.

Psalms 68:17 (#1)

To what does the psalmist compare the power of God?

The psalmist says that God is so powerful that it is as if he has thousands and thousands of chariots.

Psalms 68:19 (#1)

What does the Lord do for his people daily?

The Lord daily helps his people as if he were carrying a heavy load for them.

Psalms 68:22 (#1)

From where does the Lord say he will bring back his enemies?

The Lord says he will bring them back from a high mountain or from the depths of the sea.

Psalms 68:24–25 (#1)

In what order does the procession of God go into the sanctuary?

The singers go first, the maidens playing timbrels are in the middle, and the musicians playing stringed instruments follow behind.

Psalms 68:26 (#1)

Who should bless and praise God in the assembly?

The descendants of Israel should bless and praise God.

Psalms 68:27 (#1)

What tribe is leading this parade?

Benjamin, the smallest tribe, is leading this parade.

Psalms 68:28 (#1)

What does the psalmist say God has done for his people?

The psalmist says that God has commanded strength for his people, and he calls on God to show his strength, because God has done great things for them.

Psalms 68:30 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God to rebuke?

The psalmist asks God to rebuke the king of Egypt and the armies of mighty nations with their subject peoples.

Psalms 68:31 (#1)

Who will come from Egypt?

Nobles will come from Egypt.

Psalms 68:32 (#1)

Who should sing praises to God?

The kingdoms of the earth should sing praises to God.

Psalms 68:34 (#1)

To whom does the psalmist say strength should be ascribed?

The psalmist says to ascribe strength to God.

Psalms 68:35 (#1)

What does God give to his people?

God gives strength and power to his people.

Psalms 69:1 (#1)

From what does David ask God to save him?

He asks God to save him from great danger.

Psalms 69:3 (#1)

What is happening to David as he waits for his God?

He is weary from calling out, his throat is parched, and his eyes fail.

Psalms 69:4 (#1)

How many are David's enemies who hate him?

There are so many it is as if they are more than the hairs on his head.

Psalms 69:5 (#1)

What does God know about David?

God knows about David's foolishness and about the sins he has committed.

Psalms 69:6 (#1)

What does David not want to happen to those who wait for and seek God?

David asks that they not have shame or be humiliated because of him.

Psalms 69:9 (#1)

What has consumed David?

Zeal for God's house has consumed him.

Psalms 69:10 (#1)

What did David do that others used to reproach him?

He wept and fasted, but it became a source of reproaches against him.

Psalms 69:11–12 (#1)

In what way was David an object of insults?

His enemies made a proverb of him, using him as an example of a foolish person and singing insulting songs about him.

Psalms 69:13 (#1)

How does David want Yahweh to answer his prayer?

He asks Yahweh to answer him at a time Yahweh's choosing, rescuing him because of Yahweh's own faithful love.

Psalms 69:16 (#1)

Why should Yahweh turn to David?

Yahweh should turn to David because Yahweh's covenant faithfulness is good and his compassion is great.

Psalms 69:18 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do because of David's enemies?

He asks Yahweh to draw near to him, to save him, and to rescue him from his enemies.

Psalms 69:21 (#1)

What did David's enemies give him to eat and drink?

They put poison in his food and gave him vinegar to drink for his thirst.

Psalms 69:22 (#1)

What does David want the table of his enemies to become?

He wants his enemies' table to become a snare and a trap for them.

Psalms 69:25 (#1)

What does David want to happen to his enemies' encampment?

He wants their encampment to be deserted, with no one living in their tents.

Psalms 69:27 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to add to his enemies?

He asks Yahweh to punish them for all their sins and to not let them enter into Yahweh's righteousness.

Psalms 69:30–31 (#1)

What will please God more than an ox or a bull?

Praising the name of God with a song and magnifying him with thanksgiving will please Yahweh more than an ox or a bull.

Psalms 69:33 (#1)

How does Yahweh respond to the needy and his prisoners?

Yahweh hears and answers the needy and does not despise his prisoners.

Psalms 69:34 (#1)

What does the psalmist say should praise God?

The psalmist says that the entire creation: the heavens, the earth, the seas, and everything moving in them should praise God.

Psalms 69:35–36 (#1)

What will God do for Zion and the cities of Judah?

God will save Zion and strengthen the cities of Judah so that his people may dwell there and possess it, and the descendants of his servants will inherit it.

Psalms 70:1 (#1)

What is David asking Yahweh to do?

David is asking Yahweh to act quickly to rescue him.

Psalms 70:2–3 (#1)

What does David want God to do to those who seek after his life?

David wants God to put them to shame and humiliate them, to disgrace them and make them abandon their plans.

Psalms 70:4 (#1)

What does David want all those who seek Yahweh to do?

He wants them to rejoice and be glad in Yahweh and to keep saying, "God is great!"

Psalms 70:5 (#1)

What does David need from God because he is in difficult circumstances?

David needs God to hurry to help and to save him.

Psalms 71:1 (#1)

Where does the psalmist say he takes refuge?

The psalmist says he takes refuge in Yahweh.

Psalms 71:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do for him?

He asks Yahweh to deliver and rescue him, to consider his situation and save him.

Psalms 71:3 (#1)

What does the psalmist want Yahweh to be to him?

The psalmist wants Yahweh to be his savior and his protector.

Psalms 71:4 (#1)

From whose hand does the psalmist want to be rescued?

He wants to be rescued from the hand of the wicked, and from the one who does wrong and the one who is cruel.

Psalms 71:5 (#1)

How long has the psalmist trusted in Yahweh?

He has trusted in Yahweh since he was young.

Psalms 71:6 (#1)

What does the psalmist say that he will do continually?

He says that he will always praise Yahweh.

Psalms 71:7 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh?

He says that Yahweh is his refuge and mighty protector.

Psalms 71:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask to do all day?

He asks to be able to praise Yahweh all day.

Psalms 71:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God not to do when the psalmist is old and his strength fails?

He asks Yahweh not to cast him away or forsake him.

Psalms 71:10–11 (#1)

What do the enemies of the psalmist say as they are plotting against him?

They say that God is not helping him, that they should pursue and seize him because God will not save him.

Psalms 71:12 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God to do quickly?

The psalmist asks God not to be far from him and to hurry to help him.

Psalms 71:13 (#1)

What does the psalmist want to happen to those who are hostile to his life?

He wants them to be put to shame and disgraced, and he wants their plans to fail.

Psalms 71:14 (#1)

What does the psalmist say he will continue to do?

The psalmist says he will hope and trust continually and will continue to praise Yahweh.

Psalms 71:15 (#1)

What will the psalmist proclaim with his mouth about Yahweh?

He will tell of Yahweh's righteousness and salvation all day.

Psalms 71:16 (#1)

In whose strength does the psalmist say he will come?

The psalmist says he will come in the strength of Lord Yahweh.

Psalms 71:17–18 (#1)

Why should Yahweh not forsake the psalmist?

Yahweh should not forsake him because the psalmist is declaring Yahweh's wonderful doings to the next generation and his power to everyone who is to come.

Psalms 71:19 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about God's righteousness?

The psalmist says that God's righteousness reaches to the heights and that no one is like God.

Psalms 71:20 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God to do after he has experienced many troubles?

The psalmist asks God to revive him and to give him a good life again.

Psalms 71:21–22 (#1)

For what does the psalmist give thanks with his harp?

He gives thanks to God for God's faithfulness.

Psalms 71:23–24 (#1)

What does the psalmist do all day long?

He meditates on God's righteousness all day long.

Psalms 72:1 (#1)

What does Solomon ask God to give to the son of the king who is now the king?

Solomon asks God to give the king God's own judgments and righteousness.

Psalms 72:5 (#1)

How long does Solomon want the people to fear God?

He wants them to fear God for as long as the sun and the moon endure, throughout all generations.

Psalms 72:6 (#1)

What does Solomon compare the king to?

He compares the king to rain falling on mown grass and to showers drenching the earth.

Psalms 72:8 (#1)

How far does Solomon ask that the king rule?

He asks that the king rule from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Psalms 72:11 (#1)

What does Solomon want all kings and nations to do?

He wants all kings to bow down to the king and all nations to serve him.

Psalms 72:13 (#1)

How does the king treat the weak and the needy?

He has pity on the weak and the needy and saves their lives.

Psalms 72:16 (#1)

What does Solomon ask for the land and the people of the cities?

He asks for an abundance of grain in the land and for the people of the cities to flourish like the grass of the earth.

Psalms 72:17 (#1)

How long does Solomon ask that the king's name endure?

He asks that the king's name endure forever, and continue as long as the sun.

Psalms 72:18 (#1)

What does Yahweh alone do?

He alone does wonderful things.

Psalms 73:1 (#1)

To whom is God good?

God is good to Israel, to those with a pure heart.

Psalms 73:2–3 (#1)

Why did Asaph's feet nearly slip?

He nearly slipped because he was envious of the arrogant when he saw the prosperity of the wicked.

Psalms 73:4–5 (#1)

How did Asaph describe the wicked?

He said they have no suffering until they die, they are fat and well fed, they are free from the troubles that other people face, and they are not afflicted like other men.

Psalms 73:6 (#1)

What are the characteristics that Asaph ascribes to the wicked?

Asaph says that they are filled with pride and openly display their violent actions.

Psalms 73:7 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the eyes and heart of the wicked?

Their eyes bulge out from fatness, and they are always thinking of more evil things to do.

Psalms 73:8–9 (#1)

What do the wicked say and do?

They mock others and speak of doing evil and oppressive things to them; they speak with pride. They talk as if they are God and boast across the earth.

Psalms 73:11 (#1)

What do the wicked say about God?

They say that God does not know or care about what they do, and that the Most High has no knowledge and will not judge their actions.

Psalms 73:13–14 (#1)

Why does Asaph feel he guarded his heart in vain?

He has suffered and been punished every day, even though he kept his heart clean and has not committed sinful acts.

Psalms 73:15 (#1)

What will happen if Asaph says these things?

He will betray the generation of God's children.

Psalms 73:16–17 (#1)

Where did Asaph go to gain understanding of these things?

Asaph went into the temple of God.

Psalms 73:19 (#1)

What happens to the wicked?

They are destroyed in a moment; they come to an end in terrible ways.

Psalms 73:22 (#1)

What did Asaph say he was like before God?

He was stupid and ignorant, like an animal before God.

Psalms 73:24 (#1)

What will God do for Asaph after guiding him with his counsel?

Afterward, God will take Asaph to glory.

Psalms 73:25 (#1)

What does Asaph say he desires?

He desires only God, both in heaven and on earth.

Psalms 73:27 (#1)

Who will perish?

Those who are far from God will perish, and God will destroy all those who are unfaithful to him.

Psalms 73:28 (#1)

What does Asaph say is good for him?

Being close to God is good for him. He has made Yahweh his refuge so that he can tell about all of God's works.

Psalms 74:2 (#1)

What does Asaph ask God to remember that he did for his people in ancient times?

Asaph asks God to remember his people that he chose long ago and redeemed from slavery to be his own.

Psalms 74:4–6 (#1)

What damage did the enemy do in the sanctuary?

They set up their battle flags, swung axes like woodsmen in a forest, and broke down all the carvings with hatchet and hammers.

Psalms 74:7 (#1)

What else did they do to the sanctuary?

They set it on fire, burned it down, and profaned the temple.

Psalms 74:8 (#1)

What did the enemy do to the meeting places?

They burned all of the meeting places of God in the land.

Psalms 74:9 (#1)

What did God's people not see anymore?

They did not see any more signs, and there was no longer a prophet among them.

Psalms 74:12–13 (#1)

Why has God been Asaph's king since ancient times?

Asaph recognizes God's work of salvation in the earth and his power to create order out of chaos.

Psalms 74:14 (#1)

To what did Asaph compare the power of God?

Asaph compared the power of God to one who could crush the heads of monsters and leave their bodies as food to the desert-dwellers.

Psalms 74:16–17 (#1)

What did God set in place?

God established the light and the sun, set all the boundaries of the earth, and formed the seasons of summer and winter.

Psalms 74:18 (#1)

What does the enemy do that Asaph wants Yahweh to remember?

Asaph wants Yahweh to remember that Yahweh's enemies have insulted and mocked him, and that foolish people have despised his name.

Psalms 74:20 (#1)

Why does Asaph ask God to regard his covenant?

He asks because violence fills the dark places of the land.

Psalms 74:22 (#1)

What does Asaph want God to arise and defend?

Asaph wants God to arise and plead his own cause against the insults of foolish people.

Psalms 75:1 (#1)

For what do the people give thanks?

They give thanks because God is near to them, and they tell others about his wonderful deeds.

Psalms 75:2–3 (#1)

What will God do at the appointed time?

He will judge everyone fairly and when the earth shakes, he will hold it steady.

Psalms 75:4–5 (#1)

What does Asaph tell the boastful and wicked not to do?

He tells them not to boast or brag about their power, and not to speak arrogantly.

Psalms 75:7 (#1)

What does Asaph say about God?

God is the judge and he brings some down and raises others up.

Psalms 75:8 (#1)

To what does Asaph compare Yahweh's judgment of the wicked?

Asaph compares Yahweh's judgment of the wicked to a cup of foaming wine that all the wicked people on earth must drink down to the last drop.

Psalms 75:9 (#1)

How will Asaph praise the God of Jacob?

He will continually tell what God has done and sing praises to him and will never stop.

Psalms 75:10 (#1)

What does God say he will do to the power of the wicked and the righteous?

He will destroy the power of the wicked and increase the power of the righteous.

Psalms 76:2 (#1)

Where does the psalmist say God has his dwelling place?

His dwelling place is on Mount Zion in Jerusalem.

Psalms 76:4 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe God?

God is glorious and majestic.

Psalms 76:6 (#1)

What happened when the God of Jacob rebuked his enemies?

At his rebuke, both horse and rider fell down dead.

Psalms 76:8 (#1)

What happened when God's judgment came from heaven?

When his judgment came, the earth was afraid and silent.

Psalms 76:10 (#1)

What does the psalmist say the anger of people will do?

Even the anger of people will bring God praise.

Psalms 76:11 (#1)

What does the psalmist say people should do regarding vows to Yahweh their God?

They should make vows to Yahweh their God and keep them.

Psalms 76:12 (#1)

What does the psalmist say God does to princes and kings?

God humbles the spirit of princes, and kings of the earth fear him.

Psalms 77:2–3 (#1)

What did Asaph do in the day of his trouble?

He sought the Lord, praying all night, and he thought about God and meditated on him.

Psalms 77:5 (#1)

What did Asaph think about when he could not sleep at night?

He thought about previous years, about times long ago.

Psalms 77:6 (#1)

What did Asaph recall to mind during the night?

He called to mind the songs he once sang.

Psalms 77:10 (#1)

What is causing Asaph's sadness?

He says his sadness is caused because it seems like the Most High God is no longer using his power for their protection.

Psalms 77:11 (#1)

Which deeds of Yahweh does Asaph think about?

He thinks about Yahweh's wonderful deeds of the past.

Psalms 77:13–15 (#1)

How is God different from all other gods?

There is no other god like God; he does wonders, reveals his strength, and performs miracles.

Psalms 77:16–17 (#1)

How did Asaph compare the power of nature to the power of God?

Asaph describes nature as being afraid of God and trembling; the clouds poured water, the skies thundered, and the depths of the waters shook.

Psalms 77:18–20 (#1)

How did God lead his people?

God led his people as a shepherd leads his flock of sheep; his path went through the sea, and his way through deep waters.

Psalms 78:2 (#1)

How does Asaph say he will teach his people?

Asaph says he will open his mouth in a parable and speak about things from long ago that are difficult to understand.

Psalms 78:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist say he will tell the next generation?

He says he will tell them to praise Yahweh for his strength and the wonders that he has done.

Psalms 78:6 (#1)

Why did Yahweh command the people to teach his law to their children?

Yahweh commanded this so that the later generation and children not yet born would know his law and in turn tell it to their own children.

Psalms 78:7–8 (#1)

Why was it important for the fathers to teach Yahweh's commandments to their children?

It was important for the fathers to teach Yahweh's commandments to their children so that they would trust in God, remember what he had done, and keep his commandments, and would not be like their stubborn and rebellious ancestors.

Psalms 78:10 (#1)

How did their fathers act wrongly against God?

They did not keep their covenant with God and refused to obey his laws.

Psalms 78:14 (#1)

How did God lead their fathers through the wilderness?

He led them in the daytime with a cloud and all through the night with the light of fire.

Psalms 78:18 (#1)

How did Israel test God?

They tested God in their hearts by demanding food to satisfy their appetites.

Psalms 78:19 (#1)

What did Israel say when they spoke against God?

They insulted God by questioning whether God was able to provide food for them in the wilderness.

Psalms 78:22 (#1)

Why was Yahweh angry with Israel?

Yahweh was angry because they did not believe in him and did not trust in his salvation.

Psalms 78:23–24 (#1)

How did God provide food for Israel even though they did not believe in him?

God commanded the sky to open and rain down manna, a grain from heaven, for them to eat.

Psalms 78:31 (#1)

What did God do to Israel in his anger?

He killed some of their strongest men and sent the young men of Israel to their graves.

Psalms 78:34 (#1)

How did the people of Israel respond whenever God caused some of them to die?

They would seek God and return and look earnestly for him.

Psalms 78:37 (#1)

What was the condition of Israel's heart before God?

Their hearts were not steadfast with him, and they were not faithful to his covenant.

Psalms 78:38–39 (#1)

How did God show mercy to the people of Israel?

He forgave their iniquity, did not destroy them, and held back his anger many times. He remembered that they were only human and that their lives were brief.

Psalms 78:44 (#1)

What did God do to the rivers of Egypt?

He turned the rivers to blood so that the people could not drink from their streams.

Psalms 78:51 (#1)

What did God do to the firstborn of the Egyptians?

He struck every firstborn in Egypt, the firstborn of every family, so that he died.

Psalms 78:52 (#1)

How did God lead his people out of Egypt?

He led them like a shepherd leads his sheep and guided them through the wilderness like a flock.

Psalms 78:55 (#1)

What did God do to the nations?

He drove out the nations before the Israelites and gave the land to the tribes of Israel as their inheritance.

Psalms 78:57 (#1)

How did the people of Israel act like their ancestors?

They turned back and were unfaithful to God, just as their ancestors had done.

Psalms 78:58 (#1)

With what did Israel make God angry?

They made him angry with their worship at the high places and provoked him to jealousy with their carved images.

Psalms 78:62–63 (#1)

To what did God deliver his people?

He delivered them over to the sword, and fire destroyed their young men.

Psalms 78:68 (#1)

Which tribe did God choose from Israel?

God chose the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion, which he loved.

Psalms 78:70 (#1)

Who did God choose to be the shepherd of Israel?

God chose David, his servant, and brought him from tending the sheep to shepherd the people of Israel.

Psalms 79:1 (#1)

What happened when the foreign nations came into Israel?

They defiled the temple and turned Jerusalem into a heap of ruins.

Psalms 79:4 (#1)

What has Israel become to their neighbors?

They have become a reproach to their neighbors, a scorn and derision to those around them.

Psalms 79:6 (#1)

On whom does Asaph ask God to pour out his wrath?

He asks God to pour out his wrath on the nations that do not know God and on the kingdoms that do not call upon God's name.

Psalms 79:8 (#1)

What does Asaph ask God to do?

He asks God not to remember their former sins against them and to be merciful to them.

Psalms 79:10 (#1)

What does Asaph not want the nations to say?

He does not want the nations to say, "Where is their God?"

Psalms 79:13 (#1)

What does Asaph say that Israel is to God?

He says they are God's people and the flock of God's pasture.

Psalms 80:1 (#1)

What is the psalmist asking the Shepherd of Israel to do?

The psalmist is asking him to pay attention and to reveal his glory to them.

Psalms 80:2 (#1)

What is the psalmist asking the Shepherd of Israel to do in the sight of the tribes of Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh?

He is asking the Shepherd of Israel to stir up his power and come and save them.

Psalms 80:3 (#1)

What is the psalmist asking God to do?

He is asking God to restore their strength, regard them favorably, and save them.

Psalms 80:4 (#1)

What was Yahweh's response when his people prayed?

He was angry at his people so when they prayed, he did not answer.

Psalms 80:5 (#1)

What has Yahweh caused them to experience?

He has caused them to experience punishment through constant sorrow just as if he gave them tears for their food and drink.

Psalms 80:6 (#1)

What are Israel's neighbors and enemies doing to them?

The nations are hostile to them, and their enemies mock and make fun of them.

Psalms 80:8 (#1)

What did God do with the people that he brought out of Egypt?

He drove out nations before them and allowed his people to settle in it like a vine that was transplanted from one place to another.

Psalms 80:9 (#1)

What did God do to prepare for his people to move into the land?

God removed the foreign nations just as a farmer clears land for a new plant.

Psalms 80:10 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the people of God?

He says they became so numerous it was like a vine that covered the mountains, and whose branches were like the great cedars.

Psalms 80:11 (#1)

How far did the people's influence extend?

They controlled territory as far as the sea in the west and the Euphrates River in the east.

Psalms 80:12 (#1)

What has God allowed to happen?

The land has been conquered and its protective walls broken down so that those who pass by can take whatever they want.

Psalms 80:13 (#1)

What will the enemies do to the country?

They will destroy it until it is as if wild boars had chewed up a vine and other wild animals ate what was left.

Psalms 80:14 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask the God of armies to do for his people?

He asks the God of armies to turn around and look down from heaven and see and respond to his people who are like a vine that he had planted.

Psalms 80:15 (#1)

Who planted the people and made them grown strong in the land?

The right hand of the God of armies planted the people and caused them to become strong.

Psalms 80:16 (#1)

What is happening to the people?

Their enemies are destroying them as if someone had cut down and burned a vine.

Psalms 80:17 (#1)

What does the psalmist want God to do for his own people?

The psalmist wants God to help them and to restore their power.

Psalms 80:18 (#1)

What will the people do if God revives them?

They will worship him and not turn back to worship other gods.

Psalms 80:19 (#1)

What will happen if Yahweh, the God of armies, restores the people?

If Yahweh restores them, they will be saved.

Psalms 81:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist tell the people to do to God?

He tells them to shout joyfully to God, their strength, and to shout out to the God of Jacob.

Psalms 81:2 (#1)

What instruments do the psalmist tell the people to use as they raise a song?

The psalmist tells the people to play tambourines, harps, and lyres.

Psalms 81:3 (#1)

When should the people blow the shofar?

They should blow it at the new moon and at the full moon for the day of their festival.

Psalms 81:4 (#1)

Who gave these commands for Israel?

The God of Jacob gave these commands for Israel.

Psalms 81:5 (#1)

What did God tell their ancestors to observe?

He told their ancestors to observe these things when he delivered them from slavery in the land of Egypt.

Psalms 81:6 (#1)

What did God remove from the shoulder of the people?

He removed the burden from their shoulder, and their hands no longer had to carry heavy baskets full of bricks.

Psalms 81:7 (#1)

What happened when the people called out in their distress?

God delivered them and answered them from the secret place of thunder, and he tested them at the waters of Meribah.

Psalms 81:9 (#1)

What did God say about strange gods?

God said there must be no strange god among Israel, and they must not bow down to any god that other nations worship.

Psalms 81:10 (#1)

What does Yahweh say he did for Israel?

He brought them up from slavery in the land of Egypt.

Psalms 81:10 (#2)

What promise did God make to the Israelites?

He promised them that if they depended on him, that he would provide everything they needed.

Psalms 81:11 (#1)

What did Yahweh's people, Israel, not do?

They did not listen to Yahweh's voice, and Israel did not submit to him.

Psalms 81:12 (#1)

What did Yahweh do when his people refused to listen to him?

He sent them away in the stubbornness of their heart, and they walked in their own counsels.

Psalms 81:13 (#1)

What does Yahweh long for his people to do?

Yahweh wants his people to listen to him and walk in his ways.

Psalms 81:14 (#1)

What would Yahweh do if his people would listen to him and walk in his ways?

He would easily subdue their enemies and turn his hand against their adversaries.

Psalms 81:15 (#1)

According to Yahweh, what would happen to those who hate him?

They would cringe before him, but the Israelites would always prosper.

Psalms 81:16 (#1)

What does Yahweh say he would do for Israel?

Yahweh would feed them with the fat of the wheat and satisfy them with honey from the rock.

Psalms 82:1 (#1)

From where does God render judgment?

God takes his place in the assembly that he governs and pronounces his judgments there.

Psalms 82:2 (#1)

What does God say to the rulers in the assembly?

God asks them how long they will judge unjustly and show favoritism to the wicked.

Psalms 82:3 (#1)

What does God tell the rulers to do for the poor and the orphan?

God tells them to judge the poor and the orphan fairly and to vindicate the poor and the destitute.

Psalms 82:4 (#1)

What does God tell the rulers to do for the poor and needy?

God tells them to rescue the poor and needy and deliver them from the hand of the wicked.

Psalms 82:5 (#1)

What does God say about the rulers who do not know or understand?

God says they walk about in darkness, foolishness, and ignorance, and no longer live by the basic principles that make a society fair.

Psalms 82:6–7 (#1)

What does God say will happen to the gods he calls sons of the Most High?

God says they will die like ordinary men and fall like one of the princes.

Psalms 82:8 (#1)

Why does the psalmist ask God to arise and judge the earth?

He asks God to judge the earth because God is the ruler of the nations.

Psalms 83:2 (#1)

What are God's enemies doing?

They are defiantly approaching with a large army.

Psalms 83:3 (#1)

Who do the enemies of God plot against?

They plot and conspire against God's people whom he cherishes.

Psalms 83:4 (#1)

What do God's enemies say they will do to Israel?

They say they will destroy Israel so that it will no longer exist as a nation.

Psalms 83:4 (#2)

What would happen to Israel if God's enemies destroyed them?

No one will even remember that Israel existed.

Psalms 83:5 (#1)

Against whom have God's enemies conspired?

They conspired together against God and made an alliance against him.

Psalms 83:9–10 (#1)

What does Asaph ask God to do to his enemies, as he did to Midian, Sisera, and Jabin?

He asks God to treat them as he treated those enemies, destroying them and leaving their dead bodies rotted on the ground.

Psalms 83:11–12 (#1)

What did the nobles and princes of the enemies say?

They said they would take for themselves the land where God's people dwell.

Psalms 83:13–14 (#1)

What things does Asaph want God to make his enemies like?

He wants God to make them like tumbleweed that rolls away, like chaff that flies away in the wind, like fire that burns a forest, and like flames that burn up the hillsides.

Psalms 83:15 (#1)

How does Asaph want God to pursue and terrify his enemies?

He wants God to pursue them until they run away as from a great storm that is driving them off.

Psalms 83:16 (#1)

Why does Asaph ask Yahweh to disgrace his enemies?

He asks God to disgrace his enemies so that they will acknowledge who Yahweh is.

Psalms 83:17 (#1)

What does Asaph desire to happen to God's enemies?

He desires that they have shame and be terrified forever, and that they have disgrace and perish.

Psalms 83:18 (#1)

What will God's enemies know about Yahweh?

They will know that Yahweh alone is the Most High God who rules over everyone on the earth.

Psalms 84:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the temple of Yahweh?

He says the temple of Yahweh is a wonderful place.

Psalms 84:2 (#1)

For what does the psalmist long?

He longs to be in the courtyards of Yahweh's temple.

Psalms 84:2 (#2)

To whom does the psalmist's whole being cry out?

His whole being cries out to the only true God.

Psalms 84:3 (#1)

Where has the sparrow built her house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young?

They have built their house and nest near the temple of Yahweh, commander of heavenly armies.

Psalms 84:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about those who live by Yahweh's temple?

They will live a good life and worship Yahweh in his temple continually.

Psalms 84:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the man whose strength is in Yahweh?

The people whom Yahweh has made strong enough to travel to the temple will have a good life.

Psalms 84:6 (#1)

What do those who pass through the Valley of Baca do to it?

They dig wells for water, and God sends the early rain to fill those wells with life-giving water.

Psalms 84:7 (#1)

What happens to those who arrive at the temple of God?

They become stronger as they go.

Psalms 84:8 (#2)

Who does the psalmist want to listen to what he is saying?

He wants the God whom Jacob's descendants worship to listen to what he is saying and do what he is asking.

Psalms 84:8 (#1)

Who does the psalmist want to hear his prayer?

He wants Yahweh, God of Armies, to hear his prayer.

Psalms 84:9 (#1)

How does the psalmist ask God to treat the anointed king?

He asks God to treat favorably the king he has appointed to protect his people.

Psalms 84:10 (#2)

What does the psalmist say he would rather do than dwell in the tents of wickedness?

He would rather stand at the entrance to the courtyard of God's temple than stay in any of the comfortable homes where wicked people live.

Psalms 84:10 (#1)

A day in Yahweh's courts is better than what?

A day in Yahweh's temple courts is better than a thousand spent anywhere else.

Psalms 84:11 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for his people?

Yahweh makes them prosper, protects them, is kind to them, honors them, and gives them every good thing that they need.

Psalms 84:12 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the man who trusts in Yahweh of Armies?

The man who trusts in Yahweh of Armies is happy.

Psalms 85:1 (#1)

What has Yahweh done for his land and for the Israelites, the descendants of Jacob?

Yahweh has made his land prosperous again by bringing back the Israelites who were exiles.

Psalms 85:2 (#1)

What has Yahweh done about the sins of his people?

He has forgiven his people all their sins.

Psalms 85:3 (#1)

What has Yahweh done with his wrath and burning anger?

Yahweh stopped punishing his people and ceased being angry with them.

Psalms 85:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask of God?

He asks God to save his people, to stop being upset with them, and make them strong again.

Psalms 85:6 (#1)

What will God's people do if God revives them again?

God's people will rejoice in him.

Psalms 85:7 (#1)

What is the psalmist asking God do for his people?

He is asking Yahweh to treat them kindly as he promised and save them from their troubles.

Psalms 85:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh will say to his people?

Yahweh will say that he will make his people thrive if they are loyal to him and do not do foolish things anymore.

Psalms 85:9 (#1)

What will happen when Yahweh's salvation comes for those who deeply revere him?

Yahweh will be gloriously present with them in their land.

Psalms 85:10 (#1)

What will the people who revere Yahweh experience?

God's faithful kindness and truth as well as his righteousness and peace.

Psalms 85:11 (#1)

What will happen on the earth and from heaven when people revere God?

People on earth will be faithful to God, and he will act justly toward them from heaven.

Psalms 85:12 (#1)

What will happen when Yahweh gives what is good?

The land will give its produce.

Psalms 85:13 (#1)

What will Yahweh do as he considers what to do?

Righteousness walks before Yahweh so he will recognize what the right thing is to do and he will do that.

Psalms 86:1 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh to listen to and answer him?

He asks Yahweh to answer him because David is poor and needy.

Psalms 86:2 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do for him when he is faithful and trusts in him?

David asks Yahweh to protect him and save him.

Psalms 86:3 (#1)

What does David ask when he cries out to the Lord?

David asks the Lord to be kind to him.

Psalms 86:4 (#1)

When David worships the Lord, what is he asking from the Lord?

David asks the Lord to make him glad.

Psalms 86:5 (#1)

What happens to all those who cry out to the Lord who is good?

The Lord faithfully loves everyone who prays to him and is ready to forgive their sins.

Psalms 86:6 (#1)

Who does David ask to listen to his prayer and hear his pleas?

David asks Yahweh to listen and do what he asks.

Psalms 86:7 (#1)

What will Yahweh do when David calls on him when he is in trouble?

Yahweh will answer and help David.

Psalms 86:8 (#1)

Who compares to the Lord among the gods?

There is no one who compares to the Lord and none of the other gods have done the great things he has done.

Psalms 86:9 (#1)

What will all the nations that he has made do before the Lord?

All the nations will come and bow before the Lord and praise him.

Psalms 86:10 (#1)

Who alone is truly God?

Yahweh is the only true God and he does great and wonderful things.

Psalms 86:11 (#2)

What will happen when Yahweh teaches David?

David will act as Yahweh wishes him to because he sincerely desires to honor Yahweh.

Psalms 86:11 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to teach him?

David asks Yahweh to teach him how he wants him to live.

Psalms 86:12 (#1)

What does David tell God he will do?

David will thank God wholeheartedly and praise him forever.

Psalms 86:13 (#1)

What does David say God has done in order to keep his covenant with him?

God has kept David from dying and going down to Sheol.

Psalms 86:14 (#1)

What does David say the arrogant and violent people are doing to him?

They are attacking David and by trying to kill him, showing that they have no respect for God.

Psalms 86:15 (#1)

How does David describe the Lord?

David describes the Lord as a merciful and gracious God who does not quickly become angry and is abundantly and faithfully kind and true to his people.

Psalms 86:16 (#1)

What does David ask the Lord to do for him?

David asks the Lord to consider his situation and be kind to him, making him strong.

Psalms 86:17 (#1)

What will happen when Yahweh shows David a sign of his favor?

Those who hate David will see Yahweh helping and comforting him and be put to shame.

Psalms 87:1 (#1)

Where did Yahweh establish his city?

He established it on the mountains that he made holy.

Psalms 87:2 (#1)

How much does Yahweh love the city of Zion?

He loves them more than all other places where Israelites live.

Psalms 87:3 (#1)

What things are said of the city of God?

People say wonderful and glorious things about this city that belongs to God.

Psalms 87:4 (#1)

In what other places does Yahweh mention there are people who know him?

He says he will mention people from Egypt, Babylon, Philistia, Tyre, and Cush among those who know him.

Psalms 87:5 (#1)

What will the Most High do for Zion?

God Most High himself will establish Zion and keep her strong.

Psalms 87:6 (#1)

What will Yahweh record as he registers the peoples?

He will record that each of those people was born in Zion.

Psalms 87:7 (#1)

What do the singers and musicians say?

They will celebrate and say that everything that makes them flourish comes from Zion.

Psalms 88:1 (#1)

When does the psalmist cry out to Yahweh, the God of his salvation?

The psalmist cries out continually to ask Yahweh to help him.

Psalms 88:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do for him?

He asks Yahweh to pay attention to his prayer as he cries out to him.

Psalms 88:3 (#1)

What is the psalmist experiencing?

He is experiencing so many bad things that he feels he is about to die.

Psalms 88:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist say others expect to happen to him?

People expect him to die soon because he has so little strength left.

Psalms 88:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the dead who lie in the grave?

He says that it seems as if Yahweh is no longer aware of people who have died and has stopped taking care of them.

Psalms 88:6 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe where he feels as if Yahweh has placed him?

He says it is as though Yahweh has thrown him to the bottom of a deep, dark pit.

Psalms 88:7 (#1)

What feels like an oppressive burden to the psalmist?

He feels that Yahweh is so angry with him that it feels as if he is drowning in Yahweh's anger.

Psalms 88:8 (#1)

Why do the psalmist's acquaintances avoid him?

Yahweh has made his illness so unpleasant that his friends stay away from him and he is not able to visit any of them.

Psalms 88:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about his eyes?

His eyes are swollen from crying out in prayer to Yahweh about his affliction.

Psalms 88:10 (#1)

What questions does the psalmist ask Yahweh about the dead?

He asks Yahweh if he will do a miracle to help him before he dies and is no longer able to praise Yahweh.

Psalms 88:11–12 (#1)

What does the psalmist remind Yahweh about dead people?

He reminds Yahweh that if he dies, he will no longer be able to talk about how kind and faithful Yahweh is or all the amazing things he does or how good he is.

Psalms 88:13 (#1)

When does the psalmist's prayer come before Yahweh?

His prayer comes before Yahweh in the morning as if it were already there waiting for Yahweh when he gets up.

Psalms 88:14 (#1)

What does the psalmist feel like Yahweh has done to him?

The psalmist feels like Yahweh has rejected him and is ignoring him.

Psalms 88:15 (#1)

How long has the psalmist been sick and on the verge of death?

Since he was young, the psalmist has been so ill that he has nearly died.

Psalms 88:16 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh's anger has done to him?

Because of Yahweh's anger, the terrible illness that he has permitted has destroyed the good life the psalmist could have had.

Psalms 88:17 (#1)

What have the bad things Yahweh has allowed in the psalmist's life done to him?

They are like floodwaters that continually surround the psalmist and are about to drown him.

Psalms 89:1 (#1)

Of what will the psalmist sing forever?

He will sing about how faithfully Yahweh has loved his people as he promised.

Psalms 89:1 (#2)

What will the psalmist make known to future generations?

He will tell future generations that Yahweh always does what he promises.

Psalms 89:2 (#1)

How has Yahweh's faithfulness been established?

The fact that Yahweh is faithful to his people is as permanent as the heavens.

Psalms 89:3 (#1)

With whom has a covenant been made?

Yahweh has made a covenant and a solemn promise with David, the man he chose to be king of Israel.

Psalms 89:4 (#1)

How long will David's descendants rule as kings?

Yahweh promised that David's descendants would always rule as kings.

Psalms 89:5 (#1)

What will the angels in heaven be praising Yahweh about?

The angels in heaven will praise Yahweh for the wonderful things he does and celebrate how he always does what he promises.

Psalms 89:7 (#1)

How do the council of holy ones treat God?

When the holy beings gather together, they all treat God with respect and honor.

Psalms 89:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh's faithfulness?

Yahweh is always faithful in every way.

Psalms 89:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh's rule of the sea?

He says that Yahweh calms the waves of the sea so it will not become too violent.

Psalms 89:10 (#1)

What did Yahweh use to scatter and defeat his enemies?

He used his great power.

Psalms 89:11 (#1)

What belongs to Yahweh who made the world and all it contains?

The heavens and the earth belong to Yahweh who created the world and everything in it.

Psalms 89:12 (#1)

What did Yahweh create?

Yahweh created the full extent of the world in every direction.

Psalms 89:13 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh using the images of his arm and hand?

Yahweh is very powerful and uses his power to do great things.

Psalms 89:14 (#1)

How does Yahweh rule?

Yahweh always does what is right and just and is faithful and true in everything he does.

Psalms 89:15–16 (#1)

What happens to the people who worship Yahweh?

They are have truly good lives in which they enjoy Yahweh's favor, and they rejoice in who Yahweh is and how he always does what is right.

Psalms 89:17 (#1)

What did Yahweh give the people because of his favor?

Because Yahweh was pleased with his people, made them strong and glorious and gave them a good king.

Psalms 89:18 (#1)

What does the psalmist say belongs to Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel?

The people's king is the one who protects them and he belongs to Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 89:19 (#1)

What did Yahweh say in a vision to his faithful ones?

He said that he had given strength to a mighty warrior from among the people and had chosen him to be their king.

Psalms 89:20–23 (#1)

What did Yahweh say he will do for his chosen king David?

He said he had anointed him, will support him, strengthen him, and defeat his enemies.

Psalms 89:24 (#1)

How does Yahweh promise he will treat David?

Yahweh will always be faithful to David and treat him kindly, and by Yahweh's authority, make him a great ruler.

Psalms 89:26 (#1)

What will David call out to Yahweh?

He will call out to Yahweh as his Father, his God, and the one who protects and saves him.

Psalms 89:27 (#1)

How will Yahweh treat David?

He will treat him as if he were his firstborn son and make him the greatest of all kings on the earth.

Psalms 89:28 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for David?

Yahweh will always love David faithfully always honor his covenant with him.

Psalms 89:29 (#1)

How long will David's descendants rule and his throne last?

His descendants will always rule as kings and his dynasty will last as long as the skies exist.

Psalms 89:30–32 (#1)

What will Yahweh do to David's descendants if they disobey Yahweh's rules?

Yahweh will punish them to correct them because of the wrong things they have done.

Psalms 89:33–34 (#1)

What promises does Yahweh make to David even if the people disobey his rules?

Yahweh promises not to stop faithfully loving David and doing what he promised for his descendants. He will not break his covenant or take back what he said.

Psalms 89:35–37 (#1)

By what does Yahweh swear once and for all that he will keep these promises to David?

Yahweh swears by his own holy character that he guarantees his promise to David.

Psalms 89:38 (#1)

What does the psalmist now say about how the anointed one is being treated by Yahweh?

The psalmist says that it appears that Yahweh has rejected the anointed king and has abandoned him.

Psalms 89:41 (#1)

What does the psalmist say is happening to the people of Israel as represented by their king?

Their city is being plundered by people who to steal from the city and the people of Israel are being ridiculed by the people around them.

Psalms 89:42 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh has done regarding the enemies of Israel?

Yahweh has allowed their enemies to become strong and celebrate how they have defeated the people of Israel.

Psalms 89:43 (#1)

What happened when the Israelites went into battle?

Their armies have had to retreat from battles because Yahweh had not helped them.

Psalms 89:44 (#1)

What has happened to the kingdom of Israel?

The kingdom is no longer glorious and they no longer have a king.

Psalms 89:45 (#1)

What has happened to Israel?

They are no longer a strong nation as they had been and are completely disgraced.

Psalms 89:46 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh and his anger?

He asks Yahweh to come to help them and not be angry with them any more.

Psalms 89:47 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to remember?

He asks Yahweh to remember how short life is and that he created all people as mere mortals.

Psalms 89:49 (#1)

What does the psalmist remind the Lord about his promises?

The psalmist reminds the Lord that he promised David that he would faithfully love his people.

Psalms 89:50–51 (#1)

What else does the psalmist ask the Lord to remember?

He asks the Lord to remember the insulting things people are saying about his people and how Yahweh's enemies have been mocking the actions of his anointed king.

Psalms 89:52 (#1)

How long does the psalmist say Yahweh will be blessed?

Yahweh will be blessed forever.

Psalms 90:1 (#1)

How long has the Lord been like a home for his people?

The Lord has been like a home for them throughout all generations.

Psalms 90:3 (#1)

To what does the Lord cause people to return when they die?

He causes people to return to dust.

Psalms 90:4 (#1)

What are a thousand years like in the sight of the Lord?

They are like one short day that passes, or like a few short hours in the night.

Psalms 90:5–6 (#1)

To what are the lifetimes of people compared?

They are like the grass that sprouts up in the morning and then withers and dries up in the evening.

Psalms 90:7–8 (#1)

Why does Moses say mankind is terrified by the Lord's wrath?

They are terrified because the Lord has seen their sins and is angry. It is as if even their secret sins are spread out where the Lord can see them.

Psalms 90:10 (#1)

What do people experience throughout their lives?

People experience much pain and trouble throughout the time they have to live.

Psalms 90:12 (#1)

What does Moses ask the Lord to teach mankind?

He asks the Lord to teach mankind to realize the short time they will live, so that they may live wisely.

Psalms 90:14 (#1)

With what does Moses want Yahweh to show mankind each morning?

He wants Yahweh to show mankind that it is enough for them if Yahweh loves them faithfully as he has promised that he would do, so that they may rejoice and be glad all their lives.

Psalms 90:16 (#1)

What does Moses want Yahweh to let his servants see?

He wants Yahweh to enable his servants to see the great things that he does, and their descendants to see his glorious power.

Psalms 90:17 (#1)

What does Moses ask the Lord to do for his people?

He asks the Lord to bless his people and to cause them to be successful in everything they do.

Psalms 91:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist say of Yahweh?

The psalmist says that Yahweh is his refuge and his fortress, his God, in whom he trusts.

Psalms 91:3–4 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for the one who trusts in him?

Yahweh will rescue him from hidden traps and from deadly diseases, and will protect him like a bird who covers her young under her wings.

Psalms 91:5–6 (#1)

Of what does the one who trusts in Yahweh need not be afraid?

The one who trusts in Yahweh need not be afraid of things that happen during the night that could terrorize you or of arrows that your enemies will shoot at you during the day, of the plague that infects people in the night or of other evil forces that kill people in the light of day.

Psalms 91:9 (#1)

What is Yahweh for the psalmist?

Yahweh is the refuge for the psalmist.

Psalms 91:10–11 (#1)

Why will evil not happen to the one who trusts in Yahweh?

Evil will not happen to the one who trusts in Yahweh because Yahweh will command his angels to protect him in all his ways.

Psalms 91:12 (#1)

How will the angels protect the one who trusts in Yahweh?

The angels will lift him up in their hands so he will not hurt his foot on a stone.

Psalms 91:14–16 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for the one who is devoted to him?

Yahweh will deliver and protect him, answer him when he calls, be with him in trouble, rescue and honor him, satisfy him with a long life, and show him Yahweh's salvation.

Psalms 92:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist consider to be a good thing?

It is a good thing to give thanks and sing praises to the name of Yahweh.

Psalms 92:2 (#1)

When does the psalmist say to proclaim Yahweh's covenant faithfulness and truthfulness?

He says to proclaim Yahweh's covenant faithfulness every morning and his truthfulness every night.

Psalms 92:4 (#1)

How has the psalmist responded to the great things Yahweh has done?

Yahweh's great deeds have made him glad so that he will sing for joy.

Psalms 92:5–6 (#1)

What kind of person does not know or understand the things Yahweh has done?

A foolish or stupid person does not know the things Yahweh has done.

Psalms 92:7 (#1)

What happens to the wicked who seem to thrive?

Yahweh will destroy all those who do evil.

Psalms 92:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist say will happen to Yahweh's enemies?

Yahweh's enemies will perish, and all those who do evil will be scattered.

Psalms 92:10 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh has done for him?

Yahweh has caused him to be strong and joyful.

Psalms 92:13 (#1)

Where are the righteous planted?

They are planted as securely as if they were trees with roots deep in Yahweh's temple grounds.

Psalms 92:14–15 (#1)

What shows that Yahweh is just?

The righteous remain strong and full of energy like trees that continue to bear fruit even when they are old.

Psalms 92:15 (#1)

Why is Yahweh the rock of the psalmist?

Yahweh is like a huge rock behind which the psalmist is safe and he never does anything that is unjust.

Psalms 93:1 (#1)

Who put the world in its place so that it cannot be moved?

Yahweh the King is the one who put the world firmly in place, and no one can move it.

Psalms 93:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh's throne?

Yahweh has been king since long ago, and has always existed.

Psalms 93:3 (#1)

How have the oceans lifted up their voice?

The oceans rise and their waves pound against the shore with a roar that is like a powerful voice.

Psalms 93:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh in relation to the mighty waters?

Yahweh is more powerful than the mighty breakers of the sea.

Psalms 93:5 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe Yahweh's decrees and holiness?

The psalmist says that Yahweh's decrees are completely reliable and his temple is a holy place.

Psalms 94:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist call Yahweh in this psalm?

The psalmist calls Yahweh the God of vengeance.

Psalms 94:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh, the judge of the earth, to do to proud people?

The psalmist asks Yahweh to give the proud people what they deserve.

Psalms 94:3 (#1)

What are the wicked people doing that the psalmist says is not right?

The wicked people just continue to be glad and rejoice.

Psalms 94:4 (#1)

What do all the wicked people say?

All those who do evil things praise themselves arrogantly.

Psalms 94:5 (#1)

What do the wicked do to Yahweh's people?

It is as though those wicked people were crushing Yahweh's people.

Psalms 94:6 (#1)

Who do the wicked murder?

The wicked murder widows, foreigners, and orphans.

Psalms 94:7 (#1)

What do the wicked say about Yahweh?

The wicked say that Yahweh does not see the evil things they are doing.

Psalms 94:9 (#1)

What argument does the psalmist use to show that Yahweh can hear and see?

The psalmist says that the one who made ears can of course hear and the one who created eyes can of course see the evil things they are doing.

Psalms 94:11 (#1)

What does Yahweh know the people's thoughts?

Yahweh knows everything that people are thinking and that it is evil and useless.

Psalms 94:12 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about those whom Yahweh instructs?

The psalmist says those whom Yahweh teaches from his law are truly fortunate.

Psalms 94:12–13 (#1)

What does Yahweh give the man he instructs during days of evil?

Yahweh relieves him from bad things when they happen and punishes the wicked who do them.

Psalms 94:14 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh will not do to his people?

Yahweh will not forsake his people or desert those who belong to him.

Psalms 94:15 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the return of judgment?

The psalmist says that someday judges will again decide matters fairly for people, and all honest people will be pleased about that.

Psalms 94:16 (#1)

Who does the psalmist say will stand up for him against evildoers?

The psalmist says that no one will defend him against the wicked things people did to him.

Psalms 94:17 (#1)

What does the psalmist say would have happened without Yahweh's help?

Without Yahweh's help, the psalmist would have quickly died.

Psalms 94:18 (#1)

What did Yahweh do when the psalmist thought he was about to die?

Yahweh saved him by being faithful and loving to him.

Psalms 94:19 (#1)

What does Yahweh do when the psalmist has many worries?

Yahweh comforts him and causes him to be happy when he is worried.

Psalms 94:20–21 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about rulers who establish laws that create injustice?

Such rulers cannot be Yahweh's friends as they conspire how to destroy righteous people, and condemn innocent people.

Psalms 94:22 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh has been to him?

Yahweh has been like a fortress of protection to the psalmist.

Psalms 94:23 (#1)

What will Yahweh do to the wicked in the end?

Yahweh will do to those wicked leaders the terrible things that they have done to others and destroy them in their wickedness.

Psalms 95:1–2 (#1)

How does the psalmist encourage everyone to come into Yahweh's presence?

The psalmist encourages everyone to enter Yahweh's presence singing joyfully with thanksgiving.

Psalms 95:3 (#1)

How does Yahweh compare to other gods?

Yahweh is a great God who rules as king over all other gods.

Psalms 95:4–5 (#1)

How is Yahweh above all other gods?

Yahweh controls the whole earth and because he made it all, it all belongs to him.

Psalms 95:6–7 (#1)

Why should everyone worship Yahweh?

Everyone should worship Yahweh, their maker, because he is their God and they are the people whom he protects, like sheep that a shepherd takes care of.

Psalms 95:9 (#1)

How did the ancestors of Israel respond to Yahweh?

They tested whether Yahweh would continue to be patient with them, even though they had seen him perform miracles.

Psalms 95:10 (#1)

How did Yahweh describe the people who disobeyed him?

Yahweh said that those people are unreliable and completely refuse to obey his commands.

Psalms 95:11 (#1)

What did Yahweh vow in his anger?

Yahweh vowed in his anger that the people who disobeyed him would never enter into the land where Yahweh would have given them rest.

Psalms 96:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist call on all the people on earth to do?

The psalmist calls on all the earth to sing a new song to Yahweh.

Psalms 96:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist encourage everyone to announce?

The psalmist encourages everyone to announce that Yahweh has saved them.

Psalms 96:3–4 (#1)

Why should everyone tell of Yahweh's glory and his marvelous things he has done?

Everyone should tell of how glorious Yahweh is and all he has done because Yahweh is great, and deserves to be praised and be revered more than all other gods.

Psalms 96:5 (#1)

What contrast does the psalmist draw between the gods of other peoples and Yahweh?

The gods of other peoples are only idols, but it is Yahweh who made the heavens.

Psalms 96:6 (#1)

What qualities does the psalmist say Yahweh has?

Yahweh is magnificent, majestic, strong, and beautiful.

Psalms 96:8 (#1)

What should everyone do to give to Yahweh the glory he deserves?

Everyone should praise Yahweh, bring an offering, and come to his temple.

Psalms 96:10 (#1)

What does the psalmist encourage everyone to say to all people groups?

The psalmist encourages everyone to tell all people that Yahweh reigns.

Psalms 96:10 (#2)

How does Yahweh judge the peoples?

Yahweh judges the peoples fairly.

Psalms 96:11–13 (#1)

Why should the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice?

The heavens should be glad and the earth rejoice because Yahweh is coming.

Psalms 96:13 (#1)

What will Yahweh do when he comes?

When Yahweh comes, he will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with his faithfulness.

Psalms 97:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist declare about Yahweh?

The psalmist declares that Yahweh reigns and calls for everyone on earth to rejoice and be glad.

Psalms 97:2 (#1)

What is the foundation of Yahweh's throne?

The foundation of Yahweh's throne is righteousness and justice.

Psalms 97:3 (#1)

What is the result of the fire that goes before Yahweh?

The fire that goes before Yahweh burns all of his enemies.

Psalms 97:4 (#1)

What happens in Yahweh's presence?

Yahweh's lightning lights up the world, people on the earth see it, and it causes them to be afraid.

Psalms 97:6 (#1)

What declares Yahweh's righteousness and glory?

Everything that people can see in the heavens makes it clear that he is righteous and all the people groups see how glorious he is.

Psalms 97:7 (#1)

Who will be shamed by Yahweh?

All those who worship carved images and are proud of their useless idols should be shamed by Yahweh.

Psalms 97:8 (#1)

Why did Zion hear and the daughters of Judah rejoice?

All the people of Jerusalem and all of Judah rejoiced because Yahweh judges people justly.

Psalms 97:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh?

The psalmist says that Yahweh is the supreme king who rules over all the earth and more powerful than all other spirit beings.

Psalms 97:10 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for his faithful?

Yahweh protects the lives of his faithful ones and rescues them from the wicked.

Psalms 97:11 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh provides for righteous people?

The psalmist says that good things happen for the righteous and they can rejoice.

Psalms 97:12 (#1)

What does the psalmist encourage the righteous to do?

The psalmist encourages the righteous to be glad in Yahweh and thank him, the one we all know to be holy.

Psalms 98:1 (#1)

Why is Yahweh able to save his people?

Yahweh has saved his people by being powerfully holy.

Psalms 98:2 (#1)

What has Yahweh openly shown to all the nations?

He has openly shown that he is righteous and that he saves his people.

Psalms 98:3 (#1)

Who will see the salvation of our God?

All the people of the earth will see that God saves his people.

Psalms 98:4 (#1)

What should be the response of everyone to Yahweh?

Everyone should shout for joy and make music, singing joyful praises to Yahweh.

Psalms 98:5–6 (#1)

What musical instruments does the psalmist say to use when praising Yahweh?

The psalmist says to use harps, trumpets, and the shofar when praising Yahweh.

Psalms 98:7–8 (#1)

How does the psalmist encourage Yahweh's creation to respond to his coming?

The psalmist says the sea, the rivers, the mountains, and everyone on the earth should praise Yahweh together.

Psalms 98:9 (#1)

How will Yahweh judge the world?

Yahweh will judge the people of the world justly and fairly.

Psalms 99:1 (#1)

How should the people respond to Yahweh's reign?

The people should tremble in response to Yahweh's reign.

Psalms 99:2 (#1)

How is Yahweh high above all the peoples?

Yahweh is the supreme ruler of all the peoples.

Psalms 99:3 (#1)

Why should everyone praise Yahweh?

Everyone should praise Yahweh because he is holy.

Psalms 99:4 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe the king?

The psalmist says the king is mighty because he is righteous and always acts justly toward the people of Israel.

Psalms 99:5 (#1)

How and why does the psalmist say that people should respond to Yahweh?

The psalmist says that people should praise Yahweh and bow down to worship him because he is holy.

Psalms 99:6 (#1)

Who were the men mentioned whom Yahweh answered when they cried out and prayed to him?

Some of those men who cried out to Yahweh and he helped them were Moses, Aaron, and Samuel.

Psalms 99:7 (#1)

How did Yahweh respond to the men who prayed to him for help?

Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron from the pillar of cloud and they obeyed all he told them.

Psalms 99:8 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for the men who prayed to him?

Yahweh helped them and forgave them even though he also punished them for the things they did wrong.

Psalms 99:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist encourage everyone to do?

The psalmist says to praise Yahweh and worship him at his temple because Yahweh is holy.

Psalms 100:1 (#1)

Who does the psalmist invite to shout joyfully to Yahweh?

He invites all the earth to shout joyfully to Yahweh.

Psalms 100:2 (#1)

How should people come into Yahweh's presence?

They should come before his presence with joyful singing.

Psalms 100:3 (#1)

What image does the psalmist use to show how people belong to Yahweh?

He says Yahweh made us and we are like sheep that he cares for as a shepherd does.

Psalms 100:4 (#1)

How should people enter into Yahweh's gates and courts?

They should enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise.

Psalms 100:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist say will last forever?

He says that Yahweh's covenant faithfulness and truthfulness will last to eternity.

Psalms 101:1 (#1)

Of what two qualities of Yahweh will David sing praises?

He will sing of covenant faithfulness and justice.

Psalms 101:3 (#1)

What will David not put before his eyes?

He will not tempt himself to do any bad thing.

Psalms 101:5 (#1)

Who will David destroy?

He will destroy whoever secretly slanders someone else.

Psalms 101:6 (#1)

What kind of people does David want to help him rule?

The faithful of the land and those who walk in the way of integrity may serve him.

Psalms 101:7 (#1)

Who will David not allow to work for him?

He will not allow a deceitful person to work for him.

Psalms 101:8 (#1)

How often does David say that he will destroy all the wicked of the land?

Every day he will work to keep those who are wicked from the city of Yahweh.

Psalms 102:2 (#1)

When distressing things happen, what does the psalmist ask Yahweh not to do?

When the psalmist calls out to Yahweh, he asks Yahweh to hear him and not to ignore him.

Psalms 102:4 (#1)

To what does the psalmist compare the way he feels?

The psalmist says he feels like grass that has withered.

Psalms 102:5 (#1)

What has happened due to the psalmist's distress?

The psalmist is so miserable that he groans and his bones protrude under his skin.

Psalms 102:8 (#1)

How do those who mock the psalmist use his name?

Those who mock the psalmist use his name when they curse people.

Psalms 102:10 (#1)

How does the psalmist say Yahweh has treated him in anger?

The psalmist says it feels as if Yahweh has lifted him up and thrown him down.

Psalms 102:12 (#1)

How long will Yahweh be remembered?

The psalmist says that people of all times will talk about Yahweh.

Psalms 102:14 (#1)

What do the servants of Yahweh cherish?

Yahweh's servants cherish even the stones and dust of Jerusalem.

Psalms 102:15 (#1)

Why will the kings of the earth show respect for Yahweh?

All the kings of the earth will recognize Yahweh's glory.

Psalms 102:17 (#1)

What does Yahweh do when the destitute pray?

Yahweh listens to the prayers of the destitute and does not ignore them.

Psalms 102:18 (#1)

How does the psalmist show how far into the future Yahweh's praise will continue?

He writes that people who are not even born yet will praise Yahweh.

Psalms 102:19 (#1)

What did Yahweh see from heaven?

From heaven Yahweh saw what was happening on the earth.

Psalms 102:22 (#1)

For what purpose are the peoples and kingdoms gathered together?

The peoples and kingdoms gather together to serve Yahweh.

Psalms 102:24 (#1)

What does the psalmist plead with God not to do?

The psalmist pleads with God not let him die too soon.

Psalms 102:25 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh did in long ago?

The psalmist says that long ago Yahweh made the earth and the heavens.

Psalms 102:27 (#1)

How long will Yahweh endure?

Yahweh will have no end.

Psalms 102:28 (#1)

Where does the psalmist say the descendants of Yahweh's servants will live?

The descendants of Yahweh's servants will live in his presence.

Psalms 103:2 (#1)

What does David not want to forget?

He does not want to forget all of the kind things Yahweh has done for him.

Psalms 103:4 (#1)

With what does David say Yahweh will bless him?

He blesses him with covenant faithfulness and acts of mercy.

Psalms 103:6 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for all who are oppressed?

Yahweh does acts of righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed.

Psalms 103:7 (#1)

What did Yahweh make known to the children of Israel?

He made known his deeds to the children of Israel.

Psalms 103:9 (#1)

What does David say that Yahweh will not always do?

David says Yahweh will not always rebuke, and will not remain angry forever.

Psalms 103:10 (#1)

What does David say about how Yahweh deals with people's sins?

Yahweh does not punish them for their sins as much as they deserve.

Psalms 103:13 (#1)

In what special way does Yahweh have compassion on those who fear him?

Yahweh has compassion on those who fear him in the same way as a father has compassion on his children.

Psalms 103:17 (#1)

How long does the covenant faithfulness of Yahweh last?

The covenant faithfulness of Yahweh is forever for those fearing him.

Psalms 103:19 (#1)

Where has Yahweh established his throne?

Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens.

Psalms 103:20 (#1)

Who are the ones who are called to bless Yahweh and obey his commands?

His angels, who are warriors of great strength, are called to bless Yahweh and obey his commands.

Psalms 103:21 (#1)

Who are those that David says do Yahweh's pleasure?

All of Yahweh's army of angels serve him and do what he desires.

Psalms 104:1 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe how great Yahweh is?

He says that Yahweh is clothed with splendor and majesty.

Psalms 104:2 (#1)

In what way does Yahweh spread out the heavens?

He spreads out the heavens as if it were his tent.

Psalms 104:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist say will never happen to the earth?

The earth that Yahweh created will never be moved.

Psalms 104:6–7 (#1)

What does the psalmist say made the waters recede?

Yahweh's rebuke made the waters recede.

Psalms 104:9 (#1)

Why will the waters not cover the earth again?

Yahweh set a boundary for them that they cannot cross.

Psalms 104:14 (#1)

How does Yahweh provide for both animals and people?

He makes grass for the cattle to eat and plants for people from which they can make food to eat.

Psalms 104:19 (#1)

What did Yahweh make the moon and the sun to mark?

He made the moon to indicate times for festivals and the sun to set each day.

Psalms 104:20–22 (#1)

What happens to the young lions?

The young lions prowl at night for food and when the sun rises, they retreat and lie down in their dens.

Psalms 104:25 (#1)

With what is the sea full?

The sea is full of many living creatures, both great and small.

Psalms 104:27 (#1)

To whom do all living creatures look to give them their food?

They all look to Yahweh to give them their food at the right time.

Psalms 104:29 (#1)

What happens to the creatures if Yahweh hides his face or takes away their breath?

When he hides his face, they have no food to eat and when he takes away their breath, they die.

Psalms 104:31 (#1)

What does the psalmist want Yahweh to do because of his creation?

The psalmist wants Yahweh to rejoice about everything that he has created.

Psalms 104:33 (#1)

What does the psalmist promise to sing?

He promises to sing praise to his God as long as he lives.

Psalms 104:35 (#1)

What does the psalmist hope will happen to sinners and the wicked on the earth?

He wants sinners to disappear from the earth and the wicked to be no more.

Psalms 105:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about what Yahweh has done?

The psalmist says that people should tell everyone about what Yahweh has done.

Psalms 105:3 (#1)

Who does the psalmist tell to rejoice?

The psalmist tells those who seek Yahweh to rejoice.

Psalms 105:4 (#1)

How often should people seek the presence of Yahweh?

The psalmist calls people to seek his presence continually.

Psalms 105:8 (#1)

For how long does the psalmist say Yahweh remembers his covenant?

The psalmist says Yahweh remembers his covenant forever.

Psalms 105:9 (#1)

What covenant does the psalmist say Yahweh calls to mind?

Yahweh calls to mind the covenant that he made with Abraham and his oath to Isaac.

Psalms 105:11 (#1)

What has Yahweh given as an inheritance to Israel?

Yahweh promised Israel that the land of Canaan will be what they and their descendants inherit from him.

Psalms 105:12 (#1)

When did Yahweh make the covenant with Israel?

The psalmist says that Yahweh made this covenant with Israel when they were only few in number and strangers in that land.

Psalms 105:14–15 (#1)

Whom did Yahweh tell kings not to touch?

Yahweh told them not to harm his chosen people or his prophets.

Psalms 105:17 (#1)

How did Yahweh send Joseph ahead of Israel?

He sent Joseph ahead of them by having him sold by his brothers as a slave.

Psalms 105:19 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for Joseph while he was in prison?

While he was in prison, Yahweh taught Joseph to trust him more.

Psalms 105:21 (#1)

What role did the king give Joseph?

The king appointed Joseph as lord of his house and ruler over all of his possessions.

Psalms 105:23 (#1)

Where did Jacob live when he came to Egypt?

Jacob lived for a time in the land of Ham.

Psalms 105:25 (#1)

Whom did Yahweh cause to hate his people?

Yahweh caused the rulers of Egypt to hate the people of Israel.

Psalms 105:27 (#1)

Where did Moses and Aaron perform Yahweh's signs?

Moses and Aaron performed Yahweh's signs among the Egyptians who lived in the land of Ham.

Psalms 105:29 (#1)

What did Yahweh do to the Egyptians' water and fish?

Yahweh turned the Egyptians' water into blood and killed their fish.

Psalms 105:32 (#1)

What did Yahweh send along with the hail in Egypt?

Along with the hail, Yahweh sent fire that burned throughout their land.

Psalms 105:36 (#1)

Who did Yahweh kill in Egypt?

Yahweh killed every firstborn son of the Egyptians.

Psalms 105:38 (#1)

Why were the people of Egypt glad when the Israelites went away?

The Egyptians were glad when the Israelites went away because they had become very afraid of the Israelites.

Psalms 105:40 (#1)

With what kind of food did Yahweh provide for the Israelites?

Yahweh satisfied them with quail to eat and bread from heaven.

Psalms 105:42 (#1)

Which holy promise did Yahweh remember?

Yahweh remembered his holy promise that he made to Abraham his servant.

Psalms 105:44 (#1)

What did Yahweh give his people?

He gave his people the land and planted fields of the people that lived there.

Psalms 106:1 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say people should give thanks?

The psalmist says to give thanks because Yahweh's covenant faithfulness lasts forever.

Psalms 106:3 (#1)

What will make a person happy?

The person who acts fairly and does what is right will be happy.

Psalms 106:5 (#1)

What will cause the psalmist to rejoice?

He will rejoice when he sees Yahweh's chosen people prosperous and happy again.

Psalms 106:7 (#1)

How did the ancestors of the psalmist respond to Yahweh's marvelous deeds?

His ancestors did not appreciate Yahweh's marvelous deeds and they forgot them and rebelled.

Psalms 106:8 (#1)

Why did Yahweh save the psalmist's ancestors?

He saved them because of who he is, so that he might show his power.

Psalms 106:11 (#1)

What happened to the adversaries of Israel?

The waters covered their adversaries; not one of them remained alive.

Psalms 106:14 (#1)

What did the people do when they had intense cravings in the wilderness?

They tested God by doing evil things.

Psalms 106:17 (#1)

What happened to Dathan and the people of Abiram?

The ground opened up and buried Dathan and the people of Abiram.

Psalms 106:20 (#1)

What did the people worship at Horeb?

They made a statue of a bull at Horeb and worshiped it instead of their God.

Psalms 106:23 (#1)

Why did God not annihilate the Israelites?

Moses persuaded God not to destroy them.

Psalms 106:26 (#1)

What did Yahweh swear he would do?

Yahweh swore to them that he would cause them to die in the desert.

Psalms 106:29 (#1)

What happened to the people of Israel when their actions made Yahweh angry?

A plague broke out among them.

Psalms 106:30 (#1)

What happened when Phinehas rose to intervene for the people?

When Phinehas intervened, the plague ended.

Psalms 106:32–33 (#1)

Why did Moses suffer?

Because the people made Moses angry, he spoke foolishly.

Psalms 106:34 (#1)

What did the people not do that Yahweh had told them to do?

The people of Israel did not destroy the other people groups as Yahweh had told them to.

Psalms 106:35–37 (#1)

What happened to the people when they mingled with the nations and worshiped their idols?

They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons that the idols represented.

Psalms 106:41 (#1)

What happened to Israel when they disobeyed Yahweh?

Yahweh allowed the other people groups to conquer Israel and rule over them.

Psalms 106:45 (#1)

Why did Yahweh relent and decide to stop punishing Israel?

He relented because of the covenant he had made with them to faithfully love them.

Psalms 106:47 (#1)

What reason does the psalmist state for Yahweh to bring Israel back from among the nations?

The psalmist declares that if Yahweh would bring Israel back, they would give thanks to his holy name and joyfully praise him.

Psalms 107:1 (#1)

How long does Yahweh's covenant faithfulness last?

He faithfully loves his people forever.

Psalms 107:2–3 (#1)

From where has Yahweh rescued his redeemed?

He rescued them from their enemies by bring them back from many foreign lands.

Psalms 107:6 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for his redeemed when they called out to him in their distress?

He rescued them from what was distressing them.

Psalms 107:8 (#1)

For what should people praise Yahweh?

They should praise him for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for all people.

Psalms 107:12 (#1)

How did Yahweh humble the people?

He let them experience difficult things so that they would no longer be proud.

Psalms 107:15–16 (#1)

What reason does the psalmist give the people for thanking Yahweh?

They should thank him because he has set them free as if from prison.

Psalms 107:17 (#1)

Why were the people afflicted?

They were afflicted because of their sins.

Psalms 107:22 (#1)

What kind of sacrifices should people offer to Yahweh?

They should offer sacrifices of thanksgiving.

Psalms 107:23–24 (#1)

What did the people see who traveled and did business on the sea in ships?

They saw the amazing creatures that Yahweh had made in the deep sea.

Psalms 107:27 (#1)

What happened to the sailors as the storm raged?

They staggered like drunken men and everything that they tried to do was useless.

Psalms 107:28–29 (#1)

What happened when the men called out to Yahweh in their distress?

He rescued them from what was distressing them and calmed the storm.

Psalms 107:32 (#1)

Where should people exalt and praise Yahweh?

They should praise him wherever all the people gather together with their leaders.

Psalms 107:34 (#1)

What did Yahweh do to a fruitful land because of the wickedness of the people?

He turned a fruitful land into a salty wasteland because of the wickedness of its people.

Psalms 107:37 (#1)

What did the people sow and plant?

They sowed fields and planted vineyards which produced a harvest.

Psalms 107:40 (#1)

What happened to the leaders who oppressed Yahweh's people?

He caused them to wander as if they were in a wilderness where there are no roads.

Psalms 107:42 (#1)

What happens when the people who live rightly see what Yahweh has done for them and rejoice?

The wicked people have nothing to say in reply.

Psalms 107:43 (#1)

Who does the psalmist call upon to ponder the ways Yahweh has shown that he loves them?

The psalmist calls upon whoever is wise to ponder the ways Yahweh has shown that he faithfully loves them as he promised.

Psalms 108:1 (#1)

With what does David say he will sing praises?

David says he will sing and make music with his whole being.

Psalms 108:4 (#1)

How does David describe how great is Yahweh's covenant faithfulness?

David says that Yahweh's covenant faithfulness is so great that it is like the distance between the heavens and the earth.

Psalms 108:5 (#1)

Where does David ask for God's glory to be exalted?

David asks that God's glory be exalted all over the earth.

Psalms 108:8 (#1)

What has God spoken about Ephraim and Judah?

God spoke of the tribe of Ephraim as his protection in battle and Judah is where his kings come from.

Psalms 108:9 (#1)

What does God say he will do over Philistia?

God says he will shout triumphantly because he has defeated the people of Philistia.

Psalms 108:12 (#1)

Whose help does David say is futile?

David asks for God's help because man's help is futile.

Psalms 108:13 (#1)

How does David describe his triumph with God's help?

David says that with God's help they will win, and God will enable them to defeat their enemies.

Psalms 109:2 (#1)

Who does David say speaks lies against him?

David says that wicked and deceitful people speak lies about him.

Psalms 109:4 (#1)

What do the wicked give in return for David's love?

David says that in return for his love, they accuse him of doing evil things.

Psalms 109:7 (#1)

What does David hope will happen when his enemy is judged?

David hopes that when his enemy is judged, he may be found guilty.

Psalms 109:10 (#1)

What is David's request for the children of his enemy?

David asks that his enemy's children would have to wander about and beg for food.

Psalms 109:11 (#1)

What does David hope will happen to his enemy's earnings?

David hopes that strangers will take what his enemy earns.

Psalms 109:12 (#1)

What does David hope regarding his enemy and his enemy's children?

David hopes that no one will show covenant faithfulness to his enemy and that no one will pity his enemy's fatherless children.

Psalms 109:15 (#1)

What is David's request from Yahweh concerning his enemy?

David asks that Yahweh will cause everyone on earth to completely forget who they were.

Psalms 109:16 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh to make sure no one remembers his enemy?

David asks this because his enemy persecuted poor, needy, and brokenhearted people until they died.

Psalms 109:17 (#1)

What does David say about his enemy's attitude toward cursing and blessing?

David says that because his enemy loved to curse others, now people are cursing him, and because his enemy did not bless others, there will be no one who blesses him.

Psalms 109:21 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do for him, and why?

David asks Yahweh to be kind to him for the sake of Yahweh's name and to rescue him because of the promise Yahweh made to faithfully love him.

Psalms 109:23 (#1)

To what does David compare his time left to remain alive?

David says that his life is fading away as quickly as a shadow that lengthens at evening or as a man shakes off a locust.

Psalms 109:25 (#1)

What do David's accusers do when they see him?

David says that when they see him, his accusers shake their heads to show that they despise him.

Psalms 109:26 (#1)

Why does David think Yahweh will save him?

David asks Yahweh to save him because Yahweh has faithfully loved him according to his covenant.

Psalms 109:26–27 (#1)

What does David say will be the result of Yahweh saving him?

When Yahweh saves him, his enemies will know that it was Yahweh who has done it.

Psalms 109:28 (#1)

What does David say will happen when his accusers curse him?

David says that when his accusers curse him, Yahweh will bless him and cause him to rejoice.

Psalms 109:31 (#1)

What does David say will happen when Yahweh defends the needy person?

Yahweh will save the needy person from those who condemn him.

Psalms 110:1 (#1)

Where does Yahweh ask David's lord to sit, and for how long?

Yahweh asks him to sit at his right hand until he defeats his enemies.

Psalms 110:2 (#1)

What does Yahweh extend from Zion?

Yahweh extends the kingdom from Zion for the king to rule over his enemies.

Psalms 110:3 (#1)

What do the people do on the day the king goes to battle?

They willingly offer themselves to serve him and show their devotion in holiness.

Psalms 110:4 (#1)

What did Yahweh promise that he will never change his mind about?

Yahweh promised that the king would be a priest forever, in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest.

Psalms 110:5 (#1)

What does the Lord do to other kings when he becomes angry?

The Lord crushes and defeats kings when he is angry.

Psalms 110:6 (#1)

What does the Lord do to the nations?

He punishes the people from other nations, causing many enemy soldiers to fall dead.

Psalms 110:7 (#1)

What does the king do after he drinks from the stream along the road?

He will be victorious.

Psalms 111:1 (#1)

When does the psalmist say he will give thanks to Yahweh?

He will give thanks to Yahweh whenever the upright gather to meet.

Psalms 111:3 (#1)

How long will Yahweh's righteousness stand?

His righteousness will last forever.

Psalms 111:5 (#1)

What does Yahweh always remember?

He always remembers his covenant.

Psalms 111:6 (#1)

How did Yahweh show his people how powerful he is?

He showed his people how powerful he is by enabling them to capture the lands of the nations around them.

Psalms 111:8 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe Yahweh's instructions?

Yahweh's instructions are meant to be kept forever since he created them in order to do what is best for us, and they are completely right.

Psalms 111:9 (#1)

How has Yahweh redeemed his people?

Yahweh rescued his people from being slaves in Egypt.

Psalms 111:10 (#1)

What is the beginning of wisdom?

Having a profound respect for Yahweh is the way to become wise.

Psalms 111:10 (#2)

What do those obeying Yahweh's instructions have?

Those who obey Yahweh's instructions have good understanding.

Psalms 112:1 (#1)

What kind of person does the psalmist say will be happy?

The person who respects Yahweh and happily obeys his commandments will be happy.

Psalms 112:2 (#1)

What happens to the descendants of the man who obeys Yahweh and who greatly delights in his commandments?

His descendants will prosper in their land and will be blessed.

Psalms 112:3 (#1)

What happens to the household of the man who obeys Yahweh?

His family will be wealthy.

Psalms 112:4 (#1)

For whom does the psalmist say light shines in the darkness?

Light shines in the darkness for those who are upright, gracious, compassionate, and just.

Psalms 112:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the person who is gracious and lends to others?

Such a person is good and conducts his affairs with honesty.

Psalms 112:7 (#1)

What does the righteous man do rather than fear bad news?

He does not fear, but he is confident, trusting in Yahweh.

Psalms 112:9 (#1)

What happens to the righteous person who generously gives to the poor?

People will greatly honor the righteous person who gives to the poor.

Psalms 112:10 (#1)

What happens to the wicked person who sees the righteous person being honored?

The wicked person will become angry sees the righteous person being honored.

Psalms 113:1 (#1)

Who does the psalmist call to praise Yahweh?

He calls the servants of Yahweh to praise him.

Psalms 113:2 (#1)

For how long should the name of Yahweh be praised?

His name should be praised both now and forevermore.

Psalms 113:3 (#1)

Who should praise Yahweh for who he is?

He should be praised by everyone everywhere.

Psalms 113:5 (#1)

According to the psalmist, who is like Yahweh our God?

There is no one who is like Yahweh.

Psalms 113:7–8 (#1)

How does Yahweh cause the poor and the needy person to be treated?

Yahweh causes people to honor him by making him a leader of his people.

Psalms 113:9 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for barren women?

He enables barren women to become joyful mothers of children.

Psalms 114:1 (#1)

What country did the people of Israel leave where people spoke a foreign language?

The people of Israel left Egypt.

Psalms 114:3 (#1)

What happened to the sea and the Jordan River when the Israelites came to them?

At both places, the water stopped flowing so the Israelites could cross.

Psalms 114:4 (#1)

What did the mountains and the hills do?

The mountains shook as if they were skipping like rams, and the hills jumped like lambs.

Psalms 114:7 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say the earth should tremble?

The earth should tremble because of the presence of God.

Psalms 114:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist say God did with the rock?

God caused springs to flow from the rock.

Psalms 115:1 (#1)

Who does the psalmist say should be given honor?

The psalmist says that only Yahweh deserves honor.

Psalms 115:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the nations' idols?

He says their idols are only handmade items made of silver and gold.

Psalms 115:5–6 (#1)

What are the idols not able to do?

They are not able to speak, see, hear, or smell.

Psalms 115:11 (#1)

Why should those who respect Yahweh trust in him?

They should trust in Yahweh because he is the one who helps and protects them.

Psalms 115:13 (#1)

Whom does the psalmist say Yahweh will bless?

Yahweh will bless all those who respect him, whether they are considered important or not.

Psalms 115:16 (#1)

To whom do the heavens and earth belong?

The heavens belong to Yahweh, but the earth he has given to mankind.

Psalms 115:17–18 (#1)

Who does the psalmist say should praise Yahweh?

Since the dead are no longer able to praise Yahweh, those who are alive will praise him as long as they live.

Psalms 116:1 (#1)

For what reason does the psalmist say he loves Yahweh?

He loves Yahweh because Yahweh hears him when he cries out to him for help.

Psalms 116:3 (#1)

Why did the psalmist say he felt like he was tied up with cords of death?

He was so distressed and full of sorrow that he felt as if he were about to die.

Psalms 116:6 (#1)

Who does Yahweh guard?

Yahweh guards and protects those who are helpless.

Psalms 116:8 (#1)

In what ways did Yahweh rescue the psalmist?

Yahweh saved the psalmist from dying, from being sorrowful, and from making bad mistakes.

Psalms 116:8–9 (#1)

What does the psalmist say he will do because Yahweh rescued him?

Because Yahweh rescued him, he will live as Yahweh directs him as long he is alive.

Psalms 116:10 (#1)

What did the psalmist do even when he was suffering?

He continued to trust in Yahweh even when he was suffering.

Psalms 116:12 (#1)

What did the psalmist say he could never repay Yahweh for?

The psalmist felt he could never repay Yahweh for all the good things he had done for him.

Psalms 116:14 (#1)

Where does the psalmist say he will fulfill his vows to Yahweh?

He will fulfill his vows in the presence of all his people.

Psalms 116:15 (#1)

What is precious in the eyes of Yahweh?

It is precious to Yahweh when any of his faithful people die.

Psalms 116:16–17 (#1)

What does the psalmist say he will offer to Yahweh for taking away his bonds?

He says he will pray to Yahweh and offer to him a sacrifice to thank him.

Psalms 116:18–19 (#1)

Where will the psalmist present his offerings to Yahweh?

He will present them in the courtyard outside his temple in Jerusalem in the presence of all the people.

Psalms 117:1 (#1)

Who does this psalmist call upon to praise Yahweh?

He calls upon all the people of every nation to praise Yahweh.

Psalms 117:2 (#1)

What reasons does the psalmist give for the people to praise Yahweh?

Because Yahweh is fully committed to love them faithfully, just as he promised to do, and he can be trusted to be faithful forever.

Psalms 118:1 (#1)

What are the two reasons the psalmist gives for thanking Yahweh?

People should thank Yahweh because he is good and because his faithful love will last forever.

Psalms 118:5 (#1)

How did Yahweh respond when the psalmist called out to him?

Yahweh answered him and set him free.

Psalms 118:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist say it is better to do than to trust in other people?

It is better to rely on Yahweh than to trust in people.

Psalms 118:12 (#1)

What does the psalmist compare his enemies to when they surrounded him?

He compares them to angry bees that swarmed around him.

Psalms 118:15 (#1)

What does the psalmist say is heard from the people who honor God?

Those who honor God shout out joyful songs of celebration because Yahweh has powerfully defeated their enemies.

Psalms 118:18 (#1)

What has Yahweh not done even though the psalmist feels that Yahweh has punished him severely?

Yahweh has not allowed him to die.

Psalms 118:19 (#1)

What does the psalmist say he will do when the gates are opened through which those who obey Yahweh may enter?

He will enter through the gates and give thanks to Yahweh.

Psalms 118:22 (#1)

What has happened to the stone that the builders rejected?

The stone that the builders rejected has become the most important stone in the building.

Psalms 118:24 (#1)

What does the psalmist say they should do on the day that Yahweh has made?

They should rejoice and be glad in it.

Psalms 118:27 (#1)

What does the psalmist say the people should do with the sacrifice?

They should tie the sacrifice to the horns of the altar.

Psalms 118:28 (#1)

What does the psalmist say he will do for Yahweh, his God?

He will give thanks to Yahweh and tell everyone how great he is.

Psalms 119:2 (#1)

How does the psalmist describe people who do what Yahweh tells them to do?

Those are the people who sincerely want to know him.

Psalms 119:5–6 (#1)

What does the psalmist say would keep him from being ashamed?

If he could obey everything that Yahweh commands, he would not have shame when he looks at all Yahweh's commandments.

Psalms 119:7 (#1)

When does the psalmist give thanks to Yahweh?

He gives thanks when he learns all of Yahweh's just regulations.

Psalms 119:9 (#1)

How can a young person be sure to live in the right way?

A young person can be sure to live in the right way by obeying Yahweh's word.

Psalms 119:11 (#1)

What does the psalmist do in order to not sin again Yahweh?

He memorized Yahweh's commands so that he might not sin against him.

Psalms 119:14 (#1)

In what does the psalmist rejoice more than in all riches?

He rejoices in obeying Yahweh's instructions more than in all riches.

Psalms 119:15 (#1)

What will the psalmist do with Yahweh's precepts?

He will meditate on Yahweh's precepts and study the way of living that Yahweh has taught him.

Psalms 119:18 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do so that he can see the marvelous things in Yahweh's teaching?

He asks Yahweh to help him to understand Yahweh's instructions.

Psalms 119:20 (#1)

How does the psalmist feel as he longs for Yahweh's instructions?

He feels weak with longing for Yahweh's instructions.

Psalms 119:21 (#1)

Who does the psalmist Yahweh rebukes when he disobeys Yahweh's commandments?

The proud are rebuked when they disobey Yahweh's commandments.

Psalms 119:23 (#1)

What does the psalmist do even though rulers sit and plan ways to harm him?

He meditates on what Yahweh has commanded him.

Psalms 119:25 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do according to Yahweh's word?

He asks Yahweh to allow him to live as he has promised.

Psalms 119:27 (#1)

Why does the psalmist ask Yahweh to help him understand the way of Yahweh's precepts?

He wants to understand the way of Yahweh's precepts so he can meditate on how amazing Yahweh's instructions are.

Psalms 119:29 (#1)

From what does the psalmist ask Yahweh to prevent him?

He asks Yahweh to prevent him from telling lies.

Psalms 119:36 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to cause him to do?

He asks Yahweh to cause him to want to do what Yahweh says rather than to want to get things that belong to other people.

Psalms 119:37 (#1)

From what does the psalmist ask Yahweh to not allow him to do?

He asks Yahweh to not allow him to desire things that are not good for him.

Psalms 119:43 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to allow him to do?

He asks Yahweh to allow him to truthfully tell others how Yahweh saved him.

Psalms 119:45 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say that he will walk about freely?

He will walk about freely and safely because he always tries to obey Yahweh's regulations.

Psalms 119:47 (#1)

What does the psalmist say he delights in and loves?

He delights in and loves Yahweh's commandments.

Psalms 119:49 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to remember?

He asks Yahweh to remember to do what he said he would do for him, by which Yahweh gave him hope.

Psalms 119:51 (#1)

Even though the proud have scoffed at him, what has the psalmist not done?

The psalmist has not stopped obeying Yahweh's teaching.

Psalms 119:54 (#1)

What does psalmist say Yahweh's statutes are like to him?

Yahweh's statutes are like music to the psalmist.

Psalms 119:58 (#1)

How did the psalmist entreat Yahweh to be merciful to him?

He earnestly pleaded with Yahweh to be merciful to him as he promised that he would do.

Psalms 119:61 (#1)

What has the psalmist not forgotten when the wicked try to ensnared him into doing wrong?

He has not forgotten Yahweh's teaching.

Psalms 119:63 (#1)

What kind of people is the psalmist a friend to?

He is a friend of all who revere Yahweh and obey what he tells them to do.

Psalms 119:66 (#1)

Why does the psalmist ask Yahweh to teach him good discernment and understanding?

He asks because he trusts in Yahweh's commandments.

Psalms 119:69 (#1)

What did the psalmist do when the arrogant lied about him?

He obeyed what Yahweh had told him to do.

Psalms 119:71 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say that it is good that he has suffered?

It was good for him to suffer so that he would learn Yahweh's statutes.

Psalms 119:72 (#1)

The psalmist says the teaching of Yahweh is more beneficial for him than what?

The teaching of Yahweh's mouth is more beneficial for him than many riches.

Psalms 119:74 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say that those who revere Yahweh will rejoice when they see what Yahweh has done for him?

Then they will be glad, because they will see how good it is that the psalmist has trusted Yahweh to do what he said.

Psalms 119:75 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say that Yahweh has made him suffer?

Yahweh has made the psalmist suffer only because he faithfully loves him.

Psalms 119:76 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh's faithful love will do for him?

The psalmist says that Yahweh's faithful love would comfort him.

Psalms 119:80 (#1)

What does the psalmist say will keep him from being ashamed?

The psalmist says that he will not be ashamed if he obeys Yahweh's regulations.

Psalms 119:82 (#1)

What is the psalmist tired of waiting for?

He is tired of waiting for Yahweh to help him as he promised to do.

Psalms 119:86 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh's commandments?

He says all of Yahweh's commandments are true.

Psalms 119:88 (#1)

Why does the psalmist ask Yahweh to keep him alive?

He asks Yahweh to keep him alive so that he may continue to obey what Yahweh has instructed.

Psalms 119:90 (#1)

How long does Yahweh's faithfulness last?

Yahweh's faithfulness lasts through every generation.

Psalms 119:93 (#1)

Why will the psalmist be preserved alive?

He will be able to live because he obeyed what Yahweh had declared for him to do.

Psalms 119:96 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh's commandment compared to all that people can achieve?

He says there is a limit to what people can achieve, but Yahweh's commandments are limitless.

Psalms 119:99 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say he has more insight than all his teachers?

He has more insight than all his teachers because he continually thinks about what Yahweh tells him.

Psalms 119:103 (#1)

The psalmist says Yahweh's word is sweeter than what?

Reading Yahweh's word is like eating something sweeter than honey.

Psalms 119:104 (#1)

What does the psalmist hate because he understands what Yahweh has declared he should do?

The psalmist hates all evil activities because he understands what Yahweh has declared he should do.

Psalms 119:106 (#1)

What has the psalmist sworn and promised that he will do?

He has solemnly promised that he will always obey Yahweh's regulations.

Psalms 119:111 (#1)

What does the psalmist say will make him joyful?

Knowing that Yahweh has given him instructions and that they are his forever.

Psalms 119:114 (#1)

Since Yahweh is his hiding place and his shield, what is the psalmist waiting for?

The psalmist is waiting for Yahweh to answer his prayer.

Psalms 119:118 (#1)

Why does Yahweh reject all those who disregard his statutes?

He rejects all those who disobey his statutes, for they deceive others by lying.

Psalms 119:120 (#1)

Why does the psalmist tremble?

His trembles because he fears Yahweh's punishment for those who do not obey his rules.

Psalms 119:123 (#1)

What is the psalmist tired of waiting for?

He is tired of watching and waiting for Yahweh's salvation which he has promised.

Psalms 119:125 (#1)

Why does the psalmist ask Yahweh for understanding?

He asks for understanding so that he can learn what Yahweh has instructed him to do.

Psalms 119:128 (#1)

What does the psalmist hate?

He hates all of the evil things that people do.

Psalms 119:130 (#1)

To what does the psalmist compare understanding Yahweh's words?

When someone explains Yahweh's words, it is as though he is opening a door to a bright light that allows people to see what they did not see before.

Psalms 119:132 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do?

He asks Yahweh to turn to him and be gracious to him.

Psalms 119:134 (#1)

Why does the psalmist ask Yahweh to rescue him from the people who oppress him?

He asks Yahweh to rescue him so that he may obey Yahweh's instructions.

Psalms 119:136 (#1)

Why is the psalmist sad?

He is crying because people do not keep Yahweh's law.

Psalms 119:137 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh and his rules?

Yahweh is righteous and his rules are just.

Psalms 119:140 (#1)

What does the psalmist say he, Yahweh's servant, loves?

He loves all the perfectly dependable things that Yahweh has said.

Psalms 119:141 (#1)

What does the psalmist not do despite the fact that he is small and despised?

He does not forget Yahweh's precepts.

Psalms 119:143 (#1)

How does the psalmist feel about Yahweh's commandments, even when he is stressed and anxious?

Yahweh's commandments are still his delight.

Psalms 119:146 (#1)

What will the psalmist do if Yahweh saves him when he calls out?

He will keep Yahweh's instructions.

Psalms 119:152 (#1)

What did the psalmist learn long ago from Yahweh's commandments?

He learned that Yahweh established his commandments to last forever.

Psalms 119:153 (#1)

Why does the psalmist ask Yahweh to see his affliction and rescue him?

He asks Yahweh to rescue him because he has not forgotten Yahweh's law.

Psalms 119:155 (#1)

What happens to the wicked because they do not obey what Yahweh has said?

Yahweh will not save them, for they have not obeyed him.

Psalms 119:158 (#1)

Why does the psalmist view the treacherous with disgust?

He views the treacherous with disgust because they have not obeyed Yahweh's instructions.

Psalms 119:160 (#1)

How long does every c of Yahweh's righteousness last?

Every judgement Yahweh has made is right and will last forever.

Psalms 119:161 (#1)

How does the psalmist respond when rulers pursue him without cause?

He still deeply respects Yahweh's words.

Psalms 119:164 (#1)

How often does the psalmist praise Yahweh?

He praises Yahweh throughout the day.

Psalms 119:168 (#1)

Why does the psalmist obey Yahweh's instructions?

He obeys Yahweh's instructions because Yahweh knows everything that he does.

Psalms 119:170 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do when he prays for his help?

He asks Yahweh to rescue him as he said he would do.

Psalms 119:172 (#1)

Why does the psalmist want to sing about Yahweh's word?

He wants to sing about Yahweh's word because all of his commandments are right.

Psalms 119:176 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to do when the psalmist has strayed like a sheep who has left its flock?

He asks Yahweh to search for him, because he has not forgotten Yahweh's commandments.

Psalms 120:1 (#1)

What did Yahweh do when the psalmist called out in distress?

The psalmist says that Yahweh answered him.

Psalms 120:2 (#1)

Who does the psalmist ask Yahweh to rescue him from?

The psalmist asks Yahweh to rescue him from those who tell lies and try to deceive.

Psalms 120:3–4 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh will do to people who lie and deceive?

Yahweh will punish them as with a warrior's sharp arrows and with burning coals.

Psalms 120:6–7 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about peace?

The psalmist says that he has lived for too long with those who hate peace and he is for peace.

Psalms 121:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist look up toward?

The psalmist looks up to the mountains.

Psalms 121:2 (#1)

From whom does the psalmist say his help comes?

The psalmist says his help comes from Yahweh.

Psalms 121:3 (#1)

How will Yahweh help the people of Israel?

Yahweh will not allow them to slip and will protect them.

Psalms 121:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist say the protector of Israel never does?

The one who protects the people of Israel never sleeps.

Psalms 121:5 (#1)

Who is watching over Israel?

Yahweh is watching over Israel and protects them like a shade from the sun.

Psalms 121:6 (#1)

What will not harm Israel?

The sun will not harm them by day nor the moon by night.

Psalms 121:7–8 (#1)

Who will protect Israel and keep them safe?

Yahweh will protect them in all they do.

Psalms 122:1 (#1)

What made David rejoice?

He rejoiced when people invited him to go to the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem.

Psalms 122:2 (#1)

Where are the people standing?

They are standing inside the gates of Jerusalem.

Psalms 122:3 (#1)

How was Jerusalem built?

Jerusalem was built in a way that everything fits closely together.

Psalms 122:4 (#1)

Why do the tribes of Israel go up to Jerusalem?

The tribes go up to Jerusalem to give thanks to Yahweh as he told them to do.

Psalms 122:5 (#1)

What purpose do the thrones in Jerusalem serve?

The kings who are descendants of King David sit on their thrones there and judge the people.

Psalms 122:6 (#1)

What are the people to pray concerning Jerusalem?

They are to pray that those who love Jerusalem will have peace and will prosper.

Psalms 122:7 (#1)

What does David ask for concerning Jerusalem?

He asks that those living within the city walls will have peace and prosperity.

Psalms 122:8 (#1)

For whose sake does David pray for peace in Jerusalem?

He prays for peace for the sake of his fellow Israelites.

Psalms 122:9 (#1)

Why does David seek good for Jerusalem?

He intends to always do what is best for Jerusalem because Yahweh has his temple there.

Psalms 123:1 (#1)

To whom does the psalmist look up toward?

The psalmist looks up toward Yahweh, the one who lives in heaven.

Psalms 123:2 (#1)

To what does the psalmist compare the way the people look to Yahweh their God?

They look to Yahweh like servants watch and wait for their master to provide for them.

Psalms 123:3 (#1)

Why do the people ask Yahweh to have mercy on them?

Because people have despised them so much that they cannot endure any more.

Psalms 124:2–3 (#1)

What would have happened if Yahweh had not been on the side of Israel when their enemies attacked them?

If Yahweh had not been helping the people of Israel, the enemies who attacked them would have destroyed them.

Psalms 124:4–5 (#1)

To what does David compare what their enemies would have done to Israel?

Their enemies' attack would have overwhelmed them like raging waters that would have drowned them.

Psalms 124:6 (#1)

What did the people do after Yahweh did not let their enemies destroy them?

The people praised Yahweh.

Psalms 124:7 (#1)

What is the escape of the Israelites like?

Their escape is like a bird that escaped from the snare of the trappers.

Psalms 124:8 (#1)

From where does David say the Israelites' help comes?

Their help comes from Yahweh who made heaven and earth.

Psalms 125:1 (#1)

What are those who trust in Yahweh like?

They are as secure as Mount Zion, unshakable and standing firm forever.

Psalms 125:2 (#1)

To what does the psalmist compare the way that Yahweh protects his people?

The psalmist compares the way Yahweh protects his people to the way the mountains surrounding Jerusalem protect the city.

Psalms 125:3 (#1)

Who must not rule over the land that God gave to righteous people?

Wicked people must not rule or the righteous people will start doing what is wrong.

Psalms 125:4 (#1)

To whom does the psalmist request that Yahweh do good?

He requests that Yahweh do good to people who do good things for others and thus obey him sincerely.

Psalms 125:5 (#2)

What does the psalmist want Yahweh to give Israel?

The psalmist wants Yahweh to bless the people of Israel with peace.

Psalms 125:5 (#1)

What will happen to those who choose to do evil things?

Yahweh will send them away along with everyone else who does evil things.

Psalms 126:1 (#1)

What did it seem like when Yahweh brought the people back to Zion after the captivity?

It seemed like they were dreaming.

Psalms 126:2 (#1)

What was the peoples' response when Yahweh returned them to Zion after the captivity?

They laughed and shouted joyfully.

Psalms 126:4 (#1)

To what does the psalmist compare the way Yahweh restored them to their land after the captivity?

The psalmist compares Yahweh restoring them after their enemies captured them to the way he makes the water flow again in the streams in the Negev desert after being dry.

Psalms 126:5 (#1)

What will happen to those who sow while crying?

They will shout joyfully when they gather the harvest.

Psalms 126:6 (#1)

What will happen to the person who goes out weeping and carrying seed for sowing?

He will return with shouts of joy, bringing his bundles of grain with him.

Psalms 127:1 (#1)

What happens if Yahweh does not approve of building a house and does not watch over a city?

If Yahweh does not approve of building a house, those who build it labor uselessly, and if Yahweh does not watch over a city, it is useless for the watchman to stay awake to guard it.

Psalms 127:2 (#1)

What does Yahweh give to those whom he loves?

Yahweh gives sleep to those whom he loves.

Psalms 127:3 (#1)

What are an inheritance and a reward from Yahweh?

Children are an inheritance and a gift from Yahweh.

Psalms 127:4 (#1)

To what are sons one has when he is young compared to?

Those sons will be as useful for him as arrows in the hand of a warrior.

Psalms 127:5 (#1)

Why will the man who has many children not be defeated?

When he argues with an opponent at the place where people settle disputes, the opponent will not defeat him.

Psalms 128:1 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the person who reveres Yahweh and does what he tells them to do?

That person will have a good life.

Psalms 128:2 (#1)

What does the psalmist say will happen to the person who works hard?

That person will enjoy eating the food that he has worked hard for, and it will make him healthy.

Psalms 128:3 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the wife of the person who reveres Yahweh and works hard?

She will have many children who will grow strong and fill the room around their table.

Psalms 128:4 (#1)

What will happen to the person who reveres Yahweh?

Every person who reveres Yahweh will be blessed.

Psalms 128:5–6 (#1)

What does the psalmist pray that Yahweh will do for the person who reveres him?

The psalmist prays that Yahweh will bless him so that he may see the people of Jerusalem prosper, and live long enough to see his grandchildren.

Psalms 129:1–2 (#1)

How long has Israel been oppressed but not defeated?

Israel has been oppressed but not defeated since it became a nation.

Psalms 129:3 (#1)

To what does the psalmist compare the way Israel was oppressed?

Their oppression was as severe as if the enemies were plowing across their back, making long wounds like furrows in a field.

Psalms 129:4 (#1)

What has Yahweh done for Israel?

Yahweh no longer allows wicked people to control Israel.

Psalms 129:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist want to happen to those who hate Zion?

He wants for those who hate the people of Zion to all be ashamed and go away.

Psalms 129:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist not want people to say about those who hate Zion?

He does not want them to call down the blessing of Yahweh on those people or to bless them in the name of Yahweh.

Psalms 130:1–2 (#1)

What does the psalmist cry out to Yahweh?

The psalmist calls out to Yahweh to listen as he calls out to Yahweh for mercy.

Psalms 130:4 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say Yahweh should be revered?

Yahweh should be revered because there is forgiveness with him.

Psalms 130:5 (#1)

For whom does the psalmist wait and hope?

He waits for Yahweh and hopes because Yahweh has said that he would help him.

Psalms 130:7–8 (#1)

Why does the psalmist tell Israel to hope in Yahweh?

The people of Israel can trust Yahweh to help them because he faithfully loves them, wants to save them, and does not punish them for all the sins they have committed.

Psalms 131:1 (#1)

What does David say he is not?

David says he is not a proud or haughty person.

Psalms 131:2 (#1)

To what does David compare his soul?

His inner being is peaceful and quieted like a contented child.

Psalms 131:3 (#1)

When does David tell Israel to hope in Yahweh?

He tells them to hope in Yahweh now and forever.

Psalms 132:1–2 (#1)

What did the psalmist ask Yahweh to remember?

He asked Yahweh to remember David's suffering and how David made a solemn promise to the Yahweh, the Mighty One who Jacob worshiped.

Psalms 132:3–5 (#1)

David vowed that he would not enter his house or sleep until he did what?

He said he would not rest until he built a home for Yahweh.

Psalms 132:7 (#1)

Where will the people go and what will they do when they get there?

They will go to the place where Yahweh lives and worship.

Psalms 132:9 (#1)

What does the psalmist want the priests and the people to do?

The psalmist wants the priests to always do what is right and the people who are faithful to Yahweh to shout joyfully.

Psalms 132:10 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh not to do, for the sake of David?

The psalmist asks Yahweh not to reject David, the king whom he has chosen.

Psalms 132:11 (#1)

What is the oath Yahweh swore to David?

Yahweh promised that one of David's own descendants would sit on his throne as king.

Psalms 132:13–14 (#1)

What does Yahweh declare about Zion?

Yahweh chose Zion as his dwelling place and declares that he will stay there forever.

Psalms 132:15 (#1)

What will Yahweh do for the people of Zion?

Yahweh will provide everything that the people of Zion need, so that even the poor who live there will have enough food to satisfy them.

Psalms 132:18 (#1)

What does Yahweh promise the king?

Yahweh will cause the enemies of the chosen king to be defeated and ashamed, but his kingdom will flourish.

Psalms 133:1 (#1)

What does David say about God's people?

He says it is good and pleasant when God's people live together in a unified way.

Psalms 133:2–3 (#1)

To what does David compare when God's people live happily together?

It is as delightful as seeing the priest be anointed with oil or feeling the dew coming down on the mountains of Zion.

Psalms 133:3 (#1)

Where did Yahweh bless his people with the promise of life forevermore?

He commanded the blessing of life forevermore on the mountains of Zion.

Psalms 134:1–2 (#1)

What should all those who serve Yahweh do?

They should bless Yahweh and praise him by lifting up their hands in prayer toward the holy place.

Psalms 134:3 (#1)

Where will Yahweh, who made everything that exists, bless those who serve him?

He will bless them from his temple on Mount Zion.

Psalms 135:1–2 (#1)

Who should praise Yahweh?

Those who serve Yahweh in his temple and courtyards should praise Yahweh.

Psalms 135:3 (#1)

Why should those who serve Yahweh praise and sing to him?

They should praise Yahweh because he is good, and they should sing praises to him because doing that is pleasant.

Psalms 135:4 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for the people of Israel?

Yahweh chose the descendants of Jacob, the people of Israel, to belong only to him as his special possession.

Psalms 135:5–6 (#1)

What does the psalmist know about Yahweh?

He knows that Yahweh is great, he is more powerful than all other gods, and he does whatever he wants to do anywhere on earth or in heaven.

Psalms 135:7 (#1)

What acts does Yahweh do that show his greatness?

Yahweh brings the clouds, makes lightning bolts accompany the rain, and brings the wind from wherever he stores it.

Psalms 135:8–9 (#1)

What did Yahweh do to the Egyptians?

He killed the firstborn man and animals of Egypt and he did amazing miracles against Pharaoh and all his servants.

Psalms 135:12 (#1)

What did Yahweh do with the land of the nations that other kings ruled over?

He gave their land as an inheritance to Israel his people.

Psalms 135:13–14 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about Yahweh's name, and what does Yahweh do for his people?

People will remember Yahweh's name forever, because he defends his people and shows compassion to those who serve him.

Psalms 135:15–17 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about the nations' idols?

They are handmade statues of silver and gold that have mouths, eyes, and ears but they do not speak, see, hear, nor breathe.

Psalms 135:18 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about people who make or trust in idols?

Those who make idols and those who trust in them will become as helpless as the lifeless idols are.

Psalms 135:19–20 (#1)

Who should bless Yahweh?

The descendants of Israel, Aaron, Levi, and those that revere and honor Yahweh should bless Yahweh.

Psalms 136:1 (#1)

Why should the people give thanks to Yahweh?

They should give thanks to him for he is good, because he faithfully loves them forever.

Psalms 136:4 (#1)

What does Yahweh do that no one else does?

Yahweh alone does wonderful miracles.

Psalms 136:10 (#1)

What did Yahweh do to the firstborn of Egypt?

He killed all the firstborn of the Egyptians.

Psalms 136:13–14 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for Israel when he divided the Sea of Reeds?

He enabled the Israelites to pass through the middle of the Sea of Reeds on dry land.

Psalms 136:16 (#1)

How was Yahweh faithful to his people?

He led his people safely through the wilderness.

Psalms 136:21 (#1)

What did Yahweh do with the land of the great kings?

He gave their land as an inheritance to the people of Israel because he loves them forever.

Psalms 136:26 (#1)

Why does the psalmist say to give thanks to the God who rules from heaven?

People should give thanks to God because he faithfully loves them forever.

Psalms 137:1 (#1)

Where were the captives when they sat down and wept?

They were by the rivers of Babylon when they cried at the memory of the temple in Jerusalem.

Psalms 137:3 (#1)

What did the captors demand that the captives sing?

Their captors demanded that they sing joyful songs about Zion.

Psalms 137:5–6 (#1)

What does the psalmist say should happen to him if he forgets about Jerusalem?

He says he should lose his ability to play the harp and be unable to sing.

Psalms 137:7 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh to remember about the Edomites?

He asks Yahweh to remember and punish the Edomites for what they did when Jerusalem fell. They shouted for it to be completely torn down to its foundations.

Psalms 137:8 (#1)

Who does the psalmist say will be happy?

He says the one who repays Babylon for what they did to Israel will be happy.

Psalms 138:1 (#1)

How does the psalmist say he will thank Yahweh?

He will thank Yahweh sincerely and praise him in the presence of the idols of other gods.

Psalms 138:2 (#1)

What has Yahweh exalted above everything?

He has exalted his word and his name above everything.

Psalms 138:3 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for the psalmist when he called?

Yahweh helped him and enabled him to be brave and strong.

Psalms 138:4 (#1)

What does the psalmist hope the kings of the earth will do?

He hopes they will thank Yahweh because they will have heard what he has said.

Psalms 138:5 (#1)

What does the psalmist say the kings should sing about?

He says they should sing about what Yahweh has done, for he is glorious.

Psalms 138:6 (#1)

For whom does Yahweh care?

He takes care of humble people.

Psalms 138:7 (#1)

What does the psalmist say Yahweh will do when he walks through trouble?

Yahweh will keep him safe and will rescue him from his enemies.

Psalms 138:8 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask Yahweh not to do?

He asks that Yahweh not abandon the people that he has made because he faithfully loves them forever.

Psalms 139:1 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh has done?

Yahweh has thoroughly examined him and knows him completely.

Psalms 139:2 (#1)

What does Yahweh understand from far away?

Yahweh knows everything that David does and understands what he is thinking.

Psalms 139:6 (#1)

How does David describe Yahweh's complete knowledge of him?

That knowledge that Yahweh knows everything about him is so wonderful that David is not even able to comprehend it.

Psalms 139:7 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about escaping from Yahweh's Spirit?

There is nowhere he can go to get away from Yahweh's Spirit or flee from Yahweh's presence.

Psalms 139:8 (#1)

Where can David not go to escape from Yahweh's presence, because Yahweh is there?

David says that even if he could go up to the heavens or down to Sheol where the dead go, Yahweh would be there.

Psalms 139:12 (#1)

According to the psalmist, how does Yahweh see darkness compared to light?

Yahweh can see whether in the darkness and the light.

Psalms 139:13 (#1)

Where did Yahweh form David?

Yahweh formed him inside his mother's womb.

Psalms 139:16 (#1)

When did Yahweh record each day of David's life?

Yahweh recorded all the days of David's life in Yahweh's book even before the first one happened.

Psalms 139:17 (#1)

How does David describe God's thoughts?

God's thoughts are precious to David and very numerous.

Psalms 139:19 (#1)

What does David want God to do to the wicked and violent men?

David wants God to kill all wicked people and get the violent men away from him.

Psalms 139:23 (#1)

What does the psalmist ask God to search and know?

He asks God to search him and know what he is thinking, and to examine him and know what worries him.

Psalms 139:24 (#1)

In what way does David want God to lead him?

David asks God to teach him to live in the way that lasts forever.

Psalms 140:1 (#1)

From whom does David need Yahweh to rescue him?

David needs Yahweh to rescue him from evil people and protect him from violent people.

Psalms 140:3 (#1)

What does David say about the wicked?

David says they say things to people that hurt them and are as deadly as the venom of a viper.

Psalms 140:4 (#1)

What do the violent men plan to do to David?

They have planned to destroy him.

Psalms 140:5 (#1)

What have proud people tried to do to David?

They are trying to destroy him as though they had hidden traps to catch him.

Psalms 140:6 (#1)

To what does David ask Yahweh to listen?

David asks Yahweh to listen to him as he pleads for his help.

Psalms 140:7 (#1)

What did Yahweh do for David during battles?

Yahweh powerfully saved David and protected him during battles.

Psalms 140:9 (#1)

What does David want to happen to the leaders who surround him?

David wants the harmful things that they have said to others to happen to them.

Psalms 140:11 (#1)

What does David want to happen to those who slander others?

David wants anyone who slanders others to have evil things happen to them.

Psalms 140:12 (#1)

What does David know Yahweh will do for the poor and the needy?

David knows that Yahweh will do what is just and right for poor people.

Psalms 140:13 (#2)

What will happen to the upright people?

They will live in Yahweh's presence.

Psalms 140:13 (#1)

What will the righteous people surely do?

The righteous people will surely give thanks to Yahweh.

Psalms 141:1 (#1)

What is David crying out to Yahweh?

He is crying out for Yahweh to come to help him and to listen to him when he calls.

Psalms 141:2 (#1)

What does David want his prayer and lifted hands to be like for Yahweh?

David wants Yahweh to accept his prayer as though it were an offering of incense to Yahweh and his hands lifted in prayer as an evening sacrifice.

Psalms 141:3 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to guard?

He asks Yahweh guard him against saying things that are bad or wrong.

Psalms 141:4 (#1)

What does David want Yahweh to prevent him from doing?

He asks Yahweh to prevent him from wanting to do evil things, joining wicked men in their deeds, and eating their delicacies.

Psalms 141:5 (#1)

What does David say it means if a righteous man corrects him?

He says if it is a righteous person who strikes him, he is acting faithfully and kindly toward David to correct him.

Psalms 141:5 (#2)

What does David say it will be like if a righteous man corrects him?

He says it will be as if they have honored him by anointing his head with oil, which he will not refuse.

Psalms 141:5 (#3)

What does David always pray against wickedness?

He always prays that Yahweh will punish the wicked because of the wicked deeds that they do.

Psalms 141:6 (#1)

What will happen to the wicked people's judges?

Their judges will be thrown down from a cliff, and the wicked will hear that David's words are right and good.

Psalms 141:7 (#1)

What do the wicked say will happen to their bones?

They say their bones will be scattered on the way to the place where dead people are, just as the earth is scattered when the ground is broken up.

Psalms 141:8 (#1)

Who is David relying on?

David is relying on Yahweh to protect his life.

Psalms 141:9 (#1)

From what does David want Yahweh to protect him?

David wants Yahweh to protect him from the snares of people who do evil things by trying to trap and trick him.

Psalms 141:10 (#1)

What does David want to happen to the wicked?

David wants the wicked to fall into their own traps that they set to catch him while he escapes.

Psalms 142:2 (#1)

What does David pour out to Yahweh?

David pours out his complaints about his problems and declares his distress to Yahweh.

Psalms 142:3 (#1)

What does Yahweh know when David is discouraged?

Yahweh knows what David must do when he is discouraged.

Psalms 142:5 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh is to him?

David says Yahweh is like a shelter to him since he protects him.

Psalms 142:6 (#1)

Why does David need Yahweh to rescue him from his pursuers?

David asks Yahweh to rescue him from his pursuers because they are stronger than he is.

Psalms 142:7 (#1)

Why will the righteous gather around David?

The righteous will gather around David to join him in praising Yahweh because Yahweh will have fulfilled David's request.

Psalms 143:1 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do in response to his prayer?

David asks Yahweh to hear his prayer and answer him according to Yahweh's faithfulness and righteousness.

Psalms 143:2 (#1)

What reason does David give for not wanting Yahweh to judge him?

David asks Yahweh not to judge him because he knows that no one alive is completely innocent before Yahweh.

Psalms 143:3 (#1)

What has the enemy done to David?

The enemy has pursued him and defeated him.

Psalms 143:5 (#1)

What does David think about when he remembers previous days?

David thinks about all the great things that Yahweh has done.

Psalms 143:6 (#1)

How does David describe his longing for Yahweh?

David says he needs Yahweh just as much as a very dry land needs water.

Psalms 143:7 (#1)

What would cause David to join those who have died?

David would feel as if he would die soon if Yahweh does not answer him.

Psalms 143:8 (#1)

What does David want to hear in the morning because he trusts Yahweh?

Because David trusts Yahweh, he wants to remember that Yahweh faithfully loves him.

Psalms 143:8 (#2)

What does David want Yahweh to show him because he depends on Yahweh for his life?

Because David depends on Yahweh for his life, he wants Yahweh to show him the things he should do.

Psalms 143:9 (#1)

Where does David say he hides when asking Yahweh to rescue him from his enemies?

David says he hides in Yahweh and relies on his protection.

Psalms 143:10 (#1)

Who does David want Yahweh's good Spirit to show him?

David wants Yahweh to teach him to do what pleases him and Yahweh's good Spirit to show him the best way to live.

Psalms 143:11 (#1)

Why does David ask Yahweh to preserve his life?

David asks Yahweh to preserve his life and rescue him from his enemies because of how righteous Yahweh is.

Psalms 143:12 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to do to his enemies?

David asks Yahweh to destroy his enemies who want to kill him.

Psalms 144:1 (#1)

How does David say Yahweh will protect him?

Yahweh equips David to fight well in wars.

Psalms 144:2 (#1)

What does David say Yahweh does for him?

David says Yahweh keeps him safe and helps him escape from danger and enables him to rule people under him.

Psalms 144:3 (#1)

What does David think about Yahweh's attention to people?

David finds it amazing that Yahweh pays any attention to people, since they are so insignificant.

Psalms 144:4 (#1)

To what does David compare people's lives?

David says people live only a short time just as a mist or a shadow quickly disappears.

Psalms 144:5 (#1)

What would the mountains do if Yahweh touched them?

Yahweh would cause the mountains to smoke if he touched them.

Psalms 144:6 (#1)

What does David ask Yahweh to send against his enemies?

David asks Yahweh to send lightning bolts to send his enemies running.

Psalms 144:7 (#1)

How does Yahweh rescue David from the power of foreigners?

Yahweh reaches down from heaven and rescues David from the power of these foreign enemies.

Psalms 144:9 (#1)

On what instrument will David sing a new song to God?

David will sing a new song to God and praise him with a lyre which is a harp with ten strings.

Psalms 144:10 (#1)

What does David say God does for kings and for him?

David says God saves kings and rescues him from danger in battle.

Psalms 144:11 (#1)

What do the mouths of the foreigners speak?

Their speak things that are not true and swear false oaths.

Psalms 144:12 (#1)

What does David want the sons of the Israelites to be like?

He wants them to be strong like plants that grow to full size in their youth.

Psalms 144:12 (#2)

What does David want the daughters of the Israelites to be like?

He wants them to be as beautiful and stately as pillars that craftsmen carve to decorate a palace.

Psalms 144:13 (#1)

What does David ask God to provide?

David asks that the barns be full of many kinds of crops and that the flocks multiply greatly in the fields.

Psalms 144:14 (#1)

What does David ask God to spare the nation from?

David asks that there would be no enemies who could break through their walls, no one going into exile, and no crying out in distress in the city squares.

Psalms 144:15 (#1)

Who does David say are the people who are happy?

He says those who worship Yahweh as their God will be happy and have a good life.

Psalms 145:1 (#1)

Whom does David say he will exalt and bless?

David says he will exalt his God and King and praise him forever and ever.

Psalms 145:2 (#1)

How often does David bless God?

Every day David will bless God.

Psalms 145:4 (#1)

What will one generation proclaim to the next?

One generation will proclaim all God has done to the next generation.

Psalms 145:5 (#1)

On what will David meditate?

He will think about how very glorious and majestic Yahweh is and on his wonderful deeds.

Psalms 145:7 (#1)

What do people declare and sing about?

They will celebrate and declare Yahweh's goodness and sing joyfully about his righteousness.

Psalms 145:10 (#1)

What will thank and bless Yahweh?

All the creatures that Yahweh has made will give thanks to him and his faithful ones will bless him.

Psalms 145:11 (#1)

What will Yahweh's faithful ones tell others about?

They will tell others about how gloriously Yahweh rules as king and about how powerful he is.

Psalms 145:13 (#1)

How long will Yahweh's kingdom last?

Yahweh will never stop ruling as king.

Psalms 145:14 (#1)

Who does Yahweh support and help?

Yahweh supports and helps people who are struggling with difficult circumstances.

Psalms 145:15 (#1)

Who looks expectantly to Yahweh for provision?

All the creatures Yahweh made look to him expectantly, waiting for the food he will give them when they need it.

Psalms 145:16 (#1)

How does Yahweh satisfy the desire of every living thing?

Yahweh gives generously and satisfies the desire of every living thing.

Psalms 145:18 (#1)

Who is Yahweh ready to help?

Yahweh is ready to help everyone who asks him for help when they do that sincerely.

Psalms 145:20 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for those who love him?

Yahweh protects all those who love him.

Psalms 145:20 (#2)

What will Yahweh do to all the wicked?

He will destroy all the wicked.

Psalms 146:2 (#1)

How long will the psalmist praise Yahweh?

He will praise Yahweh as long as he lives.

Psalms 146:3 (#1)

What should one not put their trust in?

People should not put their trust in any human being to save them.

Psalms 146:4 (#1)

What happens when a person's breath stops?

When a person's breath stops, he returns to the ground; on that day his plans end.

Psalms 146:5 (#1)

Who does the psalmist say will have happiness?

Those people who confidently expect Yahweh their God to help them will have a very good life.

Psalms 146:6 (#1)

What has Yahweh made?

Yahweh made the sky, the land, the sea, and all that is in them.

Psalms 146:7 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for the oppressed and the hungry?

Yahweh defends people whom others oppress and gives food to the hungry.

Psalms 146:8 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for the blind and those who are struggling?

Yahweh enables people who are blind to see again and helps people who are struggling.

Psalms 146:9 (#1)

Who does Yahweh protect?

Yahweh protects foreigners as well as orphans and widows.

Psalms 146:10 (#1)

How long will Yahweh reign?

Yahweh will reign forever, for all generations.

Psalms 147:1 (#1)

Why should people praise Yahweh?

People should sing praises to Yahweh because he deserves it and it is good thing to do.

Psalms 147:2 (#1)

How does Yahweh help his people?

Yahweh is rebuilding Jerusalem and bringing back the people of Israel who had been scattered.

Psalms 147:3 (#1)

What does Yahweh do for the brokenhearted?

He comforts them and heals their pain.

Psalms 147:4 (#1)

What does Yahweh do with the stars?

Yahweh counts the stars and gives each one a name.

Psalms 147:5 (#1)

How great is the Lord's understanding?

His understanding cannot be measured.

Psalms 147:6 (#1)

What does Yahweh do to the wicked?

Yahweh makes wicked people fail in what they want to do.

Psalms 147:9 (#1)

How does Yahweh care for the animals and ravens?

Yahweh provides food for the animals and feeds the young ravens when they cry out.

Psalms 147:11 (#1)

In whom does Yahweh take pleasure?

Yahweh takes pleasure in those who deeply respect him and in those who confidently expect him to be faithful to his covenant promises.

Psalms 147:14 (#1)

How does Yahweh bless the people of Jerusalem?

Yahweh gives them peace by keeping their borders safe and satisfies them with plenty of wheat to eat.

Psalms 147:15 (#1)

What makes thing happen on the earth?

Things happen on the earth as soon as Yahweh commands them to.

Psalms 147:17 (#1)

How does Yahweh send down hail?

Yahweh casts his hail down like small stones.

Psalms 147:19 (#1)

To whom does Yahweh declare how he wants them to live?

Yahweh declares this word to the descendants of Jacob.

Psalms 147:20 (#1)

What does the psalmist say about other nations?

The other nations do not know his laws.

Psalms 148:1–2 (#1)

Who is to praise Yahweh?

Everyone in the heavens, all his angels, and all his heavenly armies are to praise Yahweh.

Psalms 148:3–4 (#1)

Who is to praise Yahweh?

The sun, moon, shining stars, highest heavens, and the waters above the heavens are to praise Yahweh.

Psalms 148:5 (#1)

Why should Yahweh be praised?

Yahweh should be praised because he commanded and everything was created.

Psalms 148:7–8 (#1)

Who should praise Yahweh from the earth?

The sea creatures and everything deep in the ocean, fire and hail, snow and clouds, and the strong winds should praise Yahweh.

Psalms 148:9–10 (#1)

Who also should praise Yahweh?

The mountains, hills, fruit and other trees, wild animals and livestock, crawling creatures, and birds should all praise Yahweh.

Psalms 148:11–12 (#1)

Who else should praise Yahweh?

Kings of the earth and all peoples, rulers and all judges, young men and women, old people, and children should all praise Yahweh.

Psalms 148:13 (#1)

Why should Yahweh be praised?

Yahweh should be praised because he alone is truly great and more glorious than everything on earth and in heaven.

Psalms 148:14 (#1)

Who are Yahweh's faithful ones?

The people of Israel who are close to him are respected as Yahweh's faithful people.

Psalms 149:1 (#1)

How should the faithful praise Yahweh?

They should sing a new song to Yahweh and praise him when the faithful people gather together.

Psalms 149:2 (#1)

In whom should Israel rejoice?

The people of Israel should rejoice because of what God has done for them, and because he is their king.

Psalms 149:3 (#1)

How should the faithful praise Yahweh?

They should praise his name by dancing and making music to him with tambourines and harps.

Psalms 149:4 (#2)

What does Yahweh do for the humble?

He honors humble people by rescuing them.

Psalms 149:4 (#1)

In whom does Yahweh take pleasure?

Yahweh takes pleasure in his people.

Psalms 149:5 (#1)

How should the faithful exult?

God's faithful people should celebrate with joyful songs because he has honored them.

Psalms 149:6 (#1)

What should the faithful shout about?

They should shout loud praises to God.

Psalms 149:6–7 (#1)

What is the purpose of the sword in the hands of the faithful?

The sword in their hand is to punish the people of other nations for the sins they have committed against God.

Psalms 149:8–9 (#1)

What will the faithful do to the kings and nobles of the nations?

They will bind their kings with chains and their nobles with shackles of iron in order to carry out the judgment that God has decreed against them..

Psalms 149:9 (#1)

What is the honor of all of God's faithful?

It is an honor for all of his faithful to carry out the judgment that God has decreed against their leaders.

Psalms 150:1 (#1)

Where should everyone praise God?

Everyone should praise God in his temple here on earth, and praise him in the heavens that he created by his power.

Psalms 150:2 (#1)

For what should everyone praise God?

Everyone should praise God for the mighty things he has done and for his greatness.

Psalms 150:3–5 (#1)

With what instruments should everyone praise God?

Everyone should praise God with shofars, lyres, harps, tambourines, stringed instruments, flutes, and cymbals.

Psalms 150:6 (#1)

Who should praise Yahweh?

Everything that breathes should praise Yahweh.